

General Strong Residence
Vergennes, Vermont

HABS No. VT-12

HABS
VT
1-VERG,
1-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Vermont

Historic American Buildings Survey
Arthur H. Smith, District Officer
Gryphon Bldg., Rutland, Vt.

GENERAL SAMUEL STRONG RESIDENCE
Vergennes, Addison County, Vermont

HABS
VT
I-VERG

Owner	Miss Neville Vergennes Vermont	1-
Date of Erection	1796
Architect	Unknown
Builder	Unknown
General Condition	This building at present is un- occupied during the winter but is occupied during the Summer by the owner. This building is in excellent condition both exterior and interior.
Number of stories	Two
Material of Construction	Foundation	- Stone
	Floors	- Wood
	Exterior Walls	- Clapboards
	Interior Walls	- Lath and plaster
	Steps	- Stone

NOTE: We were unable to collect any history on this building, only that it is believed that Strong built the house himself but this is not certain. He lived here while his title was, "General", at one time it is said he used the house as a Tavern. The building faces the East.

Approved

Arthur H. Smith
District Officer

HW
4/11/37