

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

CITY OF BEND MUNICIPAL WATER INTAKE
(City of Bend Bridge Creek Intake)
Deschutes National Forest
On Bridge Creek near its confluence of Tumalo Creek
Bend
Deschutes County
Oregon

HAER OR-182

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Sally Donovan, photographer, October 2011

- | | |
|----------|--|
| OR-182-1 | View from access driveway leading to intake building and dam, looking southwest |
| OR-182-2 | View of east (front) facade of intake building, looking west |
| OR-182-3 | View of north (side) and east (front) facades of intake building, looking southwest |
| OR-182-4 | View of dan and west (rear) facade of intake building, looking east |
| OR-182-5 | View of dam on Bridge Creek and partial view of the east (front) facade of the intake building, looking southwest |
| OR-182-6 | View of 1926 waterworks dedication plaque in from of the east facade of intake building, looking west |
| OR-182-7 | View of corrugated, galvanized steel siding on north (side) facade, stamped with "APOLLO ROOFING, AMERICAN SHEET AND TIN PLATE COMPANY OF PITTSBURGH," looking south |
| OR-182-8 | Interior view of living quarters' kitchen on the first floor on intake building, looking northeast |
| OR-182-9 | Interior view of second floor of living quarters', the door left of chimney leads to sleeping quarters, and the door on the right leads to screen chamber, looking southeast |

CITY OF BEND MUNICIPAL WATER INTAKE

HAER OR-182
INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

Page 2

- OR-182-10 Interior of screen chamber room on second floor of intake building showing both screen chambers, looking northeast
- OR-182-11 Detail of typical steel casement window on the west wall of the screen chamber, looking west