

HABS
TENN
78-GAT
1C-

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

Walker Family Farm,
Corn Crib
Great Smoky Mountains National Park
Gatlinburg
Sevier County
Tennessee

HABS No. TN-121 C

Jack E. Boucher, photographer 1962

- TN-121 C-1 GENERAL VIEW; WEST (FRONT) ELEVATION, FROM NORTHWEST
- TN-121 C-2 ROOF DETAIL (right). The building in the background is the Big House.
- TN-121 C-3 DETAIL OF WEST (FRONT) ELEVATION

PHOTOCOPY

TN-121 C-4 Photocopy of photograph showing the corn crib as it looked on May 21, 1936. This structure was also used as a gear shed. Immediately to the right of the shed is Hettie Walker and an unidentified family member or friend.

The original photograph was taken by Edouard E. Exline and is one of five photographs in the album, "A Sketch of Mountain Life: Great Smoky Mountains National Park", compiled by Edouard E. Exline and C.S. Grossman. The album is on file at the Great Smoky Mountains National Park; the photograph number is II-B-(7)-8091.

NOTE: See the note on page 2 of the photo index for the Walker Family Farm (General views), HABS No. TN-121.