AUTHORITY: §§ 53.101 to 53.117, inclusive, issued under Title II, Pub. Law 733, 79th Cong.; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 414.

§ 53.101 Definition of terms. For the purpose of § 53.107 to 53.117, inclusive, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Veal carcass. A veal carcass is one which is derived from an immature, milk-fed, bovine animal usually not over three months of age.

(b) Calf carcass. A calf carcass is one which is derived from an immature, bovine animal which for a considerable time has subsisted in part or entirely on feeds other than milk.

(c) Lamb carcass. A lamb carcass is one derived from young animals of the ovine species of either sex. The maximum age limit is approximately 12 months.

(d) Yearling mutton carcass. A yearling mutton carcass is one derived from an animal of the ovine species of either sex that has passed the lamb age and has lost to an appreciable extent the characteristics which are peculiar to lamb, but has not reached, at time of slaughter, that state of maturity when it could be properly classed as mutton. The age limits for this group are from 12 to 24 months.

(e) Mutton carcass. A mutton carcass is one derived from a mature animal of the ovine species of either sex. The minimum age of sheep which produce mutton is approximately 24 months at the time of slaughter. Wether mutton is derived from males of the ovine species which were castrated early in life before any marked sexual characteristics other than the distinguishing glands had developed. Ewe mutton is derived from females of the ovine species which were at least 20 months old at time of slaughter. In most instances the animal has lambed one or more times. Buck mutton is derived from uncastrated males of the ovine species which at time of slaughter had developed sexual characteristics other than the distinguishing glands.

§ 53.102 Application of standards for grades of carcass beef. The standards as amended permit the grading and stamping of beef from steers, heifers, and cows according to its characteristics as beef without sex identification. Such beef placed within each respective grade, therefore, shall possess the characteristics specified for that grade, irrespective of the sex of the animal from which it was derived.

Beef produced from bulls and stags shall be graded according to its characteristics as bull beef and as stag beef in accordance with the grade standards herein set forth and designated for bull-beef carcasses and for stag-beef carcasses, respectively. When graded and identified according to grade such beef shall be identified also for class as "Bull" beef or "Stag" beef as the case may be. No designated grade of bull beef or of stag beef is comparable in quality with a similarly designated grade of beef derived from steers, heifers, or cows. Neither is the quality in a designated grade of bull beef comparable with a similarly designated quality of stag beef.

The following standards for grades apply to beef from cattle that are beyond the calf stage but are of approximately average market age. It is recognized also that the degrees of finish and marbling, as well as of other characteristics, relate to some extent to the age of the animal from which the beef was produced. For instance, somewhat less finish and less extensive marbling than those specified in the grade descriptions are permitted in beef of each respective grade produced from young cattle, provided the degree of perfection in conformation and in the character of the lean and fat in such beef meets the requirements for the grade. Likewise, somewhat more finish and more extensive marbling in the lean than those specified are required in beef produced from older cattle. Consideration should be given to the weight of a beef carcass and to its evident degree of maturity when evaluating the influence of the degrees of finish and marbling on its grade.

All carcass beef and beef cuts possess each of the three grade characteristics or factors—quality, finish, and conformation—in varying degrees. A range of variation with respect to each of the three grade factors is therefore included within each grade. The standards are intended to describe only the characteristics of carcass beef and of wholesale beef cuts that are representative of the midpoint of each grade. It is recognized that there will be included within the limits of each grade, carcasses and cuts that are either superior or inferior to those described as representative of the grade. Grade is determined on the basis of a composite evaluation of these three factors, and a carcass or cut of beef placed within any grade may possess some characteristics that are like those in another grade but the total of its inherent characteristics or properties determines the grade into which it should be placed.

The following grade descriptions are defined primarily in terms of carcass beef. They are applicable also to wholesale cuts. It is recognized, however, that some of the wholesale cuts produced from a carcass which may be near the limits of the grade may not be of the same grade as that of the carcass from which they were produced. An evaluation of the degrees of quality, finish, and conformation shall determine the correct grade for such wholesale cuts.

§ 53.103 Standard grades for carcass beef. There are seven grades for beef from steers and heifers, five grades for beef from cows, and six grades for beef from bulls and stags. These are listed in the following schedule of grades.

SCHEDULE—STANDARD MARKET CLASSES AND GRADES FOR DRESSED BEEF

Class:	Grade
Steer and heifer-----	Prime. Choice. Good. Commercial. Utility. Cutter. Canner.
Cow-----	Good. Commercial. Utility. Cutter. Canner.
Bull and stag-----	Choice. Good. Commercial. Utility. Cutter. Canner.

§ 53.104 Specifications for official United States standards for grades of carcass beef (steer, heifer, and cow). (a) Prime grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts shall be very blocky and compact. Extremely thick fleshing throughout is an essential requirement for this grade. Loins and ribs shall be very thick and full. The rounds shall be very plump and the plumpness shall extend well down toward the hock joints. Chucks shall be very short and thick, and the neck and shanks shall be very short. The fat covering shall be smooth and proportionately uniform, and shall extend over the entire exterior surface of the carcass. The interior fat shall be abundant in the pelvic cavity and over the kidney. The protrusion of fat between the chine bones shall be liberal and the "overflow" of fat over the inside of the ribs shall be abundant and evenly distributed. The intermingling of fat with the lean meat in evidence between the ribs, called feathering, shall be very extensive. Both the interior and the exterior fat shall be firm, brittle, somewhat waxy, and of a white or creamy white color. The cut surface of the lean muscle shall be very firm, and possess a smooth velvety appearance. It shall be extensively and uniformly marbled. The color shall be uniform and bright and may range from a pale red to deep blood red. The bones shall be relatively soft and red, terminating in soft pearly white cartilages.

Only beef produced from beef-type cattle that show an exceptionally high degree of perfection in breeding and feeding will qualify for this grade. Beef produced from either steers or heifers may qualify for the Prime grade. Beef produced from cows is not eligible for this grade.

(b) Choice grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts shall be relatively blocky and compact and thickly fleshed throughout. Loins and ribs shall be thick and full. The rounds shall be plump. The chucks shall be short and thick, and the neck and shanks short. The fat covering shall be fairly smooth and uniform, and shall extend over the entire exterior surface of the carcass. The interior fat shall be abundant in the pelvic cavity and over the kidney. The protrusion of fat between the chine bones shall be fairly liberal and the "overflow" of fat over the inside of the ribs shall be distinctly in evidence and fairly evenly distributed. The intermingling of fat with the lean in evidence between the ribs, called feathering, shall be extensive. Both the interior and the exterior fat shall be firm, brittle, and somewhat waxy, but may be slightly wavy or rough. The fat is usually white or creamy white but a slight yellowish tinge will not exclude beef from this grade, provided the character of the fat meets the requirements for the grade in other respects. The cut surface of the lean muscle shall be firm and possess a smooth velvety appearance. It shall be well marbled and the marbling shall be relatively extensive, especially in the heavier carcasses. The color shall be uniform and bright and may range from a pale red to deep blood red. The bones are usually soft and red, terminating in soft pearly white cartilages but some ossification of the cartilages and hardening in the bone as indicated by a tinge of whiteness will not disqualify beef produced from mature cattle from this grade.

Only beef produced from beef-type steers and heifers that show a relatively high degree of perfection in breeding and feeding will qualify for the Choice grade. Beef produced from cows is not eligible for this grade.

