

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, PEARL CITY
PENINSULA

HABS HI-393

Pearl Harbor
Honolulu County
Hawaii

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

David Franzen, photographer, December 2000

- |          |   |
|----------|---|
| HI-393-1 | Neighborhood view from Laniwai/Lanakila intersection. View facing west-northwest.   |
| HI-393-2 | Neighborhood view from Lanakila by Aloha Avenue showing the rear of houses, parking and driveway. View facing north.  |
| HI-393-3 | Neighborhood view from Laniwai. Building 633 is on the left, Building 636 is in the middle, and Building 640 is to the right. View facing west-norhtwest.                   |
| HI-393-4 | View of the seawall and remnant pier near Facility S649 Pier. View facing east-southeast.   |
| HI-393-5 | Pair of bollards and remnant seawall of Pan American Airways/Naval Air Transport Service/destroyer base site. View facing north.  |
| HI-393-6 | Three pairs of bollards of Pan American Airways/Naval Air Transport Service/destroyer base site. (The third pair is visible beyond the trees). View facing south-southeast. |
| HI-393-7 | Remnant wharf with two bollards at the south end of row within Pan American Airways/Naval Air Transport Service/destroyer base site. View facing south-southeast.           |
| HI-393-8 | Pan American Airways/Naval Air Transport Service/destroyer base site showing stone wall around patio. View facing east-southeast.   |

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, PEARL CITY

HABS HI-393

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

(page 2)

- HI-393-9 Pan American Airways/Naval Air Transport Service/destroyer base site showing brick and concrete paving of patio, and circular planters. View facing east.
- HI-393-10 Pan American Airways/Naval Air Transport Service/destroyer base site at the east side showing walkway and building foundation. View facing west-northwest.