ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE REOPENING of the Wanamaker Ridpath History Club is an event so exceptional as to demand a special explanation.

The phenomenal success of the Wanamaker Book Clubs during the last four seasons has been due to the great price-saving which our methods have secured.

For the sake of the wide publicity secured through us, the publishers have made price-concessions and have sacrificed most of the profit on the books sold through us, with the expectation of securing thereby a greatly increased regular sale at regular prices.

For this reason our sale has always been limited to a single edition, and we have had to stand out of the way of the publishers' regular price when our edition was exhausted.

Two years ago we formed the Ridpath History Club. Since its close we have had to disappoint all inquirers for this History. Besides the many who asked in person, we have had 1,532 written requests for another History Club. Not a single one of them have we been able to supply at the club price. Having secured the desired publicity, the publishers insisted on maintaining their regular price.

A happy circumstance has just placed it in our power to secure a small additional number of Ridpaths at the club price.

Dr. Ridpath has recently added a new volume to the history, reuniting the story of the last ten years and adding an account of the stirring events during the last few years. The publishers wished us to offer this added volume to our former History Club members. We would agree only on condition that we should have a limited number of the complete work for new club members. For the sake of the new volume the publishers consented, and we are able to reopen the Wanamaker History Club.

We particularly advise our friends, who delayed too long before, to act promptly now. We have never been able to reopen any of our other clubs, and this very special opportunity will not outlive our limited number of sets.

The History is in nine massive volumes, about 7,000 pages and 4,000 illustrations; the Club fee is only one dollar; the payments $2 per month for 17 months after delivery of complete set in substantial half-Russia leather binding.

Full particulars and specimen pages, showing paper, type and illustrations, sent free on request.

Horse Show Fashions--Reception Days

HATS, gowns, wraps—for wear at next week's Horse Show. We were afraid some of the fine Paris things would come too late—this envelope wrap from Francis barely got in. It is of black broadcloth, yoke and trimmings of Persian lamb, inner collar and edges of ermine; lined all through with luxurious white satin. Even with all its dash and style, one might think a black garment sombre; but look! This fringed scarf of red velvet is the needed color touch. No, don't tie in front—it is a decoration, not a necktie; catch it up on the left shoulder. Charming. $275.

The display of evening wraps is almost too varied and extensive—one is at a loss to choose from among so many fine things. Spent a third of the summer—the chief of stocks—arranging to give New York this breath of newness. There had been too much of wastefulness in the methods of the business—we were almost as extravagant as other stores. That is changed. Prices are sensibly less; the garments very beautiful.

The New Hats from Paris Are Elegant

—as a millinery production this fur hat, mink with no trimming except a black wing at each side, is probably the most extremely new. Caroline Rebeaux made it. But there are tens and dozens that vie with it—including many planned exclusively for evening wear.

These others are as fine—our own. If America has risen to distinctive styles in millinery, we have helped to set them. Of course, we study in Paris, but the seeing is through American eyes—and many a pair are on watch for us. Our Paris organization is kept far above the level of appropriating ideas—our staff is of people who are welcomed to the inner sanctum of every leading modiste and couturiere.

But never mind how much care we have given to it all—the exhibition is complete. Will you enjoy it?

To-morrow (Election Day) the store will be closed at 1 P. M.

Women's High-grade Shoes and Slippers Come to the main floor shoe store always with the expectation of finding the newest and most fashionable footwear. A visit now will be of more than ordinary interest. There's been special preparation for that annual important social event, the Horse Show. The selection of costume or hat or gloves must not be the only concern—the shoes are important. A couple of helpful hints:

At $5—Patent leather, with dull kidskin tops—neat, stylish, and the perfection of fine shoe-making; medium heel; lace or button.

$3.50 to $5—Slippers of patent leather, Adonis shape; fancy cut steel buckles, or set with rhinestones; full Louis XIV heels.

First floor, Fourth avenue.

Enameled Bedsteads We sell very largely of these sensible, hygienic and good-looking bedsteads—iron, well enameled in white and liberally tipped off with brass.

Once in a while we sell off the line that has served as samples in the store—lose a third or more, but keep the store bright and only fresh goods on show.

Will you have one of twenty such sample pieces? These price hints will guide you—

At $3.50, regular price $5—3½ ft. wide.
At $5, regular price $7.25—4½ ft. wide.
At $5.50, regular price $8—4 ft. wide.
At $5.50, regular price $7.75—4½ ft. wide.
At $8.50, regular price $12—4½ ft. wide.
At $9, regular price $13—4½ ft. wide.
At $13, regular price $19—4½ ft. wide.
At $14, regular price $20—4½ ft. wide.
At $16, regular price $24—4½ ft. wide.
At $18.50, regular price $26—4½ ft. wide.