(c) Good grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts shall be moderately blocky and compact and shall be moderately thick-fleshed throughout. A tendency for the loins and ribs to be slightly flat and for the rounds to be slightly flat and to taper toward the shank is permitted. Chucks and neck may be only moderately short and thick and shanks may be only moderately short. The fat covering shall extend well over the exterior surface but may show a moderate degree of waste or patchiness, particularly in heavy mature beef. The interior fat shall be fairly plentiful in the pelvic cavity and around the kidney. There is usually a slight protrusion of fat between the chine bones. The "overflow" of fat over the inside of the ribs may be apparent to a slight extent. A limited amount of intermingling of fat with the lean between the ribs, called feathering, shall be in evidence. Both the interior and the exterior fat are usually fairly firm and brittle. The quantity of fat required of beef within this grade will vary within relatively wide limits dependent upon the age and class of cattle from which it is produced. That produced from light-weight steers and heifers which were slaughtered when relatively young may have a relatively thin exterior fat covering and only a moderate quantity of interior fat, whereas that produced from heavier, older cattle may possess a relatively thick exterior fat covering and fairly heavy interior fat deposits in the pelvic cavity, over the kidney, and on the inside of the forequarters. The fat is usually creamy white but it may possess a (distinctly yellowish tinge. The cut surface of the lean muscle may be only moderately firm and smooth and velvety in appearance. Beef within this grade will show a relatively wide range of marbling. That produced from young cattle may show only a limited degree of marbling which is apparent only in the thicker cuts whereas that produced from the older, more mature cattle shall show rather extensive marbling throughout. The color is usually uniform and bright but may be slightly two-toned or slightly shady. It usually ranges from a light red to a slightly dark red. The bone will range from soft and red in light-weight beef produced from young cattle to a relatively hard bone that is tinged with white in the beef produced from older, more mature cattle. It is, however, necessary that the chine bone show cartilages, termed "buttons," in order to qualify for this grade.

Beef produced from steers, heifers, and relatively young well-finished beef-type cows may qualify for the Good grade.

(d) Commercial grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts may be somewhat rangy, angular, and irregular in conformation and the fleshing may be slightly thin throughout. Loins and ribs tend to be flat and somewhat thinly fleshed. The rounds are relatively long, flat, and tapering. Chucks are usually slightly flat and thinly fleshed. The neck is somewhat long and thin and the shanks somewhat long and tapering. The quantity of fat required of beef within this grade will vary within wide limits dependent upon the age and class of cattle from which it is produced. That produced from relatively young lightweight steers and heifers that were slaughtered when relatively young may have a thin exterior fat covering that does not extend over the round or chucks and a relatively small quantity of interior fat. In such beef there will be practically no protrusion of fat between the chine bones and there will be no "overflow" of fat on the inside of the ribs and no feathering between the ribs. Beef produced from heavier, older cattle, and particularly from mature animals, will possess a moderately thick exterior fat covering that may be uneven and wasty, and fairly heavy interior fat deposits in the pelvic cavity, over the kidney, and on the inside of the forequarters. The fat may be slightly yellow, somewhat soft, and slightly oily. The cut surface of the lean muscle may be somewhat soft and watery in beef produced from younger cattle, but in that produced from older cattle it is usually firm but is also usually coarse. Beef within this grade produced from yearling cattle will have little if any marbling whereas that produced from mature cattle, and particularly cows, will show a moderate degree of marbling through the thicker cuts. The color may be two-toned or shady and usually ranges from a light red to a dark red. The character of the bone will vary from fairly soft and red in the beef produced from the young cattle to white and hard in that produced from mature cattle.

Beef produced from steers, heifers, and cows may qualify for the Commercial grade.

(e) Utility grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts may be decidedly rangy, angular, and irregular in conformation. The fleshing is usually thin. The loins and ribs are flat and thinly fleshed. The rounds are long, flat, and tapering. The chucks are flat and thinly fleshed. The neck and shanks are long and tapering. The hip and shoulder joints are prominent. The degree of fat covering varies from very thin in beef produced from young steers and heifers to a slightly thick covering that may be somewhat uneven in beef produced from cattle that are more or less advanced in age. The quantity of interior fat varies from very little in beef that is produced from young and immature steers and heifers to a moderate quantity in that produced from mature cattle. The fat is usually soft and varies in color from a grayish white to decidedly yellow. The cut surface of the lean muscle is usually soft and watery in the beef produced from younger cattle but in that produced from more mature cattle it is usually fairly firm but coarse. The beef in this grade will show practically no marbling except in that produced from aged cattle which may show a little marbling in the thicker cuts. The color may be two-toned or shady and usually ranges from a light red to a very dark red. The bone is usually hard and white.

The Utility grade of beef may be produced from steers, heifers, or cows.

(f) Cutter grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts may be very rangy, angular, and irregular in conformation and very thinly fleshed throughout. The loins and ribs are very flat, thin, and shallow. The rounds are very long, flat, and tapering. The chucks are very flat, thin, and shallow. The neck and shanks are very long and tapering. The hip and shoulder joints are very prominent. The degree of exterior fat covering may vary from a very thin covering that is confined almost entirely to the ribs and loins in the beef produced from younger cattle to a thin, more extensive covering in the beef produced from mature cattle. The interior fat is confined largely to the pelvic cavity and the kidney and may vary from a very small quantity, if any, in these parts in beef produced from younger cattle to a limited quantity in that produced from mature cattle. The color of both the interior and the exterior fat may vary from grayish white to a deep yellow. The cut surface of the lean muscle shows no marbling, is coarse, and is usually soft and watery. The color may be two-toned or shady and usually ranges from a slightly dark red to a very dark red. The bone is usually hard and white.

The Cutter grade of beef may be produced from steers, heifers, and cows. That produced from cows constitutes a relatively large percentage of the beef eligible for this grade.

(g) Canner grade beef carcasses and wholesale cuts shall be extremely rangy, angular, and irregular in conformation and extremely thinly fleshed throughout. All cuts are extremely thinly fleshed. Loins and ribs are extremely thin, flat, and shallow. The rounds are very long, flat, and tapering, and the chucks are extremely thin, flat, and shallow. The neck and shanks are extremely long and the hips and shoulder joints are extremely tapering. Beef of this grade is practically devoid of both interior and exterior fat. The outside surface usually has a very dark appearance. The cut surface of the lean muscle is usually coarse and is soft and watery in appearance. It shows no marbling. The color may be two-toned or shady and usually ranges from a moderately dark red to an extremely dark red or brownish black. The bones are nearly always hard and white.

A very large percentage of the beef of the Canner grade is produced from mature cows that are somewhat advanced in age.

§ 53.105 Specifications for official United States standards for grades of bull beef carcasses. There are six grades of bull carcasses: Choice, Good, Commercial, Utility, Cutter, and Canner.

(a) Choice grade bull beef carcasses have excellent quality, finish, and conformation for the class. Rounds, chucks, and neck are thick and are very heavily muscled. Loins and ribs are broad but tend to shallowness and are relatively small in proportion to the rest of the carcass. The exterior surface is well covered with fat which, although rough, is not gobby or excessively deep at any point. Interior fats are plentiful but are somewhat lacking in firmness and brittleness. Usually such carcasses are derived from young, well-fed bulls, although sometimes carcasses of older bulls meet the requirements of this grade. The flesh generally is of a medium dark red color, firm but comparatively dry.

(b) Good grade bull beef carcasses have good quality, finish, and conformation for the class. Rounds, chucks, and neck are thick and heavily muscled. Loins and ribs are relatively small in proportion to the rest of the carcass and are somewhat flat. The general outline is somewhat rough and irregular. Except for the shanks, neck, lower rounds, and shoulders, exterior surfaces generally are covered with a rough but relatively thin layer of fat. Interior fats are in moderate supply. All fats are somewhat soft and may be slightly oily. Flesh generally is medium dark red in color, moderately firm, and dry.

(c) Commercial grade bull beef carcasses possess average quality, finish, and conformation for the class. Rounds, chucks, and neck are thick and full. Loins are relatively thin and flat or sunken. Ribs are moderately thin. Exterior fats are scant and unevenly distributed and generally appear only in spots over the back and rump. Interior fats are likewise scant, with small quantities in the crotch and around the kidneys. The flesh is moderately firm, but usually very dry. Its color varies from dark red to light brown.

(d) Utility grade bull beef carcasses, although fairly well developed in the rounds and chucks, are deficient in these respects as compared with the higher grades. Such a carcass generally is rough in conformation. Loins are very thin or sunken and ribs are flat and thin. Exterior fats generally are lacking, although small quantities may be found on the back and rump. As a rule, interior fats are absent, although slight traces may be found around the kidneys. The flesh is dry and very dark.

