FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

[FCA-22]

LOANS TO FINANCE PROJECTS OF 4-H CLUBS AND VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURAL STUDENTS

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration by the Farm Credit Act of 1933, particularly section 20 thereof, and pursuant to section 23 of said Act, section 308 of the Revised Rules and Regulations for Production Credit Associations (Chap. V, Subdivision B, Sec. 308, Federal Register Compilation) is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

SECTION 308. Loans to 4-H Clubs and Groups of Vocational Agricultural Students.—(a) Purpose.—The financing of agricultural projects of 4-H Clubs or groups of vocational agricultural students or other similar groups (all hereinafter referred to as "group") should be confined to projects which offer reasonable possibilities of practical benefit to the individual group members. Particular consideration should be given to the sponsor's experience with such projects and the personal attention which he will give to the individual members. All phases of the project, including its financing, should conform with good business procedure to stimulate its success and further the educational benefit to the group members.

(b) Eligible borrowers.—Loans may be made to a responsible adult who is a supervisor or sponsor (hereinafter termed "sponsor") of such a group, under either of the following plans:

1. Such loans may be made to any such sponsor who is otherwise eligible to become a borrower, upon the note of the sponsor for the entire amount of the loan, secured by the individual note of each member of the group for the amount advanced to such member. Each member's note must also be signed by a responsible adult (other than the sponsor), as co-maker, and must be made payable to the sponsor and endorsed by him.

2. Such loans may also be made to a sponsor as trustee for a group, upon the note of the sponsor as trustee, for the entire amount of the loan, secured by the individual note of each member of the group for the amount advanced to such member. Each member's note must also be signed by a responsible adult (other than the sponsor) as co-maker and must be made payable to the sponsor as trustee and endorsed by him as trustee. The sponsor must be authorized to act as trustee in all necessary transactions by a trust agreement, executed by the members of the group and by the adult co-makers of the members' notes, and accepted by him.

(c) Terms and conditions.—All such loans must be approved by the executive committee of the association and are subject to all other terms and conditions affecting loans made by association, except that no financial statements need be required and the association may waive inspection fees and need not require that loans be given on the crops and/or livestock included within the project of the group.

(d) Issuance of Class B stock.—All Class B stock of the association required to be owned in connection with any such loans shall be registered in the name of the sponsor, or of the sponsor as trustee (as the case may be).

(e) Submission to Federal Intermediate Credit Bank.—All notes taken by the association in connection with any such loans which are offered for rediscount are to be endorsed by the association in favor of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of the district, and the following papers are to be submitted by the association to the bank:

1. The master note of the sponsor or of the sponsor as trustee, made payable to the order of and duly endorsed by the association.

2. The individual notes executed by the members of the group and the adult co-makers, drawn payable to the sponsor or to the sponsor as trustee; duly endorsed by the sponsor or by the sponsor as trustee, and duly endorsed by the association.

3. A statement by the sponsor of the group stating:

(1) The nature, purpose, and plan of the group;

(2) The nature and scope of the project of each member;

(3) If the plan involves livestock, the purchase price or approximate purchase price, and that the sponsor has inspected the animals to be purchased by the members of the group and that the purchase price is reasonable; and in the case of crop projects, that he has inspected the facilities and approved them;

(4) That the supervisor or sponsor will personally supervise the efforts of each member of the group and will see that the proceeds of all sales are remitted to the production credit association; and

(5) That there exists no claim or right to the proceeds of any such sales which would be paramount to the right of the borrower and the production credit association.

4. In the case of a loan to the sponsor as trustee, the executed trust agreement.

The foregoing regulations do not limit the authority of production credit associations to make loans to farmers to finance the agricultural activities of their minor children.
