The previous documentation submitted for this record included six drawings submitted as an entry in the 1993 Charles E. Peterson Prize competition. Those drawings erroneously stated the address of the structure as 18367 Perkins Road, Baton Rouge, East Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana.

A member of the family who owns the property submitted the corrected address to the Library of Congress in September 2003. This written data page serves as the formal correction of the address of this property.