(e) Cutter grade bull beef carcasses have poor quality and conformation with practically no visible finish. The general outlines are very uneven. Loins and ribs are very flat and thin. Hip and shoulder bones and ribs are very prominent. Generally there are no exterior or interior fats. Flesh, though relatively dry, is inclined to be soft. Its color is dark red to light brown.

(f) Canner grade bull beef carcasses have extremely poor quality and conformation. Visible finish is generally absent. A carcass of this grade is extremely thin in all parts. Rounds and chucks are thin; loins and ribs are very thin and flat or sunken. There are no exterior or interior fats. Flesh is soft and dark.

§ 53.106 Specifications for official United States standards for grades of stag beef carcasses. There are six grades of stag beef carcasses: Choice, Good, Commercial, Utility, Cutter, and Canner.

(a) Choice grade stag beef carcasses have excellent quality, finish, and conformation for the class. Rounds are thick, full, and bulging. Loins and ribs are moderately thick, and chucks are thick and heavily fleshed. Necks are moderately short and thick. The exterior fat covering of the carcass, although slightly rough, generally extends well over the carcass. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch and on the breast, and the kidneys, as a rule, are well covered. Flesh is firm and fine grained for the class and shows some intermixture of fat along the muscle seams. Its color varies from medium to dark red.

(b) Good grade stag beef carcasses have good quality, finish, and conformation for the class. Rounds are moderately thick and full; loins and ribs are fairly well-proportioned and have moderate depth of flesh. Chucks are thick and necks are moderately thick and short. Except on shanks, neck, lower rounds, and shoulders, a carcass of this grade is fairly well covered with a thin layer of fat. Interior fats generally are in moderate supply but may be slightly deficient. The flesh is firm, moderately fine grained, and varies from medium to dark red in color.

(c) Commercial grade stag beef carcasses have fair quality, finish, and conformation. Rounds, although somewhat full and thick, are inclined to be tapering. Loins are flat and ribs are somewhat thin. Chucks are broad and relatively thin. Exterior fats are unevenly distributed and generally appear as a thin layer over the back and in thin patches on the rump and shoulders. Interior fats are somewhat scant and kidneys are generally only partially covered. The flesh is usually slightly soft and moist. Its color varies from medium to dark red.

(d) Utility grade stag beef carcasses have poor quality, finish, and conformation. Rounds are thin and tapering. Loins are thin, flat, or slightly sunken. Ribs are thin and chucks are broad and thin. Both exterior and interior fats are scant. Thin patches of fat are usually found along the back and on the shoulders. Small quantities usually are found in the crotch and around the kidneys. Flesh is soft, moist, and dark colored.

(e) Cutter grade stag beef carcasses are decidedly deficient in quality, finish, and conformation. Rounds are thin, long, and tapering. Loins are very flat or sunken, and ribs are flat and very thin. Chucks and plates are broad and thin. All bones are prominent because of deficient flesh and fat covering. Except for very small patches along the back and around the kidneys, visible fats are absent. The flesh is soft, watery, and dark colored. This grade is seldom found on the markets.

(f) Canner grade stag beef carcasses are extremely deficient in quality, finish, and conformation. All bones are very prominent. Rounds are extremely thin and sharply tapering. Loins are also extremely thin and dished or sunken. Ribs, chucks, and plates are very thin. No visible exterior or interior fats are present. The flesh is dark, soft, and watery. This grade is rarely found on the markets.

§ 53.107 Market groups of veal carcasses. Largely because veal is derived from relatively very young animals such carcasses are not sorted into so many market groups as are carcasses derived from older and more mature animals.

(a) Classes. Classes of carcasses are based on the sex condition of the animals which produce them. Hence, there are three classes of veal carcasses: Steer, heifer, and bull. But because veal carcasses are derived from very young animals, sex condition has not had time to exert an important influence on the conformation, finish, or quality of the animal or its carcass, and these animals are so young that very few of the males are castrated prior to slaughter. This practically eliminates the steer-veal class. For these reasons, in market practice, veal carcasses are not segregated into classes.

(b) Weight selections. Weight is an important consideration in marketing veal carcasses and for that reason such carcasses are divided into three weight groups—lightweight, medium weight, and heavyweight.

(c) Grades. Grading is the most important segregation of veal carcasses which is made during the process of marketing. Hence, such carcasses are divided into six grades ranging from Prime or No. A1 to Cull or No. 5.

§ 53.108 Veal carcass schedule.

Classes	Weight selections ¹	Grades
Steer, half, bull	Lightweight: 70 pounds down	Choice or No. 1. Good or No. 2. Commercial or No. 3. Utility or No. 4. Cull or No. 5.
	Medium weight: 70 to 110 pounds	Prime or No. A1. Choice or No. 1. Good or No. 2. Commercial or No. 3.
	Heavyweight: 110 pounds up	Utility or No. 4. Prime or No. A1. Choice or No. 1. Good or No. 2. Commercial or No. 3.

§ 53.109 Market groups of calf carcasses. Veal carcasses are never sorted into classes on the market but calf carcasses sometimes are sorted. As a rule calf carcasses are derived from animals which are somewhat older than those that produce veal. Some of the older members of the calf group make a fairly near approach to maturity. In such instances the sex condition of the animal has had time to exert some influence on its conformation, finish, and quality, and on that of its carcass. Hence, calf carcasses are sometimes sorted, bought, and sold on the basis of the class they represent.

(a) Classes. There are three classes of calf carcasses: Steer, heifer, and bull. Despite the fact that these classes are recognized on the market, the differences between calf carcasses of the various classes usually are so slight that it is almost impossible to describe accurately those differences in words. For that reason the Department of Agriculture has not felt justified in setting up separate grade standards for each class. It should be understood, therefore, that the grade standards which follow are applicable to all classes of calf carcasses.

(b) Weight selections. There are three weight selections of calf carcasses: Lightweight, mediumweight, and heavyweight.

(c) Grades. Grading is the most important segregation to which such carcasses are subjected in the process of marketing. Six grades are listed, ranging from Prime or No. A1 to Cull or No. 5.

§ 53.110 Calf carcass schedule. The following schedule sets forth in graphic form the important groups into which calf carcasses are normally sorted and indicates the relationships which exist between the various groups.

the carcass, are moderately soft but are slightly lacking in redness.

(e) Utility or No. 4. A Utility or No. 4 grade veal carcass is very deficient in conformation, finish and quality.

In general shape or outline it is very rough and rangy. It is very narrow and shallow in proportion to its length. All parts are very deficient in fleshing, each part being proportionately lacking in this respect. Because of the relative thinness of fleshing the carcass presents a very depressed or hollowed-out appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a very low proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are very long and thin. Rounds are very thin and tapering. Loin and back are very shallow and depressed. Shoulders and breast are very narrow and thin. The neck is very long and thin.

There is no fat covering over the back, loin, or inner walls of the chest and abdomen. Usually there are extremely small deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys. The color of the fat usually is grayish white tinged with yellow.

The flesh ranges from pinkish brown to dark tan in color, is soft, very coarse-grained and, in a cut surface, is very moist to the touch. All bones are large in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass, are moderately soft but are lacking in redness.

(f) Cull or No. 5. A Cull or No. 5 grade veal carcass is extremely deficient in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it is extremely rough and rangy. It is extremely narrow and shallow in proportion to its length. All parts are extremely deficient in fleshing, each part being proportionately lacking in this respect. Because of the relative thinness of fleshing the carcass presents an extremely shallow, depressed, or hollowed-out appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in an extremely low proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are extremely long and thin. Rounds are extremely thin and tapering. Loin and back are extremely depressed. Shoulders and breast are extremely narrow and thin. The neck is extremely long and thin.

There is no fat covering over any part of the exterior of the carcass and none on the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are no discernible fat deposits in the breast, flanks, or crotch, and only extremely small quantities around the kidneys.

The flesh usually is reddish brown in color, is very soft, coarse-grained and watery. All bones are very large in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass and are decidedly lacking in softness and redness.

§ 53.113 Specifications for official United States standards for grades of calf carcasses. There are six grades of calf carcasses: Prime or No. A1, Choice or No. 1, Good or No. 2, Commercial or No. 3, Utility or No. 4, and Cull or No. 5.

