One of the most human pictures, though it concerns a brute, the war camera has yet reproduced. Every man, woman and child who loves a dog will read the story told by the eyes of the French Red Cross dog whose wounded leg is being bandaged. Mute suffering, unswerving loyalty! Truly the Spirit of France glows as steadily in her four footed friends as it does in her men

Medem Photo Service and Cliche Section Photographique de l'Armee.