"CHANCE"

JOSEPH CONRAD'S GREATEST NOVEL OF THE SEA!

In "Chance" the world-famous author has written a story of extraordinary power, that deals with the vital elements of human life. It is a tale of a seaman and a woman on board ship, and the emotions that govern the Universe are portrayed with all Mr. Conrad's inimitable charm of sentiment.

Remarkable as were his former books, "Almayne's Folly," "The Outcast of the Islands," "Typhoon," &c., the author has entered a wider field with undoubted success in "CHANCE." It is full of his beautiful descriptions of the ever varying moods and passions of the sea, that harmonize with the emotions of his characters, so that the whole is a masterpiece of absorbing interest.

Mr. Conrad calls "CHANCE" an Episodic Tale, with Comments, and says:—"Women have a grasp of and an interest in all the facts of life, and any woman with a heart and a mind knows very well that she is an active partner in the great venture of humanity on the earth, and feels an interest in its episodes accordingly. I have aimed to treat my subject in a way that will interest women as well as men."