(a) Prime or No. A1. A Prime or No. A1 grade calf carcass very nearly approaches the ideal in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it is very blocky and compact. It is very broad and deep in proportion to its length. All parts are very thickly fleshed, each part having its proper proportionate thickness. Because of the thickness of fleshing the lines of the carcass present a very plump, full, well-rounded appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a very high proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are very short and thick. Rounds are very thick and bulging. Loin and back are very full and plump. Shoulders and breasts are very broad and thick. The neck is very short and thick.

There is a thick covering of fat over the back and loin and a moderately thick fat covering over the rump and the top of the shoulders and over the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are large deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys. All exterior fat is very smooth and moderately firm. The color of the fat is white or slightly creamy.

The flesh ranges from a light tan to a reddish brown in color, is very firm, fine-grained and, in a cut surface, is velvety to sight and touch. All bones are very small in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass and are moderately soft and red.

(b) Choice or No. 1. A Choice or No. 1 grade calf carcass is markedly superior in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it is blocky and compact. It is broad and deep in proportion to its length. All parts are thickly fleshed, each part having its proper proportionate thickness. Because of the thickness of fleshing the lines of the carcass present a plump, full, well-rounded appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a high proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are short and thick. Rounds are thick and bulging. Loin and back are full and plump. Shoulders and breasts are broad and thick. The neck is short and thick.

There is a moderately thick covering of fat over the back and loin and a moderately thin fat covering over the rump and the tops of the shoulders and over the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are moderately large deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys. All exterior fat is moderately smooth. The color of the fat ranges from white to a creamy white.

The flesh usually is reddish brown in color, is firm and fine-grained. All bones are small in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass but are slightly lacking in redness.

(c) Good or No. 2. A good or No. 2 grade calf carcass possesses a moderately high degree of conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it tends to be blocky and compact. It is moderately broad and deep in proportion to its length. All parts are moderately thick-fleshed, each part having its proper proportionate thickness. Because of the thickness of fleshing the lines of the carcass present a moderately plump, full, well-rounded appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a moderately high proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are moderately short and thick. Rounds are moderately thick and bulging. Loin and back are moderately full and plump. Shoulders and breast are moderately broad and thick. The neck is moderately short and thick.

There is a slightly thin covering of fat over the loin and back and over the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There is a very thin fat covering over the rump and tops of the shoulders. There are moderate deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch and around the kidneys. The color of the fat usually is a creamy white.

The flesh ranges from reddish-brown to a pale red, is moderately firm, fine-grained and, in a cut surface, may be slightly moist to sight and touch. All bones are moderately small in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass and are only moderately red.

(d) Commercial or No. 3. A Commercial or No. 3 grade calf carcass is slightly deficient in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it is slightly rough and rangy. It is slightly narrow and shallow in proportion to its length. All parts are slightly deficient in fleshing, each part being proportionately lacking in this respect. Because of the relative thickness of fleshing, the lines of the carcass present a slightly depressed, sunken, or hollowed-out appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a slightly low proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are slightly long and thin. Rounds are slightly thin and tapering. Loin and back are slightly shallow and depressed. Shoulders and breast are slightly narrow and thin. The neck is slightly long and thin.

There are very small and thin patches of fat on the back and loin and extremely thin patches over the rump and the tops of the shoulders and on the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are small deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys, the latter usually being only partially covered. The color of the fat usually is a creamy white tinged with yellow.

The flesh usually is reddish brown in color, is slightly soft, coarse-grained and, in a cut surface, is slightly watery in appearance. All bones are slightly large in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass, and are markedly lacking in redness.

(e) Utility or No. 4. A Utility or No. 4 grade calf carcass is very deficient in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape and outline it is very rough and rangy. It is very narrow and shallow in proportion to its length. All parts are very deficient in fleshing, each part being proportionately lacking in this respect. Because of the relative thinness of the fleshing the lines of the carcass present a very depressed, sunken, or hollowed-out appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in a very low proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are very long and thin. Rounds are very thin and tapering. Loin and back are very shallow and depressed. Shoulders and breast are very narrow and thin. The neck is very long and thin.

There are extremely small and thin patches of fat on the back and loin with no discernible fat covering over the rump and the top of the shoulders or over the inner walls of the chest and abdomen. There are extremely small deposits of fat in the breast, flanks, and crotch, and around the kidneys. The fat usually has a decidedly yellow tinge.

The flesh usually is rather dark red in color, is soft, very coarse-grained, and is very moist and watery. All bones are very large in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass and are very lacking in redness.

(f) Cull or No. 5. A Cull or No. 5 grade calf carcass is extremely deficient in conformation, finish, and quality.

In general shape or outline it is extremely rough and rangy. It is extremely narrow and shallow in proportion to its length. All parts are extremely deficient in fleshing, each part being proportionately lacking in this respect. Because of the relative thinness of fleshing the lines of the carcass present an extremely depressed, sunken, or hollowed-out appearance. The different parts are developed and balanced in such a way as to result in an extremely low proportion of back, loin, and round combined.

The shanks are extremely long and thin. Rounds are extremely thin and tapering. Loins and back are extremely shallow and depressed. Shoulders and breast are extremely narrow and thin. The neck is extremely long and thin.

There is usually no visible exterior fat and the interior fat is limited to extremely small amounts in the crotch and around the kidneys.

The flesh usually is slightly dark red in color, is very soft, coarse-grained, and is very watery. All bones are extremely large in proportion to the size and weight of the carcass and extremely lacking in redness.

§ 53.114 Factors in grading lamb and mutton carcasses. The system of grading lamb carcasses, yearling mutton, and mutton carcasses of which the following standards are a part is based on the three factors—conformation, finish, and quality.

(a) Conformation is the form, shape, outline, or contour of the carcass. It ranges from the smooth, plump, well-rounded, well-proportioned conformation of the most highly developed carcass produced to the rough, rugged, irregular, disproportioned conformation of the thinnest, boniest, most poorly shaped carcass produced.

(b) Finish is fat, and includes the fat which appears on the outer surface of the carcass, on the inner walls of the chest and abdomen, around the kidneys, the seams of fat which sometimes lie between the larger muscles, and the distribution of fat through the muscle tissues. Finish involves not only the quantity of fat but its quality and distribution. Finish ranges from that of the carcass which is almost completely covered both inside and outside with a smooth layer of firm fat, to that of the carcass which is totally lacking in discernible fat.

(c) Quality is largely a characteristic of the flesh. It includes texture, tenderness, juiciness, flavor, and color. Quality also involves ratios or proportions of flesh to bone and of fat to lean meat. Quality, therefore, ranges from that of the small-boned, heavily fleshed, highly finished, well-proportioned carcass possessing a very high degree of tenderness, juiciness, and flavor, and very fine fiber or texture, to that of the very large-boned, thinly fleshed, ill-proportioned carcass with an extremely low degree of tenderness, juiciness, and flavor, and extreme coarseness in texture.

§ 53.115 Specifications for official United States standards for grades of lamb carcasses. Lamb carcasses are graded as Prime or No. 1, Choice or No. 2, Commercial or No. 3, Utility or No. 4, and Cull or No. 5.

(a) Prime or No. 1. Prime or No. 1 grade lamb carcasses are practically ideal in conformation, finish, and quality.

The general outlines of carcasses of this grade are especially attractive, being symmetrical to a marked degree, owing to an abundance of highest grade, palatable flesh, particularly in the regions of the most desired cuts. They are very compact and blocky, have short, thick plump legs, broad backs, thick, well-fleshed loins, ribs, and chucks, well-proportioned breasts, and full, thick flanks. All fats are firm and of excellent quality, but they are not brittle.

Both exterior and interior fats are white or slightly creamy in color and may be tinged with pink. The outer covering of fat is smooth, of moderate depth, evenly distributed over the back and sides, and is free from all bunchiness or excessive deposits. The fat covering is interspersed with strips of pink flesh over the sides and a more even distribution over the lower limits of the breasts and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful but not excessive or waxy, the kidneys being covered to a uniform depth. The lean flesh is firm in all parts, fine-grained, and the cut surfaces feel smooth and velvety to the touch. Its color is light pink. The bones are relatively small, soft, and tinged with blood. The break joints of the forelegs show four well-defined, relatively soft, spongy red ridges.

