ALL ABOARD! DEWEY'S SAILING HOME. FOR THE LOVING CUP! SEND IN YOUR DIMES.

"The best is none too good for Dewey!" is the slogan of the army of patriotic Americans who are sending their dimes in to the Journal office by thousands to help build the great loving cup. They are right. The cup must measure up to the man and his victory. Dewey sailed into a torpedo-strewn harbor and wiped out the entire Spanish fleet without the loss of a ship, a gun or a man—a feat unparalleled in naval warfare. The cup must be the nonpareil of all loving cups—a creation of art in silver that will stand unrivalled through the ages—to which the descendants of Dewey can point with admiration and pride as the splendid tribute of a people who love their heroes. There are already twenty-two thousand dimes to be melted up, enough to make a very handsome cup; but there is room for twice as many more, if they come quickly. Our Admiral, on sailing from India last week, announced that he was coming straight for New York as fast as the good ship Olympia can carry him. Be sure your dime is in the loving cup pile before he gets here. Address Journal's Dewey Loving Cup Fund, P. O. Box 1,572.

Here are a few more of Dewey's little admirers, adding with their pictures to the interest that had centered around the loving cup from the beginning. Marie sends with her sweet face a dime, and writes that "Dewey honorably deserves a beautiful loving cup." This opinion is unanimous. Little Totsy Norwell sends with her wee self "my mite for the fund," and Edwin Gard steps in right here with a dime and the announcement, "I'm a Dewey boy." Jennie Manning, a small maiden of three, "wants a place" in Dewey's big cup, and she shall certainly have it. Joseph Dewey Patten, another namesake of the Admiral's, a young veteran of thirteen months, whose birthday celebrates the battle of Manila, contributes his Dewey dime. Two small ladies, Lina Wing and Ethel Potter, five and four years of age, send their approval of Dewey in the form of two bright dimes and their smiling faces. Margaret Crownshield shall have her wish, and her picture and dime will be an interesting part of the loving cup history. From the South, a little daughter, Fanny Orange, contributes a picture of her bright, sunny self, and now owns a place in the cup for her dime.

Editor N. Y. Journal,

Dear Sir:-

On behalf of three hundred and thirty-five of our employes, whose names are enclosed, we take pleasure in handing you that number of dimes, to be incorporated along with their affection and admiration for Admiral Dewey as a part of the Silver Loving Cup.

If their hopes are realized as to the size of the cup, the Admiral's entire squadron will be enabled to maneuvre inside of it.

Congratulating the Journal on the success thus far its efforts in this patriotic movement, we remain,

Very truly yours,

New York, June 28, 1899.

Editor Journal:

Dear Sir—Herewith find enclosed one hundred dimes, with the names of one hundred of our employes desirous of showing their patriotic devotion and veneration for the greatest naval hero of ancient or modern times, America's foremost son, Admiral George Dewey. We most heartily join in this effort with the great New York Journal, New York's greatest newspaper, always battling for right against might in behalf of suffering humanity.

May your efforts be crowned with such unprecedented success that when another century has rolled by the fame of the tribute you have raised for our glorious hero will be recorded as unrivalled in the history of the world. Very faithfully yours,

L. M. BLUMSTEIN.
