

STATE	COUNTY	TOWN OR VICINITY
✓ VERMONT	Windsor	Chester (Corner of Church and Main Streets) 2p
INDEX NUMBER	MONUMENT
VT, 14-CHEST, 1	Congregational Church 2d
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.	History - Built in 1829, the stained glass side windows and the detail on the facade windows and top three stages of the tower appear to be later. The clock was installed in 1916 and the interior redesigned in 1947 by Raymond Austin of Weston, Vermont. Description - Rectangular frame building, two-and-a-half stories, seven bays long, (over) ✓
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	VT-49
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS

gable roof, projecting enclosed entrance porch with pediment, five stage tower over entrance, four Doric pilasters on facade.

References - Federal Writers' Project, Vermont, A Guide to the Green Mountain State (Boston: Houghton Mifflin Company, 1937), 257.

Author of Card - Osmund R. Overby, Architect, National Park Service, 143 South Third Street, Philadelphia 6, Pa.--
October 1960
