

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, AUXILIARY MACHINE
& ELECTRIC SHOP

HABS HI-499

(U.S. Naval Base, Pearl Harbor, Naval Shipyard, Facility No. 214)

Avenue G near Fifth Street intersection

Pearl Harbor

Honolulu County

Hawaii

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

David Franzen, photographer, April 2001

- | | |
|-----------|---|
| HI-499-1 | Contextual view showing an oblique view of the east and north sides, taken from Facility 47 |
| HI-499-2 | Partial exterior view of the east side by the south end |
| HI-499-3 | Exterior view of the north end |
| HI-499-4 | Interior overview looking toward the south end from the second level platform |
| HI-499-5 | Interior overview from the north entry |
| HI-499-6 | Interior overview from the second level platform toward the north end |
| HI-499-7 | Interior view of the north end from the second level platform |
| HI-499-8 | Interior detail of the north end entry |
| HI-499-9 | Interior detail of the south end of the main space showing gun mounts |
| HI-499-10 | Interior view from the third level showing the roof structures on the east side |
| HI-499-11 | Interior view showing the roof structure for the third level |
| HI-499-12 | Interior of the sonar room on the second level |

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, AUXILIARY MACHINE

HABS HI-499
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

PAGE 2

- HI-499-13 Interior view from the south end looking toward the open north area
- HI-499-14 Interior view of the transducer shop
- HI-499-15 Interior of the shop area on the east side
- HI-499-16 Interior view of the locker room with round wash basins