

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

FORT PROCTOR
(Fort Beauregard)
(Beauregard's Castle)
Lake Borgne
Shell Beach
St. Bernard Parish
Louisiana

HABS LA-199

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Sarah B. Kolac, photographer, June 2012

LA-199-1	Environmental view at Lake Borgne Inlet
LA-199-2	Environmental view from southeast lakeshore
LA-199-3	General view of front (southwest) facade
LA-199-4	General view of front (southwest) facade with scale stick
LA-199-5	General view of back (northeast) facade
LA-199-6	General view of back (northeast) facade with scale stick
LA-199-7	General view of side (southeast) facade
LA-199-8	General view of side (southeast) facade with scale stick
LA-199-9	General view of side (northwest) facade
LA-199-10	General view of side (northwest) facade with scale stick
LA-199-11	Perspective view, front (southwest) and opposing side (northwest) foundations of barracks exposed at low tide
LA-199-12	Perspective view, back (northeast) and opposing side (southeast) remnants of rampart wall in foreground
LA-199-13	Closer view of entrance (southwest)
LA-199-14	Closer view of entrance (southwest) with scale stick
LA-199-15	Interior view, chimney at northeast corner

FORT PROCTOR
HABS LA-199
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS
Page 2

LA-199-16	Interior view, entrance looking outside towards the southwest, chemical plant in the distance
LA-199-17	Interior view, southeast embrasures with blast room entrance on left
LA-199-18	Interior view, view from second floor looking south to the first floor
LA-199-19	Blast room arched doorway, looking southeast at broken rubble wall
LA-199-20	Second level looking south at pipes to underground cisterns
LA-199-21	Second level looking southeast at embrasures above blast room
LA-199-22	Blast room looking towards arched window
LA-199-23	Rubble