—and the reason?

Not price, certainly. Men who patronize such places as these can buy what they want.

There's no doubt about it—they want Fatimas because of the Fatima blend.

Fatima contains more Turkish tobacco than any other Turkish blend cigarette. Not too much Turkish, like the over-rich straight Turkish brands; not too little, as in cheaper blends which lack Fatima's taste and smoothness. Fatima contains just enough Turkish—just enough to taste right, and just enough to leave a man feeling right even if he smokes more than usual.

Why not try "just enough Turkish"?