One each of many of the styles.

Fourth floor.

New Notions in Burnt Leather Pyrographic effects on leather, decorative and quaint. Pipe holders, calendars, frames for photographs, —natural greens, reds and browns —burnt in striking figures, trimmed with Mexican beads and stripped suede fringe. Barbarous, rich and novel. These:

Pipe Racks, with fancy patterns, merry inscriptions, Japanese mask; fringe and bands of leather. Holding 2 pipes, $2.75; holding 7 pipes, $5.50.

Calendars and Match Boxes combined; beads, fringe and Indian patterns, $1.75.

Photograph Frames; frihged and beaded; looped and tied, or simply burnt, $1.50 to $3.50.

Magazine and Book Covers; conventional patterns, $2.50 and $3.75.

Sofa Pillows, with heavy suede fringe, $5.75.

Broadway.

Bound Magazines A year of Harper's Round Table, 1898, with a wealth of story including three important serials, well bound, 75c.

Still a few of the 1898 St. Nicholas, well bound, $1.40.

The Book Store, Ninth Street.

Neckwear for Horse Show Times

We've had most beautiful neck pieces made for milady's wear at the Horse Show. First showing of them this morning.

Bows and stocks, of course, but they are the simpler things—some are almost like bodices. There is liberal use of the finer fringes, and, of course, laces and silks.

Here is one piece at $58—we paid $19 a yard for the lace, and it is used with a liberal hand. But one must see it all to appreciate the beauty of it.

Feather Boas—what's new in them? The coloring—here are all the pastel tints. The boas are $22.50.

Broadway.

These Dress Goods Are Cheap

Always think of this as a double-team store—regular goods, the standard and finest; and bargain goods, wonderfully cheap. Not a hodge-podge. When you choose the important gown stuffs you want elbow room and not too much to distract you. When you buy the other necessary fabrics you can get along faster. So we separate the things—hence this new—

Fifth Floor Bargain Store

These goods there to-day—

Five thousand yards of Striped and Checked Suiting, 38 inches wide, made to give the effect of the expensive English stuffs. These are half wool, new, and made to be 50c. They are 31c a yard.

Eight hundred Remnants of Black Fabrics at half and two-thirds the full worth—camel's-hair, cheviots, serge, crepons, poplins, cashmeres, silk-warp Henriettas—all the finer sorts in waist and skirt lengths at least.

These other Black Goods by the yard—

36 in. all-wool cheviot, 37½c, instead of 50c.
41 in. all-wool French granite, 50c, instead of 75c.
50 in. all-wool figured granite, 50c, instead of 85c.

Drap d'Ete, 80c, 90c, $1 and $1.25—values up to $2. All 43 in. wide.

And some dress lengths of black goods at an average half price.

These other things are in the Fifth Floor Store, as well—

Silk and Velvet Remnants

About four hundred pieces in all—beautiful silks in attractive patterns and elegant velvets. One to eight yards in each piece. Conveniently displayed for quick selection. The prices are a full quarter less than regular. 400 remnants will not last long.

Silk Waists

All of these would be excellent values at $6. You may choose at $4.75. They are of crisp, attractive taffetas, in violet, bluet, pale blue, old rose, red, tan and black; front, back and tops of sleeves prettily corded; stitched flare cuffs and high detachable collar; $4.75 each.

Various Fancy Linens

Original and present prices are given below, many having already suffered a cut. This last reduction will surely close all the goods out, and quickly, too.

There are hemstitched doylies at 25c that sold first at 50c, and side-board scarfs at the same price, that were 40c. At 45c—Fringed damask tray covers that have been 65c. At 50c—Hemstitched and open-work doylies that have been $1. At 75c—Damask tea cloths and linen squares that have been $1, and scarfs that were good value at $1.10. At 95c—Scarfs that sold at $1.25 and $1.35. Initial huckaback towels, imported to sell at $3, for $2.50 a dozen.

