
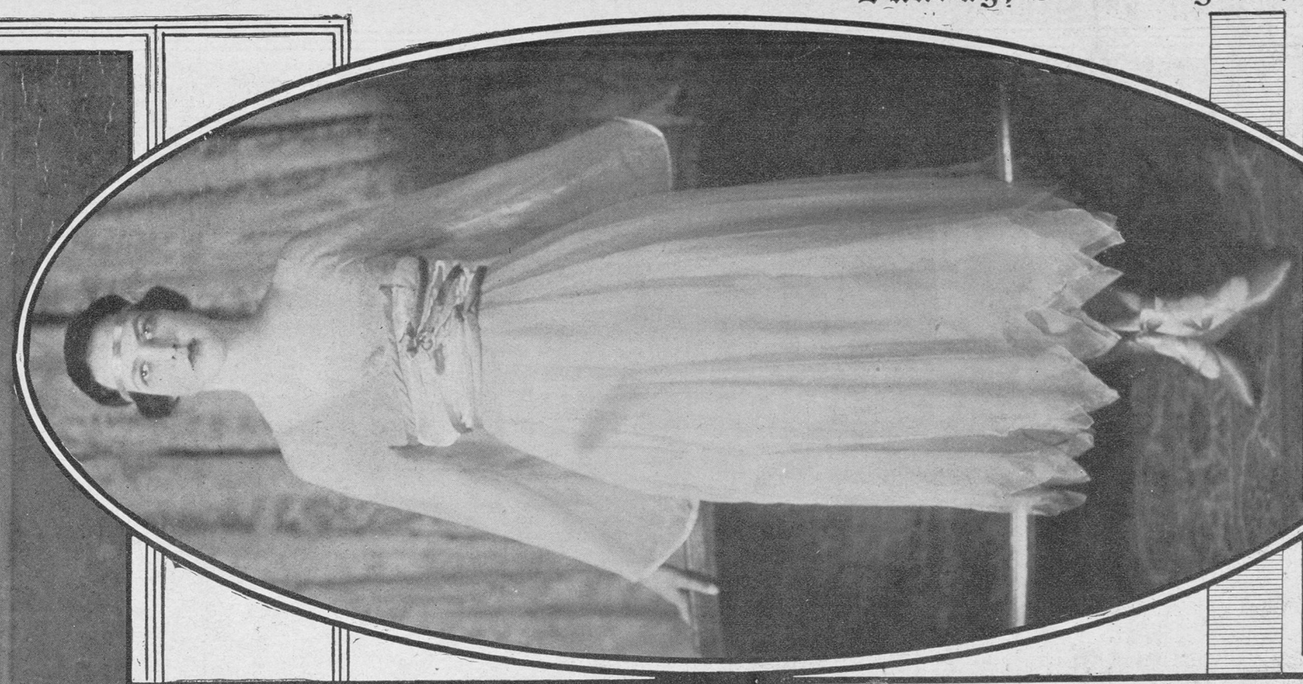
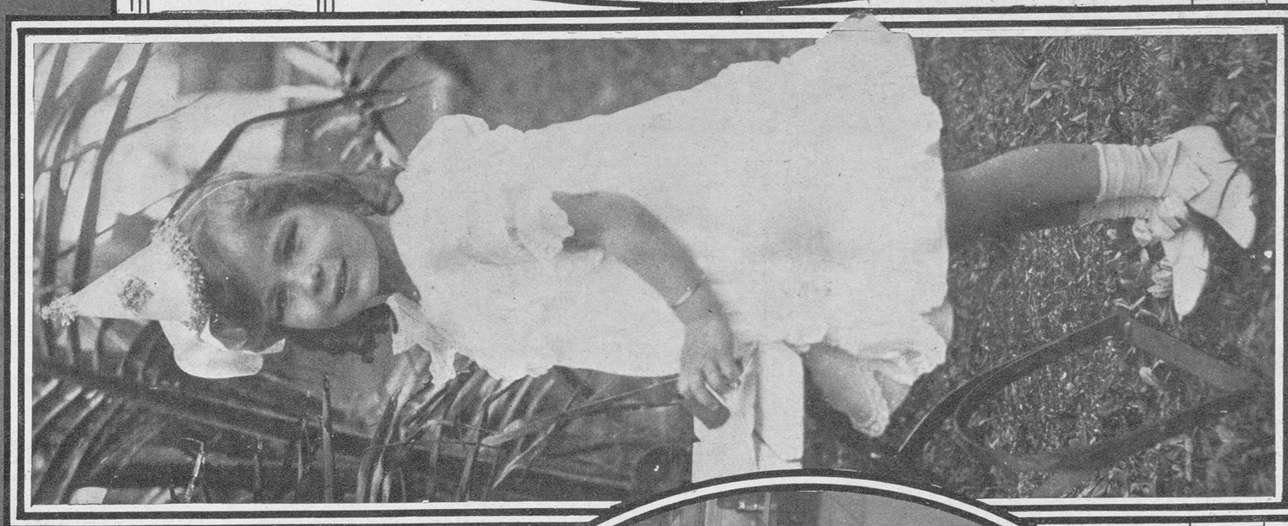
SCENE FROM "THE QUEST OF BEAUTY," THE MASQUE GIVEN BY LOUIS C. TIFFANY, THE ARTIST TO CELEBRATE HIS BIRTHDAY. In the central foreground is the allegorical figure of Youth, the first artist the world had known, bearing an earthen bowl, while grouped about the stage are allegorical figures of black Iron, Copper, Wood, Clay, Gold, Silver, and the precious stones. Beauty, whose knight the artist is, can be seen in the central background bending over a globe of blown glass, three feet in diameter, in which reposes the Pearl, represented by a beautiful little girl.



