

History, continued.

remodelling in 1912.

Description - Painted, white brick on granite foundation.

Three stories plus basement. Gable ends on roof. Simple rectangular plan, 50' x 70'. Fixed slat shutters. Simply detailed cornice. Exterior very similar to Thornton Hall, which was built as part of the same project at the same time.

Reference - R. L. Kenney, The History of Wentworth and Thornton Halls, Dartmouth Student Thesis in Carpenter Library, Hanover, N. H., 1935.

Osmund R. Overby, "Ammi B. Young in the Connecticut Valley," Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians, vol. XIX, no. 3 (October, 1960), pp. 119-123.

(continued)