TINKER HOUSE - COLUMNS
Greensboro, Hale County, Alabama

Location: In the yard of the Smaw-Knight house, now destroyed.

Large columns lying in the yard came from the Tinker Place (demolished) outside of Greensboro. The woman who formerly owned the Knight Place refused a large sum for them, and they lay in this yard exposed to the weather for years. Since this photograph (July 29, 1936) was taken, they have entirely disintegrated.

the present owner of the "Knight Place",