Notions

Little things of every-day use, which, quality considered, are priced very low. There's absolutely no trash among these:

English Pins, assorted sizes in a paper, 5c; Safety Pins, black or white, 2c doz; Mourning Pins, 2c box; Needle Books, 3c; Corset Clasps, 1-in. back, 3c; Fruit Ornaments, 4c each; Porpoise Shoe Laces, 3c pair; Basting Cotton, 500-yd. spool, 3c; Taffeta Ribbon, 8c piece; Cotton Tape, 24-yd. roll, 7c; Light weight and rubber lined Dress Shields, 8c and 9c pair.

Men's Fancy Shirts

We own several thousand fancy percale and madras shirts, made by a firm whose lowest priced products sell regularly at $1.50 each. None in this purchase that would not be a fair value at that price, while many are regularly worth $2. You may choose from this large stock of all perfectly made shirts, in numerous good patterns, at 75c each. All have cuffs,—some attached. New touches, too, that add to the wearer's comfort.

Women's Stockings

Three kinds, seasonable weights; and excellent values, all of them: 3 pairs for 50c—Fast black cotton stockings, medium weight, fine gauge and elastic, 8 to 9½; value 25c pair. 25c—Of fine gauge fast black cotton, lavender split feet; should be 38c. 35c or 3 pairs for $1—Of medium weight fast black cashmere stockings with merino heels and toes, elastic tops; good value at 50c a pair.

All of Sterling Silver

Manicure and embroidery scissors, 40c each; nail polishers, 50c each; folding hook and file for pocket, 25c; desk set, seal, paper cutter and eraser, 40c set; manicure set, 3 pieces on card, hook, file and cuticle knife, 40c set; match boxes, 50c each; cut silver bangle bracelets with cut silver heart pendant, 50c complete. The values of all these articles are a quarter to a third more than the prices quoted.

Postal Albums, Paper Weights, Memorandum Books.

Bought quantities of each of these very cheaply. The prices quoted are from 25 to 50 per cent. below value. There are postal card albums, the latest fad, at 25c to $6; memorandum books at 5c to 75c; and paper weights, novelties, at 10c each.

White Lawn Aprons

Numerous pretty styles at 15c each—though at double the price they'd be good values.

Blankets French blankets are luxurious — they are apt to be in blocks of delicate color with white, like a giant checkerboard; the wool is the finest—lamb's wool or the selected fleece from high-blood sheep. The blankets are finished separately and silk bound. We give you the luxury—if you want it. Thought at first we'd charge a fair profit, but we can determine your tastes more quickly by offering this first shipment at a loss—hence,

$10 a piece, instead of $15

Other fine blanket values—

60x80 in. Blankets, 4 lb., $4 a pair. Wool filling.
78x84 in., 6 lbs., same sort, $5 a pair.
77x82 in. Blankets, 7 lbs., $6 a pair.
78x86 in. Mission Mills Blankets, 8 lbs., at $10.50 a pair.
Cotton Comfortables, $1, $1.50, $1.75, $2 and $2.50.
Down Quilts, our make, $3.75 to the tip top of elegance.

Third floor.

An Indian Room There is large demand for the art of Sunrise Lands in interior decoration. And small wonder—Oriental rugs are matchless in their way; Moorish and Turkish textiles are charming in their effectiveness.

And now, in larger fashion than ever, we bring the rare and strange fabrics of India for your enjoyment and use. A special little alcove holding these things is opened today on the third floor.

India is very rich in color. The study of the differences between its products and those of Turkey, Japan and China is most interesting.

We shall be more and more interested in India's goods as investigations continue. It is a new old land from which to draw decorative art.

Third floor.

Men's Clothing to Order There is a dead-line in custom tailoring—go too low in price and you cannot equal ready-made clothes in looks or service, but we can make a safe and sightly business suit at $20. It's better to go to the $25 group—and the $30 clothes are well and thoroughly worth their price.

May we talk it over with you?

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Silk Petticoats Pretty taffeta silk petticoats — black and the best colorings—

$7.50—quite worth $9
$5.00—quite worth $6.50

—those at $7.50 have accordion-plaited ruffle; the others have umbrella ruffle.

Main aisle, Broadway.

The Toy Store Were you among Saturday's visitors to the new Christmas Toy Store? You're better and happier for it if you were—you have a pleasure in prospect if the visit is still to be made.

Think of two months of the brightest, jolliest Christmas that ever came to New York.

Basement.

Dinner Sets Are Unusually Cheap

While gathering the regular lots of china we find many special lots—meritorious and really cheap. These and our own stock adjustments account for to-day's offerings—

$5—English porcelain; 100 pieces; 2 decorations; were good value at $6.

$6.75—American porcelain; 100 pieces; fine border decorations; value $9.50.