(b) Choice or No. 2. Choice or No. 2 grade lamb carcasses have excellent conformation, finish, and quality, but are usually slightly deficient in one or more respects as compared with Prime grade carcasses.

Choice grade carcasses are relatively short and compact, have short plump legs; broad thick backs, thick full loins, ribs, and chucks, short plump necks, and well-proportioned flanks and breasts. The general outlines resemble closely those of Prime grade carcasses. All fats are of good quality, white or slightly creamy. The outer covering of fat is smooth and usually well distributed, but may be deficient in this respect as compared with that on Prime grade carcasses. Loins and ribs are well covered with fat, which recedes to a moderately thin covering over hind legs and shoulders. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of pink flesh over the sides and a more even distribution over the lower limits of the breast and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch and over the kidneys but not excessive. The flesh is fine-grained, firm, and has a light pink color. Bones are relatively small, soft, and tinged with blood. The break joint of the forelegs shows four smooth, moist, well-defined red-ridges.

(c) Good or No. 2. Good or No. 2 grade lamb carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality, but are deficient in one or more respects as compared with Choice grade carcasses.

Carcasses of this grade are well proportioned and reasonably plump but may be slightly deficient in breadth or depth across the hips, backs, or shoulders. Legs, although short and moderately plump, are more tapering than in carcasses of the higher grades. Loins, ribs, and chucks are thick and full, and necks are short and reasonably plump. There may be slight indications of paunchiness or a slight tendency toward the rangy type, which is indicated by long tapering shanks and somewhat longer body. Bones are soft and tinged with red, both indicating a young animal. The break joints of the forelegs show four well-defined relatively soft red ridges.

The outer covering of fat is smooth and even over the back and hips, diminishing sharply toward the shanks and flanks. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of lean flesh under the fell, but these are not usually so pronounced as in Choice and Prime grade carcasses. Interior fats are plentiful, but they are unevenly distributed, being in greatest quantity in the regions of kidneys and crotch. All fats are of good quality and white or slightly creamy in color. The flesh is moderately firm, fine-grained, and light pink in color.

(d) Commercial or No. 3. Commercial or No. 3 grade lamb carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality.

Carcasses of this grade are usually somewhat angular or rangy in conformation, with moderately long, thin necks and shanks and relatively narrow hips, backs, and shoulders. They have moderately long, tapering legs, and they lack the plumpness of the better grades. Ribs and loins are lacking somewhat in depth of flesh. The break joints of the forelegs show four well-defined soft ridges, but these lack redness to a marked degree.

Carcasses of this grade usually have a moderately thin outer covering of fat, but it is not evenly distributed. There are also some carcasses in this grade that have excessive quantities of fat which disqualify them for a higher grade. Interior fats are relatively scarce, the kidneys being only partially covered. Small quantities are also found in the crotch. The thin strips of lean under the fell are not nearly so prominent as in the better grades. Heavier carcasses of this grade or those approaching the yearling mutton stage have proportionately greater quantities of fat than have lighter carcasses. The flesh is usually inclined to be soft, spongy, and moderately fine-grained, or may be firm in carcasses from heavier and older animals. Its color varies from light to dark pink.

(e) Utility or No. 4. Utility or No. 4 grade lamb carcasses are angular and have poor conformation, finish, and quality.

All bones are prominent. Such carcasses are disproportionately long and narrow. The contour of the backbone is plainly visible from neck to tail. Sides are thin, and flanks are thin and flabby. There is little or no exterior or interior fat, slight traces being sometimes found around the kidneys and in the crotch. The heavier and older carcasses frequently have small patches of fat in the regions of the kidneys. This fat usually has a bluish tinge. Bones are usually soft, but they lack the redness of those in better grade carcasses. The break joints of the forelegs have knuckle ends removed and show four well-defined relatively soft ridges. Because of lack of finish the flesh is soft, spongy, and inclined to be watery. It appears coarse and fibrous. Its color may be dark pink or it may have a brownish tinge.

(f) Cull or No. 5. Cull or No. 5 grade lamb carcasses are not offered regularly for retail trade and are found in the markets only occasionally. Such carcasses are almost entirely devoid of visible fat and are of the most inferior conformation and quality. Proportion of bone to meat is very high. The flesh is dark, soft, coarse-grained, and owing to lack of nourishment or other causes, appears fibrous to a marked degree.

§ 53.116 Specifications for official United States standards for grades of yearling mutton carcasses. Yearling mutton carcasses are from animals of the ovine species that have passed the lamb age and lost to an appreciable extent the flesh characteristics which are peculiar to lamb, but have not reached, at time of slaughter, that state of maturity when they could be properly classed as mutton. The age limits for this group are from 12 to 24 months. The grades of yearling mutton carcasses are Prime or No. 1, Choice or No. 2, Good or No. 3, Utility or No. 4, and Cull or No. 5.

(a) Prime or No. 1. Prime or No. 1 grade yearling mutton carcasses closely approach the ideal in conformation, finish, and quality.

In many respects carcasses of this grade resemble Prime grade lamb carcasses, differing principally in having somewhat longer bodies in proportion to width and depth, harder and whiter bones, slightly coarser flesh, and greater quantities of exterior and interior fats. They are compact and blocky, have relatively short, plump, well-fleshed legs, broad backs, thick, well-fleshed loins, ribs, and chucks, thick breasts, and flanks. All fats are firm, white or slightly creamy, of excellent quality, and are slightly brittle.

The outer covering of fat is smooth, evenly distributed, of moderate depth, and free from bunniness. The fat covering is interspersed with strips of medium pink lean flesh over the sides and a more even distribution over the flanks and breasts. Interior fats are plentiful, but not wasty. The kidneys are well covered to a fairly uniform depth, and the interior walls of the ribs have a thin covering. The lean flesh is firm in all parts, relatively fine-grained, and medium pink in color. The bones are moderately small and are whiter than in Prime grade lamb carcasses.

(b) Choice or No. 2. Choice or No. 2 grade yearling mutton carcasses have excellent conformation, finish, and quality. They have relatively short and plump legs, thick loins and ribs, full-fleshed shoulders, thick breasts, and a length of body commensurate with depth and breadth of carcass. Choice grade carcasses have good breadth in proportion to length, but are relatively heavier in the fore quarters than lamb carcasses of the same grade. They resemble Choice grade lamb carcasses in many respects, but have proportionately longer bodies, legs, and necks, larger abdominal cavities, and more distended ribs. Compared with lamb, the bones are harder and whiter. Where the foot is removed from the foreleg the end of the bone shows a rough, dry, and comparatively hard surface.

The outer covering of fat is smooth and well distributed over loins, ribs, and shoulders. The fat covering is interspersed with thin strips of dark-pink flesh under the fell extending over the sides and has a more even distribution over the lower limits of the breasts and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch, and the kidneys are well and evenly covered. All fats are of good quality, white or creamy, and inclined to be brittle. The flesh is moderately fine-grained, firm, and medium to dark pink in color.

(c) Good or No. 3. Good or No. 3 grade yearling mutton carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality. Such carcasses, although reasonably plump, may be slightly deficient in breadth across the hips, back and shoulders. Yearling mutton carcasses of this grade resemble Good grade lamb carcasses in many respects, but have proportionately longer bodies and legs, larger abdominal cavities, more distended ribs, and harder bones. The break joints of the forelegs are rough and dry and show little redness.

The outer covering of fat may be fairly even over the back, loin, and rumps, or it may be slightly rough. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch, and the kidneys are usually well covered. The flesh is firm, moderately fine-grained, and has a deep pink to light red color.

(d) Commercial or No. 4. Commercial or No. 4 grade yearling mutton carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality. To some extent they lack the fullness or plumpness in legs, loins, and ribs found in Good grade carcasses. Shoulders are usually thinly fleshed and inclined to be rough, necks are long, and legs long and tapering. There is usually a thin covering of fat over the shoulders, a moderate quantity on the loins, ribs, and breasts, and practically none elsewhere on the exterior surface. Except for small quantities around the kidneys and in the crotch, interior fats are scant. Although the flesh is moderately fine-grained, it usually has a relatively high percentage of moisture and varies in color from deep pink to light red.

