THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES CONTRIBUTES A DIME FOR DEWEY'S LOVING CUP.

DIMES RUSHING IN FROM WASHINGTON.

Patriotic Employes of the Government Treasurer's Office, Register's Office and Record and Pensions Bureau Send Liberal Contributions.

The Loving Cup has been created from dimes contributed in all sections of the country, and from every source, by patriotic admirers of Admiral Dewey.

It adds a very appropriate finish to this gift to the Admiral that so many dimes are now being sent from the seat of the National Government at Washington. Chief of bureaus, heads of departments, clerks and office boys are all joining in giving dimes for the cup, and there exists a pleasant rivalry as to which department will contribute the largest amount.

The Treasury Department, through the kind co-operation of Chief Clerk Willard F. Warner, sends a contribution of one hundred and sixty-four dimes from as many loyal employes, who are anxious to show that they have not been too busy to appreciate Admiral Dewey's work for his country, and intend to have a fair share in the Loving Cup. This important department of the National Government will be well represented in the people's gift of welcome.

Chief Clerk Willard F. Warner's Letter.

From His Summer Home Vice-President Hobart Sends His Mite for the Cup, Together with Those of His Family and Friends.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT'S CHAMBER,
WASHINGTON.
West End, N.J. Aug. 31, 1899.

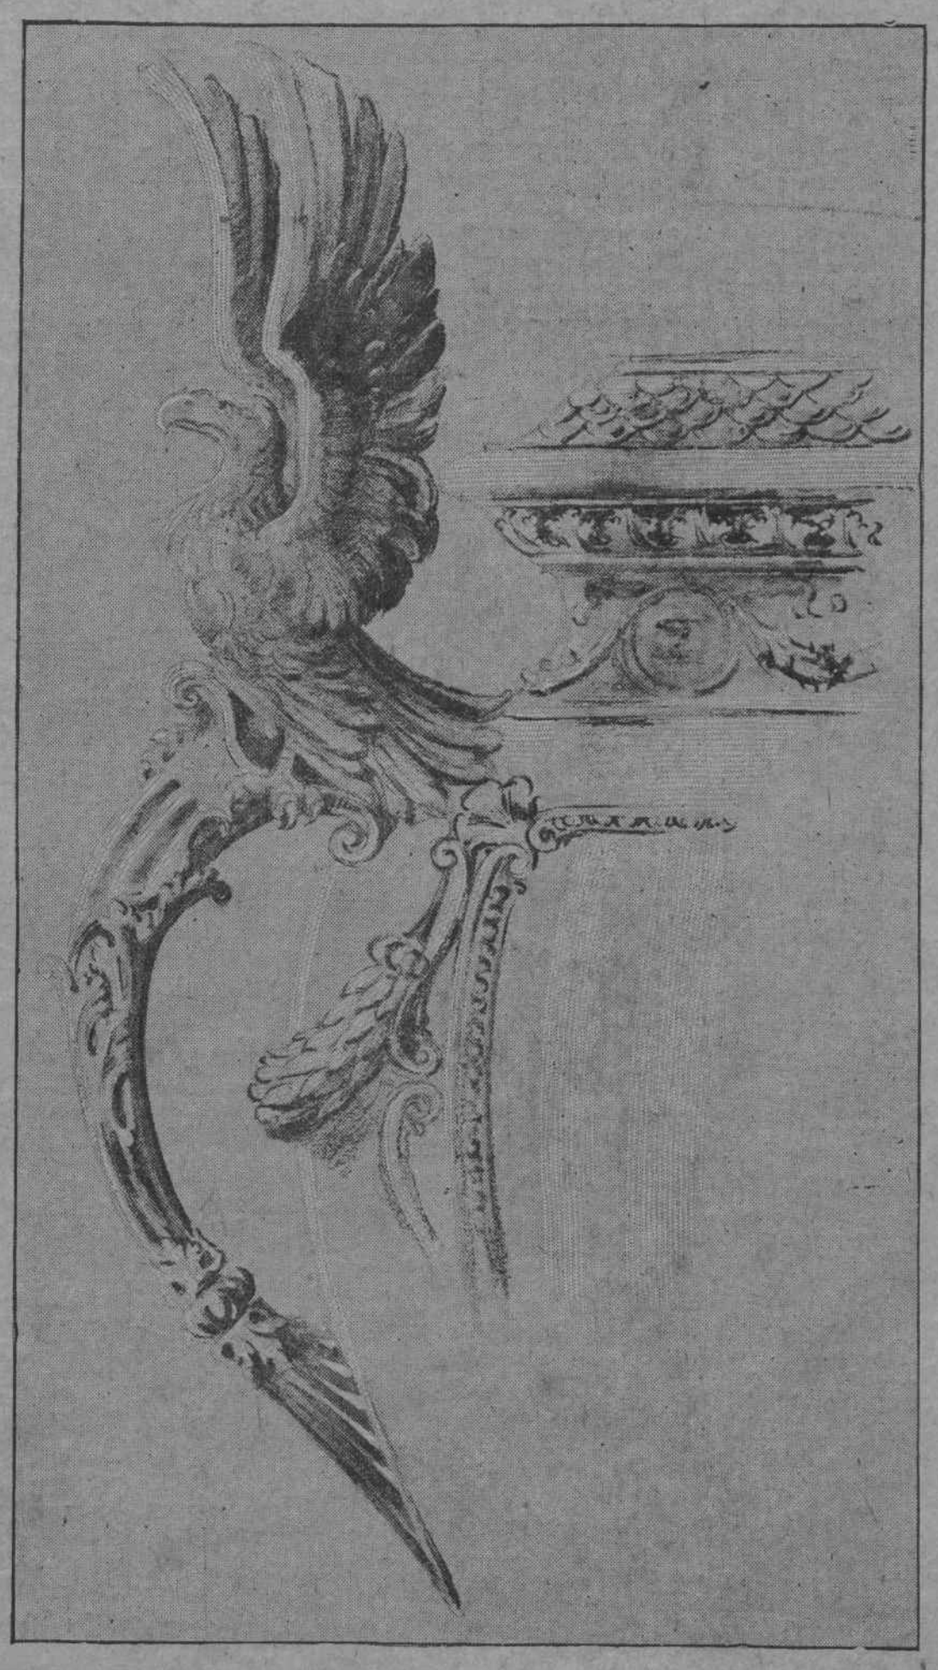
To the Editor, "Dewey Loving Cup Fund",
NEW YORK "JOURNAL", New York City.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find five dimes for the loving cup, from the Vice President, Mrs. Hobart, Mrs. W.K.Newton, Garret A. Hobart, Jr., and the writer,

