DERRICKSON HOUSE
Wilmington, New Castle County, Delaware

Owner: Sarah D. H. Derrickson

Date of Erection: About 1771

Builder: James Marshall

Present Condition: Good, but with some slight additions at rear.

Number of Stories: Two and one half with basement

Materials of Construction: Stone walls; wood cornice; present roof slate. Frame interior construction; plaster walls.

Other Existing Records: Offices of Recorder of Deeds
And Register of Wills of New Castle County; Article in Wilmington Every Evening Dec. 27, 1913.

Additional Data: One of the earlier and better stone houses of the Brandywine Village Section of Wilmington, which still retains much of its original character. Note the bold proportions of the entrance doorway, very suggestive of the Greek Influence, and the 9 over 9 light division of the window sash.
