PHI KAPPA LITERARY SOCIETY HALL
Athens, Clarke County, Georgia
On campus opposite Demosthenian Hall

Owner: Debating Club.

Date of Erection: 1836.

Architect or Builder:

Present Condition: Good.

Number of Stories: Two. Faces West.

Materials of Construction: Brick foundation and exterior walls.
Stucco columns and wood pediment. Floors wood. Interior walls frame and plaster. Roof metal.

Other Existing Records: Strolls About Athens During the Early Seventies by Sylvanue Morris.

Additional Data: Funds for building raised by Alexander H. Stephens.
Portico across front with four two story white columns supporting pediment. Classical Temple Motif.

The Society Halls show the wear of time, but otherwise are unchanged, except that both had libraries on the first floor.
