"La Farandale"—a Harvest Fantasy of Provence.

Morning Song of the Pines."

At Shady, in the Catskills, reached only by foot or stage, is the home of the Blue Dome Fellowship, established primarily to allow painters working to a like end to use together living models, posing in the open. The works on this page, by the President and founder of the Association, Dewing Woodward, were done in this manner in pursuit of this purpose. Photos by Peter A. Juley.

Dewing Woodward
at her easel in one of the outdoor studios at Shady.

"Woodland.'

"A Dragon Fly."

"The Pool."