(4) Whenever it is proved to the Secretary of the Treasury by clear and satisfactory evidence that any duly registered bond of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, bearing interest, issued for valuable consideration in pursuance of law, has been lost or destroyed so that the same is not held by any person as his own property, the Home Owners' Loan Corporation will issue a duplicate of such registered bond, in like amount, and bearing like interest and marked in a like manner as the bond so proved to be lost or destroyed. But when such lost or destroyed bonds appear to have been of such a class or series as has been or may, before the application for relief is approved, be called in for redemption, instead of issuing duplicates thereof, they shall be paid, with such interest only as would have been paid if they had been presented in accordance with such call.

(5) The owner of such missing bond, described in paragraph (4) hereof, shall first file in the United States Treasury Department a bond in a penal sum equal to the amount of such missing bond and the interest which would accrue thereon until the principal thereof becomes due and payable, with two good and sufficient sureties, residents of the United States, or with an approved corporate surety, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury as agent of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the Home Owners' Loan Corporation and the United States of America from any claim because of the lost or destroyed bond.

(6) Inasmuch as the United States Treasury Department is acting as transfer agent for the Home Owners' Loan Corporation with respect to its bonds, the regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter in force, governing the issuance of duplicates or the payment of lost, stolen, or destroyed bonds of the United States, so far as applicable, are hereby adopted as the regulations of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation for the issuance of duplicates or the payment of lost, stolen, or destroyed bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, and the Secretary of the Treasury, or the Acting Secretary of the Treasury, is hereby authorized and empowered, on behalf of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, to approve applications for relief and bonds of indemnity, and to issue duplicates or make payment of bonds of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, all in accordance with the provisions of this resolution. The Secretary, the Under Secretary, or any Assistant Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to waive such regulations of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation on behalf of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation at his discretion in any particular case where a similar waiver would be allowed with respect to United States bonds; and the Secretary of the Treasury, or the Acting Secretary of the Treasury, is hereby authorized and empowered, as the agent of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, to administer the foregoing provisions for relief and the regulations with respect thereto, and to delegate such authority at his discretion, to other officers and employees of the United States Treasury Department: Provided, That such delegation of authority shall not extend to powers herein expressly conferred upon the Secretary, Acting Secretary, Under Secretary, or Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury.

(7) Wherever relief has heretofore been granted by the Secretary or Acting Secretary of the Treasury as agent of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation on account of the loss, theft, or destruction of bonds or interim receipts of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, under such conditions that such relief would now be authorized under the provisions of this resolution, their actions are hereby ratified and confirmed.

(8) The Treasurer of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation is hereby authorized and empowered for and in the name of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation to settle with the Treasury Department all matters of detail concerning the administration of the foregoing provisions.

The provisions of this resolution shall not be subject to change by any administrative order.