(e) Utility or No. 5. Utility or No. 5 grade yearling mutton carcasses are the lowest grade which are offered regularly for sale by the retail trade. The principal features which distinguish this grade are the marked lack of quality and finish and the high percentage of bone to flesh. Such carcasses have poor conformation. The contour of the backbone is plainly visible from neck to tail. Except for small and uneven patches on the shoulders and back, there are usually not other exterior fats. Interior fats are generally lacking, but there may be slight traces in the region of the kidneys and in the crotch. The flesh is very moist, soft, flabby, and is dark red in color.

(f) Cull or No. 6. Cull or No. 6 grade yearling mutton carcasses are seldom found in retail markets. The grade is all that the term "cull" implies. All bones are prominent to a marked degree, and both exterior and interior fats are almost totally lacking. The flesh is dark, coarse, soft, and watery.

§ 53.117 Specifications for official United States standards for grades of mutton carcasses. Mutton carcasses are graded on the basis of conformation, finish, and quality. The grades are Prime or No. 1, Choice or No. 2, Good or No. 3, Utility or No. 4, and Cull or No. 5.

(a) Prime or No. 1. Prime or No. 1 grade mutton carcasses are ideal in conformation, finish, and quality. They resemble Prime grade yearling mutton carcasses in many respects, but have harder, whiter bones, darker flesh, and more brittle fats. They are relatively short, compact, and blocky, with a high percentage of meat to bone, and carry a high percentage of the total carcass weight in the legs, loins, and racks. Legs are relatively short, thick, and plump, loins and ribs are deeply fleshed, shoulders are full and compact, breasts are thick, necks relatively short and plump, and flanks full. Bones are somewhat white and hard, but most carcasses of this grade are from relatively young sheep. The feet are severed from the legs at the ankle joint, leaving two smooth hard white ridges.

The outer covering of fat is fairly deep, smooth, and evenly distributed, but not excessive at any point. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch, over the kidneys, and on the inside of the chest cavity, but not excessive or wasty. All fats are of excellent quality, are creamy white tending to a yellowish tinge, and are brittle.

The strips of lean under the fell on the sides and breasts are prominent, and light red in color. The flesh is firm, fine-grained, and of light red color.

(b) Choice or No. 2. Choice or No. 2 grade mutton carcasses resemble Choice grade yearling mutton carcasses rather closely in some respects, but have harder bones, darker flesh, and more brittle fat. Choice grade carcasses have excellent conformation, finish, and quality. They have relatively short, stocky legs, thick loins and ribs, full fleshy shoulders, and thick breasts. Carcasses of this grade have good breadth in proportion to length and are not rangy or angular. Bones are relatively hard and white. The feet are severed from the legs at the ankle joints. The joints of the forelegs show two smooth, hard, white ridges.

The outer covering of fat is smooth and evenly distributed, has greatest depth over the rumps, loins, and back, but is not excessive at any point. Interior fats are plentiful in the crotch, around the kidneys, and on the interior walls, but are not waxy. All fats are of excellent quality, creamy colored, inclining to a yellowish tinge, and brittle to a marked degree.

The strips of lean under the fell on the sides and breasts are prominent and are light red in color. The flesh is firm, is moderately fine-grained, and has a light-red color. Bunchy or excessive quantities of exterior or interior fat bar a carcass from this grade.

(c) Good or No. 2. Good or No. 2 grade mutton carcasses have good conformation, finish, and quality. Good grade carcasses, although well-proportioned and moderately plump, may be slightly deficient in breadth or depth across the hips, back, and shoulders as compared with Choice carcasses. Legs are relatively short and thickly fleshed. Good grade carcasses generally have wider barrels and more distended ribs than Choice carcasses. The grade admits a higher percentage of ewes, and the bones may be slightly harder and more flinty.

The outer covering of fat, although fairly even, varies to some extent and may be slightly excessive on the rumps or deficient on the shoulders, breasts, and flanks. Interior fats are plentiful, but may be slightly deficient or excessive as compared with Choice grade carcasses, although not to a marked degree. The strips of lean under the fell on the sides are less prominent than on Choice grade carcasses, but these are well defined. The flesh is firm, slightly coarse-grained, and light to medium red in color.

(d) Commercial or No. 3. Commercial or No. 3 grade mutton carcasses have fair conformation, finish, and quality.

Carcasses of this grade lack the fullness or plumpness in legs, loins, and ribs found in carcasses of the better grades. Shoulders are only moderately well fleshed. Carcasses of this grade are relatively narrow through the hips and across the back, and the bones of the spinal column are prominent. Because of these deficiencies such carcasses appear somewhat long and angular. The abdominal cavity is relatively wide, and the curvature of the ribs is very marked, especially in ewe mutton carcasses.

The thin strips of lean flesh under the fell, which are so prominent on well-finished carcasses, are only slightly in evidence on commercial grade carcasses. There is usually a thin covering of fat over the back, loins, and rumps, but practically none on the legs. The flanks are inclined to be thin. There are moderate quantities of interior fats around the kidneys but not sufficient to cover them, and there are only traces elsewhere. The flesh is moderately firm, but somewhat coarse-grained and medium to dark red in color.

(e) Utility or No. 4. Utility or No. 4 grade mutton carcasses are the lowest grade offered regularly for retail trade purposes. They are angular in conformation, thinly fleshed, and lacking in finish. Such carcasses are narrow across the hips, loins, back, and shoulders. The contour of the backbone is plainly visible from end to end, and other bones are prominent. The grade consists principally of carcasses from old, thin-fleshed ewes. The bones are therefore usually hard, white, and flinty. Small and uneven patches of exterior fat are occasionally found on loins, back, or shoulders. There are usually traces of fat around the kidneys, but practically no other interior fats. That which is found is of poor quality. The flesh is coarse-grained, inclined to be soft and flabby, and dark red in color.

(f) Cull or No. 5. Cull or No. 5 grade mutton carcasses are all that the term "cull" implies. They are mostly from old, worn-out ewes, and are not found on all dressed meat markets. All bones are prominent and the proportion of bone to flesh is exceedingly high. Carcasses are entirely devoid of visible fat, and the flesh is very unattractive. It is soft, flabby, watery, and very dark in color.

Effective dates. The foregoing standards consist of the standards for carcass beef adopted effective June 3, 1926 as amended in July 1939 and November 1941, the standards for veal and calf carcasses adopted effective July 16, 1928, as amended in October 1940; and the standards for lamb and mutton carcasses adopted effective February 16, 1931, as amended in October 1940. All of said standards, as amended, are presently in effect, except that "prime grade" was suspended as one of the grades of beef and veal and calf carcasses by an order of the Secretary of Agriculture of October 1, 1942 and is hereby reinstated in force effective on and after publication hereof.

NOTE: Inasmuch as "prime grade" which was one of the official grades heretofore established by the Department of Agriculture for beef and veal and calf carcasses was suspended to conform with a price regulation of the Office of Price Administration, and livestock and meats therefrom have now been exempted from price control, notice and public procedure under the Administrative Procedure Act on the reinstatement of "prime grade" as one of the official grades for beef and veal and calf carcasses is deemed unnecessary. For the same reasons and in view of the fact that the meat-packing industry wishes to have "prime grade" available as an official designation for the grading of meat as soon as possible, good cause is found for the reinstatement of "prime grade" as one of the official grades for beef and veal and calf carcasses effective less than thirty days after publication hereof.

AUTHORITY: §§ 913.0 to 913.12, inclusive, issued under 48 Stat. 31, 670, 676; 49 Stat. 750; 50 Stat. 246; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.

§ 913.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933) as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq., 10 F. R. 11791; 11 F. R. 7737), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Kansas City marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof it is hereby found that:

(1) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

(3) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supply of feed, and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the said order, as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest.

The foregoing findings are supplementary to and in addition to the findings made in connection with the issuance of each of the previously issued amendments hereto; and all of said previous findings are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein.

