The Wanamaker Store

News from the China Store

THERE is no such thing as a "department" in this house. The selling of china is not a "department" of our business;—it is a part of it. Do you catch the distinction?

This is a Chinaware Store, and one of the largest in America. We put it in honest and equal competition as a chinaware store with any in the world. That is a principle of our business. We have no half-way methods in anything.

When we give you chinaware news, therefore, it is, like other news of ours, authoritative, forceful and important.

Read this, then, with attention, and seriously. There are few houses in the whole world that could duplicate the facts below.

First—A number of Dinner Sets of 100 pieces each, slightly imperfect—a piece or two missing; half prices, as follows:—

French China Dinner Sets; flower decorations and all handles gilt; reduced from $20 to $10.

French China Dinner Sets; reduced from $25 to $12.50.

Austrian China Dinner Sets; flower decorations and all handles gilt; reduced from $15 to $7.50.

American Porcelain Dinner Sets; from $14 to $7.

Second—Dinner Sets in English Porcelain.

At Seven Dollars Each

One hundred pieces, including 3 large meat dishes and soup tureen. This set is of the same quality as that we have heretofore sold as a special bargain at Eight Dollars. It is remarkable at that price. At its present price it is astonishing. The decoration is excellent, the pieces in new shapes, graceful, light and pleasing.

Third—Dinner Sets in American Porcelain

At Ten Dollars Each

There are six designs in a first-class decoration. 113 and 115 pieces to the set, including four large meat dishes and soup tureen. Floral designs of a new character and beautifully executed. All pieces are gilded. The cheapest of these is a really first-class $14 worth, reckoned at low retail prices.

Fourth—The following straight reductions on French China:—

At $15—Dinner Sets of French China; 100 pieces; flower decorations and all handles gilt; reduced from $20.

At $25—Haviland Dinner Sets of 100 pieces; 6 handsome decorations; worth $35.

Fifth—Some Cut Glass Pieces selling at retail at the usual factory rates. Not an unusual thing here, but, in this instance, an unusual example.

Bowls, 8-in., $3.50 ea. Nappies, 8-in., $3.50 ea.
Celery Trays, $3.50 ea. Carafes, $3.50 each.
Carafes, $1.75, $2.75 ea. Bowls, $5.
Handled Nappies, $1.50 and $2 each.
Unhandled Nappies, $1.25 and $1.50 each.
Water Tumblers, $2.75, $3.50 and $6 dozen.

The Testimony of The Cotton Sale

We are fulfilling the logical mission of a large mercantile organization in making things cheaper for the public. Furthermore we are fulfilling a duty no less manifest (though less commonly performed), in preserving values intact while knocking the prices down. All this is strongly evidenced by the present selling of cotton fabrics, as detailed in part, below:

At 5c. Yard

The Crash Suiting—the kind that was never sold at retail before; the kind that looks like goods that sell for 25c. and 30c. a yard, and wears as well. A beautiful and close even weave and fine finish. Skirt makers have been paying at wholesale more than the price we are asking.

At 8c. Yard

Printed Batistes; regular 10c. and 12 1-2c. qualities, in favorite designs.

At 12½c. Yard

Striped and plaid Piques, in woven designs, white and white with color; the regular 30c. and 37 1-2c. qualities.

At 15c. Yard

Plaid Ginghams, in styles for shirt waists; the 25c. kind.

Main aisle, Rotunda and Broadway.

Women's Suits Not Little-priced, but Cheap--

These suits are of the very highest class, and that, at Wanamaker's, means something. Their prices on Saturday were from $45 to $82. They are just such suits as have made our reputation for excellence and exclusiveness,—in the very finest cloths, in that perfection of finish that marks the most expensive workmanship, and in styles original and beautiful.

Thirty Dollars Each

Not a little price, but real cheapness, for all that. Many of these suits are of Paris make, and sold now for little more than the materials would cost you. Ready-to-wear, but of course we expect to fit them to you.

