

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

GOAT ISLAND BRIDGE
Spanning Niagara River
Niagara Falls
Niagara County
New York

HAER NY-554

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Jet Lowe, photographer, 1992

- NY-554-1 Goat Island Bridge spanning U. S. portion of the Niagara River between mainland Niagara Falls, New York (right), Green Island (center), and Goat Island (left) looking downriver (west-northwest) from mainland shore. Each section of this pedestrian-only bridge has three masonry arches. Central background structure is Skylon Tower in Niagara Falls, Canada.
- NY-554-2 Goat Island Bridge spanning U. S. portion of the Niagara River between mainland Niagara Falls, New York, (right) and Green Island (left), looking downriver (west-northwest) from the mainland shore. Background structures are in Canada.
- NY-554-3 Goat Island Bridge spanning U. S. portion of the Niagara River between mainland Niagara Falls, New York, (right) and Green Island (left), looking upriver (east-northeast) from Green Island.