Structure Johnson-LeGette-Miller House (TEX-341)
(Thad B. Miller House)

Johnson Ave. Concrete and limestone, five-bay front, two stories and cellar, gable roof, two-story entrance porch, rectangular plan. Built by Joseph Johnson of Virginia in 1847 in a residential development he called Guadalupe City. An excellent example of the durability of Dr. Richard Parks' concrete. 9 ext. photos (1936); 2 data pages (1937).

Card prepared July 1975.
