

DC, GEO, 49-

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WASHINGTON (GEORGETOWN)

*125
1P
1d

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN or VICINITY

RIGGS-RILEY HOUSE (DC-46)

STRUCTURE

3038 N St., N.W. Brick, 30' (three-bay front) x 42'-4" (not including rear ell), two-and-a-half stories, gable roof, round-arched entrance, molded surround with key-stone and fanlight, flat-arched lintels with corner blocks; side hall plan, notable wood-work. Built 1813-16 by Romulus Riggs, a businessman; doctor's office added to E. by

Card 1 of 2

* No orig drawings received. 2 sets of photostats (negs + pos) kept in place of orig. Full size vellum reproducible

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
CATALOGING INFORMATION

81-101b (3/78)

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

(DC-46)

Card
2 of 2

Dr. Joshua Riley, resident from 1826-75; service wing now replaces office. 12 sheets (1934, including plans, elevations, details); 1 ext. photo (1974); 1 data page (1941).

Card prepared 1979