Yours truly,
P. M. Hobart

Letter from the Vice-President's Secretary Forwarding Dimes.



DETAIL OF THE HANDLES OF THE JOURNAL'S DEWEY LOVING CUP.

The Cup will stand six feet high, so that each handle in itself is a massive creation in silver. They are beautifully modelled and their great size will not be apparent when in place on the finished Cup. Artists who have seen them in the factory of the Gorham Manufacturing Company, at Providence, R. I., where the Cup is being made, say the handles will be one of the most artistic and graceful features of the great silver testimonial to Dewey.

The figures of the eagles on the top of the handles have elicited general praise as specimens of the highest skill and art in silver. With necks outstretched and wings upraised, the figures are full of power and action. They are screaming out Dewey's victory to the world.

Beneath each eagle is a large shield of the Union, done in red, white and blue enamel, making a beautiful contrast of color with the silver background. The other portions of the handles are decorated and chased with exquisite skill.

DRUGGISTS WANT TO HONOR DEWEY.

They Will Also Make a Hero of the Young Apothecary on the Flagship Olympia, Who Holds a Senior Rank.

EVEN Dewey's apothecary will receive the homage of the hero worshipper of his craft. Soldiers, sailors, volunteers and policemen will march in the procession in the Admiral's honor. Architects, sculptors and artists will beautify Fifth avenue for his home coming. Merchants and lawyers will give dinners in his honor, and newspapers will tell all about these things, but in the economy of the three days' celebration no vent had, up to yesterday, been found for the patriotic enthusiasm of the druggists. A letter from the Manhattan Pharmaceutical Association, made public yesterday, proves that a way at last has been found for the druggists to celebrate the occasion.

They Are Enthusiastic.

In his letter to General Butterfield, Thomas J. Keenan, secretary of the association, says the pharmacist on the Olympia is the youngest officer of his grade in the navy and that for his distinguished services he was promoted to the rank of senior apothecary, although he has been in the service only ten years.

"The members of the Manhattan Pharmaceutical Association," the letter continues, "are desirous of expressing the high esteem in which they hold the pharmacist of the Olympia by giving a banquet in his honor, to which the pharmacists of Admiral Sampson's escorting fleet will be invited, and I write to ask if our association could not co-operate in some way with your committee to the end that a fitting celebration may be made, so far as the apothecaries of the fleet are concerned. It is our desire to make the celebration of Admiral Dewey's return a truly representative one."

Sculptors Take No Rest.

The fact that yesterday was Sunday in no way lessened the activity of the sculptors on the scaffolds in the Dewey workshop in Madison Square Garden.

With only a respite of half an hour for luncheon Karl Bitter and Mr. Bell, who are in charge, worked from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m., softening outlines and criticising poses.

Bush Browne, who is calling Admiral Hull out of the plaster, put on his overalls and puddled plaster on the Admiral's face as diligently as any of his workmen. August Lukeman stood on a scaffold and industriously applied plaster to a framework which slowly is evolving into Admiral Cushing.

"By the middle of this week," said Mr. Bell, "we shall have sixty-five men, all the shop will accommodate, at work on the statuary."

An inquiry at five Fifth avenue hotels yesterday elicited the same reply from all of them.

They are preparing for the largest business they have ever known.

Renting Hotel Windows.

Every room with a Fifth avenue frontage was rented months ago, and now there is a scramble for the inside rooms—anything to be near the procession. One hotel for the last week has been in receipt of fifty letters a day offering large premiums for rooms during the Dewey celebration.

"We have refused all offers," the clerk said yesterday, "and shall take care of our regular patrons at ordinary rates."

Another hotel will sell tickets for seats in its front windows while the procession is passing. The prices for tickets will range from $2 to $5 each.