A Card From the Wall Paper Store

It may surprise some people to learn that there is, under this roof, a Wall Paper Store with a stock that takes the highest stand in assortment, novelty, artistic merit and exclusiveness. It contains the choicest productions of the most famous wall paper manufacturers in England, Germany and France, and the best from those who are steadily building fame upon merit in our own country. Prominent features are the number and character of the special designs from leading American artists, and the splendid selection of high-class papers of the sorts not to be found everywhere.

We have a general range of rich and beautiful variety that stands unexcelled in the whole metropolis. Fine copies of rare old Syrian, Flemish, Gobelin and Italian tapestries; Silk Damasks, Velvet Damasks, Dresden Stripes, Landscape Papers, Cretonne Papers, rich English Reds, Greens, Blues and Yellows, in burlaps; reproductions of Versailles decoration; Directoire and Morris styles; lustre effects sprinkled with masses of natural-hued roses delicately picked out in gold; new, graceful designs formed on the Bride Rose; orchid patterns; new effects in flower and foliage, of old rose, of yellow and nile green,—and the dainty Continental stripes that are winning new favor every day.

Prices? Ten cents to $24 a roll. Why try to detail all? Come and choose.

Interior decoration is a specialty of ours. The wall paper is only one branch of it; the other branches are as well taken care of.

Special Sale of White Dotted Swiss Muslins

The price at which we offer these dainty Summer goods to-day is 33⅓ to 50 per cent less than its straight retail value. This, notwithstanding the fact that the cost of production is steadily increasing, and the goods themselves are becoming more and more scarce in our market.

There are 2,700 yards of this muslin in our present offering, regular 20c. and 25c. a yard values; the sale will naturally be a short one, but while it lasts the muslins are yours at 15c. a Yard

Special Tables, Main Aisle, first floor.

The Shoe Sale Fourteen days old to-day, and grown to bigger figures than any previous event of its kind in our knowledge.

Of course;—sales grow as the store grows. But that's only one reason. Another is that these are better offers than any we have made before.

Not that the prices are any lower, but the shoes are without doubt a little better for the prices than on previous occasions. That doesn't belittle the other sales;—it merely emphasizes this.

Styles are better, too. Here's a summary:

Men's Tan Shoes, at $2.30
Russia calfskin, welted and stitched soles of oak leather, some with double soles, hard service shoes; regular $3.50 and $4 shoes.

Men's Tan & Black Shoes, $1.40
Splendid Shoes for hard wear; not the finest, but honest and well-made shoes that are counted cheap at $2.50.

Women's Oxfords, $1.50
Black kidskin in two new shapes; turned soles.

Women's Oxfords, $1.40
Tan and black kidskin of fine quality; several styles, and mostly $2 and $2.50 grades.

Boys' Tennis Shoes, 30c.
Canvas with rubber soles sewed on; sizes 3 to 5.

Shirt Waists For the Girls For the ages between 10 and 14 it's sometimes hard to get "becoming things." Not here. Our shirt waists supply the deficit,—trim, girlish, bright and cool. All pretty shades for all complexions, new designs for all tastes. Consider these prices:

At 25c. each—100 percale shirt waists; a mixed lot; laundered collars and cuffs; worth 50c. each.
At 50c. each—in percales, madrases and ginghams; laundered collars and cuffs; worth 85c. each.
At 75c. each—Ginghams and percales; striped and checked; laundered collars and cuffs.
At $1 each—White pique; colored stripes and small figures; laundered collars and cuffs; worth $1.50 each.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Bedspreads for Summer The final test of good housekeeping — well-kept beds. Let yours be inviting. Cool-looking white spreads in handsome patterns will make them so. Of course you'll need several in a Summer. But you can get them at small rates. See these:

At 85c. each—Crocheted spreads for single beds; Marseilles patterns, intricate and pretty.
At $1 each—Crocheted spreads, large sizes; Marseilles effects.
At $1.25 each—Crocheted spreads; handsome Marseilles patterns; good quality.
At $1.50 each—Fringed crocheted spreads; large size.
At $1.75 each—Genuine fast black Marseilles spreads; full sizes.
