OLD TAVERN
Haucks Corners, Albany County, New York

Owner: Unknown

Date of Erection: c.1845

Architect: Unknown

Builder: Unknown

Present Condition: Fair

Number of Stories: One and attic

Materials of Construction: Frame

Other Existing Records:

Additional Data: This was at one time an old tavern, used frequently by the stage coaches when crossing the county, and where mail was frequently exchanged.

Now it is used as a private dwelling and during the summer is rented to a family by the name of Houck. It was also at one time used as a Meeting House.

It is an interesting, if rather clumsy, example of the Classic Revival in minor domestic architecture.
