

STATE Virginia	COUNTY Hanover	TOWNSHIP VICINITY Beaverdam	11s. 12p 5d
INDEX NUMBER VA 43-BEVDA, 1	MONUMENT Scotchtown	Ashland The	HABSI
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. VA-117 ✓	History - Built in 1698 ? by a Scotchman probably named Chiswell.
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	✓	Present owner, Miss Sallie Taylor. Once the home of Patrick Henry and Dolly Madison.
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS		Description - High brick basement, one main or first story above and large un- finished attic. Wide central hall with 4 rooms on each side. Plan is rectangle with four interior chimneys and the upper half of the gabled ends hipped.
* 1p = DISCARD		(over) ✓
F.N - 24, 32 FBI		HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY
6-8369		52

52

References: "Memoirs and Letters" by Dolly
Madison. "Dolly Madison, The Nation's Hostess," by Elizabeth Lippincott Dean. "A Journey to the Land of Eden and Other Papers" by William Byrd.

SALE. COLONIAL INTERIORS, 2D SERIES, PL. 144