(b) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order, as amended,) of at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, which is marketed within the Greater Kansas City marketing area, refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Kansas City marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order, as amended, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the Greater Kansas City marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the determined representative period, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the Greater Kansas City marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered that from and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Greater Kansas City marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order, as amended.

§ 913.1 Definitions. The following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (50 Stat. 246 (1937) 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) as amended.

As used herein, "Dairy farm permit or rating," means one issued by the health authority charged with the inspection of milk for fluid consumption in the part of the marketing area where such milk is sold or disposed of, or was sold or disposed of before being diverted to an unapproved plant.

(2) Report to the Secretary complaints of violation of the provisions hereof.

(5) Promptly verify the information contained in the reports submitted by handlers.

§ 913.3 Reports of handlers—(a) Periodic reports. On or before the 7th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler who purchased or received milk from sources other than his own production or other handlers shall with respect to milk or dairy products which were purchased, received, or produced by such handler during such delivery period report to the market administrator in the detail and form prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) The receipts at each plant of milk from each producer, the butterfat content, and the number of days on which milk was received from each producer;

(2) The receipts from such handler's own farm production and the butterfat content;

(3) The receipts of milk, cream, and milk products from handlers who purchase or receive milk from producers and the butterfat content;

(4) The receipts of other source milk;

(5) The respective quantities of milk and milk products and the butterfat content which were sold, distributed, or used, including sales to other handlers for the purpose of classification pursuant to § 913.4;

(6) The sales of milk and Class II products outside the marketing area, listing the market or area in which such milk and such Class II products were sold or disposed of, the date of such sale or disposition, and the plant from which such milk and milk products were supplied;

(7) Such other information with respect to the use of milk as the market administrator may request.

(b) Reports of payments to producers. On or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period, upon the request of the market administrator, each handler who purchased or received milk from producers shall submit to the market administrator his producer pay roll for such delivery period which shall show for each producer: (1) The daily and total pounds of milk delivered and the average butterfat content thereof and (2) the net amount of such handler's payments to such producer with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

(c) Reports of producer-handlers and handlers whose sole source of supply is from other handlers. Producer-handlers and handlers whose sole source of supply is from other handlers shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require.

(d) Verification of reports and payments. The market administrator shall verify all reports and payments of each handler by audit of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose disposition of milk the classification depends. Each handler shall keep adequate records of receipts and utilization of milk and milk products and shall, during the usual hours of business, make available to the market administrator or his representatives such records and facilities as will enable the market administrator to:

(1) Verify the receipts and disposition of all milk and milk products, and in case of errors or omissions, ascertain the correct figures;

(2) Weigh, sample, and test for butterfat content the milk purchased or received from producers and any product of milk upon which classification depends; and

(3) Verify the payments to producers prescribed in § 913.8.

§ 913.4 Classification of milk—(a) Milk to be classified. All milk and milk products purchased or received by each handler at his approved plant shall be classified by the market administrator in the classes set forth in (b) of this section.

(b) Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, the classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk disposed of in the form of milk containing more than 1 percent of butterfat irrespective of whether under the legal standard for milk and unaccounted for butterfat in excess of 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat other than receipts from other handlers converted to a 3.8 percent milk equivalent, except such milk as is classified as Class II milk and as Class III milk pursuant to subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk, except skim milk, used to produce cream which is disposed of in the form of cream, other than for use in products specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, flavored milk, creamed cottage cheese, creamed buttermilk, products sold or disposed of in the form of cream testing less than 18 percent of butterfat, aerated cream, and eggnog.

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk: used to produce butter, cheese (other than creamed cottage cheese) evaporated milk, condensed milk, ice cream, and powdered whole milk; used for starter churning, wholesale baking and candy making purposes; accounted for as salvage from products where the recovery of fat is impossible; and not accounted for but not in excess of 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat other than receipts from other handlers.

(c) Transfers of milk, skim milk, and cream. (1) Milk or skim milk sold or disposed of in fluid form by a handler to a plant of a nonhandler who distributes fluid milk shall be Class I unless all of the following conditions are met: (i) Such nonhandler's plant is located less than 100 miles from the approved plant where such milk was received from producers; (ii) the market administrator is permitted to audit the records of such nonhandler; (iii) the receipts of producer milk at approved plants are greater than the total sales of Class I and Class II milk from handlers' routes in the marketing area; and (iv) such nonhandler receives milk from dairy farmers who the market administrator determines constitute such nonhandler's regular source of supply.

If all the above conditions are met the market administrator shall classify such milk as follows: (a) Determine the use of all milk and all milk products received at the plant of such nonhandler, and (b) allocate the milk disposed of by the handler to such nonhandler to the highest use remaining after subtracting in series beginning with the highest use classification receipts of milk by such nonhandler direct from dairy farmers.

(2) Cream sold or disposed of in fluid form by a handler to a plant of a nonhandler who distributes fluid cream shall be Class II unless all of the following conditions are met: (i) Such nonhandler's plant is located less than 100 miles from the approved plant where such milk was received from producers; (ii) the market administrator is permitted to audit the records of such nonhandler; (iii) the receipts of producer milk at approved plants are greater than the total sales of Class I and Class II milk from handlers' routes in the marketing area; and (iv) such nonhandler receives milk from dairy farmers who the market administrator determines constitute such nonhandler's regular source of supply.

If all the above conditions are met the market administrator shall classify such milk as follows: (a) Determine the use of all milk and all milk products received at the plant of such nonhandler; and (b) allocate the cream disposed of by the handler to such nonhandler to the highest use remaining after subtracting in series beginning with the highest use classification receipts of milk by such nonhandler direct from dairy farmers.

(3) Milk, skim milk or cream sold or disposed of by a handler to a plant of a nonhandler who does not distribute fluid milk or cream shall be Class III milk.

(4) Milk or skim milk sold or disposed of in fluid form by a handler, who purchases or receives milk from producers to another handler who purchases or receives milk from producers, shall be Class I milk: Provided, That if the amount of such milk so sold or disposed of is in excess of the amount classified as Class I at such purchasing handler's plant, such excess milk shall be classified in series beginning with the next highest class in which such purchasing handler has use: Provided, That if either or both handlers have purchased other source milk, such milk so sold or disposed of, shall be classified at both plants so as to return the highest class utilization to producer milk: Provided further, That if such milk was sold or disposed of from a handler's plant located outside the marketing area, to another handler who purchases or receives milk from producers, such milk shall be allocated to the lowest class usage of producer milk by such purchasing handler. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply with respect to the milk of producers which is caused to be diverted by a handler directly from the farms of producers to a plant of a second handler for not more than 5 days during the delivery period.

(5) Cream sold or disposed of as fluid cream by a handler who purchases or receives milk from producers to another handler who purchases or receives milk from producers shall be Class II: Provided, That if the amount of such cream so sold or disposed of is in excess of the amount classified as Class II in such purchasing handler's plant such excess cream shall be classified in the next highest class in which such purchasing handler has use: Provided, That if either or both handlers have purchased other source milk such cream so sold or disposed of shall be classified at both plants so as to return the highest class utilization to producer milk: Provided further, That if such cream was sold or disposed of from a handler's plant located outside the marketing area to another handler who purchases or receives milk from producers, such cream shall be allocated to the lowest class usage of producer milk by such purchasing handler.

(6) Milk or skim milk sold or disposed of in fluid form by a handler who purchases or receives milk from producers to a producer-handler or to a handler who purchases or receives no milk from producers shall be Class I milk.

(7) Cream sold or disposed of as fluid cream by a handler who purchases or receives milk from producers to a producer-handler or to a handler who purchases or receives no milk from producers shall be Class II milk.

(d) Responsibility of handlers in establishing the classification of milk. In establishing the classification as required in paragraph (b) of this section of any milk received by a handler from producers, the burden rests upon the handler who receives the milk from producers to account for the milk and to prove to the market administrator that such milk should not be classified as Class I milk.

(e) The allocation of other source milk. Other source milk purchased or received at an approved plant of a handler who purchases or receives milk from producers shall be allocated to Class III except that other source milk may be allocated to Class II to the extent that Class II milk exceeds the amount of all producer milk classified as Class II milk, and other source milk may be allocated to Class I only to the extent that the total amount of Class I milk of the handler exceeds the total amount of producer milk received by such handler.

