STRAUS LE VERT MEMORIAL
Talbotton, Talbot County, Georgia

Owner: Town of Talbotton.

Date of Erection:

Architect - Builder:

Present Condition: Fair. Side and rear wings back of enclosing portico appear to be an addition. Interior said to be changed.

Number of Stories: Two. Faces east.

Materials of Construction: Brick foundation. Wood floors. Frame construction. Asbestos shingle roof.

Other Existing Records:

Additional Data: Two story Ionic portico on three sides supporting pediment in front. This building has been recently restored although said to be built of original material and the central block is obviously old. Now used as Community House.

Mrs. Greer Maxwell of Talbotton writes, "Formerly Le Vert College; later Talbotton High School. Purchased from Talbot County Board of Education and presented to town of Talbotton by Herbert Isadore and Percy Straus of New York as a memorial to their grandfather and father, former residents of Talbotton."