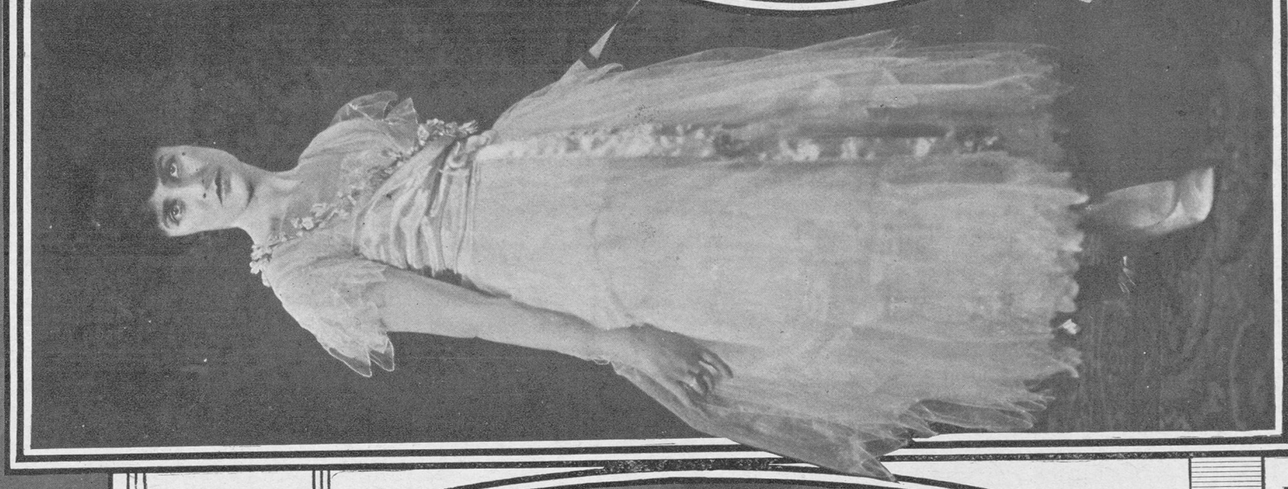
MISS FLORA McALPIN, As a Castle Dancer in the Suffrage Operetta. (Photos © by Aime Dupont, From U. & U.)



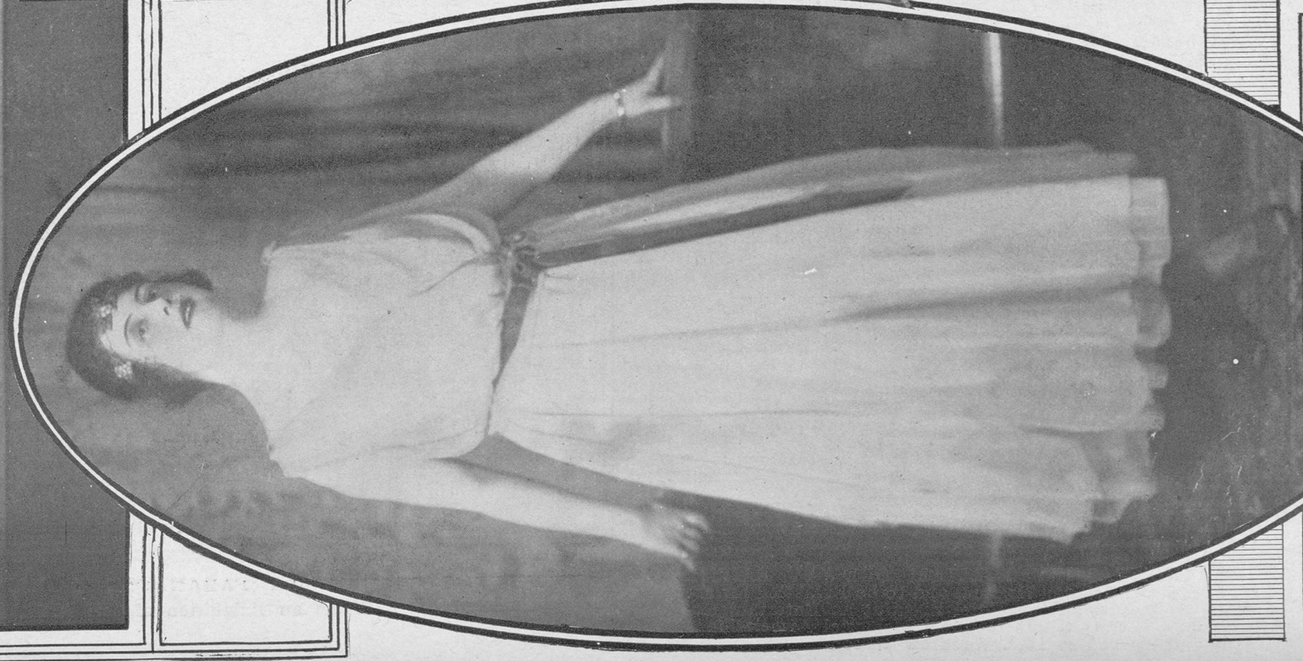
BETTY GERARD, Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian M. Gerard, at Palm Beach. (Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

(Photo © A. P. A.)

The Marquess of Granby, Heir of the Duke of Rutland, and His Bride, Formerly Miss Kathleen Tennant, Niece of Premier Asquith, and Their Wedding Attendants. The bridesmaids, standing, left to right, are: Miss Elizabeth Asquith, Miss Violet Maud Warrender, Miss May Lyttleton, and Lady Diana Manners.



MISS MAUD KAHN, Who Sang and Posed in "Melinda and Her Sisters," the Suffrage Operetta. (Photo by Campbell Studio.)



MISS DOROTHY FELLOWES GORDON, Who Had a Special Part in "The Zeppelin Raid" in "Melinda and Her Sisters."