

| | | | |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------|------------|
| ✓VI, 1-CHRIS, 1- | | | 15s |
| VIRGIN ISLANDS | St. Croix | CHRISTIANSTED | 12p |
| State | County | Town or Vicinity | 5d |
| "Steeple Building," | formerly the Lutheran Church of the | | |
| Structure | Lord of Zebaoth | (VI-1) | CCN VI0117 |

Company St. between Church and Hospital Sts., Christiansted National Historic Site. Historic museum. Plastered rubble and brick masonry, about 88' (eight-bay front) x 28', one story with a four-stage-and-cupola entry tower on long side, hipped roof, one-room plan. Built 1750-53; steeple added 1793-96; additions and alterations 1841-42, 1909; restored 1961-63 by U.S. National Park Service, Frederick C. Gjessing, architect. 15 sheets (1957, 1960, 1966, including site plans, plan elevations, details, archaeological excavations); 9 ext photos (1956), 2 int.

NO COVER SHEET

(over)

photos (1957, 1961); 1 photocopy 1830's lithograph;
5 data pages (1960, 1965).

See HABS VI-1A for 2 measured drawings of the Steeple's weathervane.

Card prepared, July 1966