(f) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period each handler shall compute, in the manner and on forms prescribed by the market administrator the amount of milk in each class as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, as follows:

(1) Determine the total pounds of milk received as follows: add together the total pounds of milk received from (i) producers, (ii) own farm production, (iii) other handlers, and (iv) other sources.

(2) Determine the total pounds of butterfat received as follows: (i) Multiply by its average butterfat test the weight of the milk received from (a) producers, (b) own farm production, (c) other handlers, and (d) other sources, and (ii) add together the resulting amounts.

(3) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class I as follows: (i) Convert to pounds the quantity of Class I milk on the basis of 2.15 pounds per quart, (ii) multiply the result by the average butterfat test of such milk, and (iii) if the quantity of butterfat so computed when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk and Class III milk, computed pursuant to subparagraphs (4) (ii) and (5) (iv) of this paragraph, is less than the total pounds of butterfat received, computed in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the difference shall be divided by 3.8 percent and added to the quantity of milk determined pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(4) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class II as follows: (i) Multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test, (ii) add together the resulting amounts, and (iii) divide the result obtained in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph by 3.8 percent.

(5) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class III as follows: (i) Multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class III milk by its average butterfat test, (ii) add together the resulting amounts, (iii) subtract from the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the total pounds of butterfat in Class I milk, computed pursuant to subparagraph (3) (ii) of this paragraph, the total pounds of butterfat in Class II milk, computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) (ii) of this paragraph and the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph which resulting quantity shall be allowed as plant shrinkage for the purposes of this paragraph (but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 3 percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers by the handler) (iv) add together the results obtained in subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph and (v) divide the result obtained in subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph by 3.8 percent.

(6) Determine the classification of milk received from producers as follows: (i) Subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the pounds of producer milk which were received from other handlers and used in such claims; (ii) subtract from the remaining pounds of milk in each class the pounds of other source milk allocated to such class pursuant to paragraph (e) of this section.

(g) Reconciliation of utilization of milk by classes with receipts of milk from producers. In the event of a difference between the total quantity of milk utilized in the several classes as computed pursuant to paragraph (f) (6) of this section and the quantity of milk received from producers, except for excess milk or milk equivalent of butterfat pursuant to § 913.6 (c) such difference shall be reconciled as follows:

(1) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to paragraph (f) (6) of this section, is less than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall increase the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

(2) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to paragraph (f) (6) of this section, is greater than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall decrease the total pounds of milk for such handler by subtracting in series beginning with the lowest class use of such handler an amount equal to the difference between receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

§ 913.5 Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Subject to the differentials set forth in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, each handler shall pay producers, at the time and in the manner set forth in § 913.11, for milk purchased or received from them not less than the following prices:

(1) Class I milk. The price per hundredweight of Class I milk during each delivery period shall be the price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, plus 75 cents.

(2) Class II milk. The price per hundredweight of Class II milk during each delivery period shall be the price determined pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section plus 50 cents.

(3) Class III milk. The price per hundredweight of Class III milk during each delivery period shall be the highest price ascertained by the market administrator to have been quoted for ungraded milk of 3.8 percent butterfat content received during such delivery period by any one of the three following plants: The Meyer Sanitary Milk Company at its plant at Valley Falls, Kansas; the Franklin Ice Cream Company at its plant at Tonganoxie, Kansas; and the Milk Producers' Marketing Company at its plant at Kansas City, Kansas.

(b) Basic formula price to be used in determining Class I and Class II prices. The basic formula price to be used in determining the Class I and Class II prices, set forth in this section, per hundredweight of milk as computed and announced by the market administrator on or before the 5th day of the delivery period shall be the arithmetical average of the prices per hundredweight reported to the United States Department of Agriculture as being paid all farmers for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content delivered f. o. b. plant during the immediately preceding delivery period at the following plants and places:

Borden Company, Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Company, Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Company, Hudson, Mich.
Pet Milk Company, Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Company, Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Company, Greenville, Wis.
Borden Company, Black Creek, Wis.
Borden Company, Orfordville, Wis.
Carnation Company, Chilton, Wis.
Carnation Company, Berlin, Wis.
Carnation Company, Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Company, Oconomowoc, Wis.
Carnation Company, Jefferson, Wis.
Pet Milk Company, New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Company, Belleville, Wis.
Borden Company, New London, Wis.
White House Milk Company, Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Company, West Bend, Wis.

divided by 3.5 and multiplied by 3.8, but in no event shall such basic formula price to be used be less than the following: multiply by 3.8 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the immediately preceding delivery period, and add 20 percent: Provided, That such price shall be subject to the following adjustments: (1) Add 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption is above 5½ cents per pound or (2) subtract 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of such dry skim milk is below 5½ cents per pound. For purposes of determining this adjustment the price per pound of dry skim milk to be used shall be the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, as published by the United States Department of Agriculture for the Chicago area during the immediately preceding delivery period, including in such average the quotations published for any fractional part of the previous delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such dry skim milk for the previous delivery period. In the event the United States Department of Agriculture does not publish carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, shall be used. In the latter event such price shall be subject to the following adjustments: (1) Add 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, is above 7½ cents per pound or (2) subtract 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that such price of dry skim milk is below 7½ cents per pound.

(c) Butterfat differential. If the average butterfat content of milk purchased or received from producers by any handler during any delivery period is more or less than 3.8 percent, there shall be added or subtracted per hundredweight of such milk for each one-tenth of 1 percent above or below 3.8 percent an amount equal to the Class III price for such delivery period, divided by 38.

(d) Location differential. (1) If any handler has received milk from any producer at an approved plant located outside the marketing area but more than 30 miles by the shortest highway route from such handler's approved plant located within the marketing area, there shall be subtracted with respect to a quantity of milk (but not in excess of the total quantity of milk received from producers by such handler at such plant located outside the marketing area) computed by the market administrator as follows: (i) Determine the difference between 105 percent of such handler's total Class I and Class II milk received from producers, and the total quantity of milk received from producers by such handler at his plant located within the marketing area during the delivery period of the next preceding year when such difference was greatest; (ii) divide such difference by the number of days in such delivery period; and (iii) multiply by the number of days in the delivery period an amount up to but not exceeding the amount specified for the distance of such plant from such handler's plant located within the marketing area, as follows: not more than 45 miles, 17 cents per hundredweight; for each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof up to 75 miles, an additional 1½ cents per hundredweight; and for each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof beyond 75 miles, an additional ½ cent per hundredweight.

(2) If any handler has received milk from producers at more than one such plant located outside the marketing area, at one of which plants no facilities for processing or separating milk are maintained and has received no milk from producers at his plant located within the marketing area, there shall be subtracted with respect to a quantity of milk, if received, equal to 105 percent of such handler's total Class I and Class II milk received from producers an amount up to but not exceeding the amount specified for the distance of such plant from such handler's plant located within the marketing area, as follows: Not more than 45 miles, 17 cents per hundredweight; for each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof up to 75 miles an additional 1½ cents per hundredweight; and for each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof beyond 75 miles, an additional ½ cent per hundredweight; such deductions shall first be made on the milk received from producers at such plant located outside the marketing area where no facilities for processing or separating milk are maintained.

§ 913.6 Application of provisions. (a) The provisions of §§ 913.4, 913.7, 913.8, 913.9, and 913.10 shall not apply to a producer-handler or to a handler whose sole source of supply is from other handlers.

(b) If a handler has purchased or received other source milk the market administrator, in determining the net pool obligation of the handler pursuant to § 913.7 (a) shall consider such milk as Class III milk. If the receiving handler sells or disposes of such milk for other than Class III purposes, the market administrator shall add an amount equal to the difference between (1) the value of such milk according to its utilization by the handler, and (2) the value at the Class III price. This provision shall not apply if such handler can prove to the market administrator that such milk was used only to the extent that producer milk was not available.

(c) If a handler, after subtracting receipts from other handlers and receipts of other source milk, has disposed of milk or butterfat in excess of the milk or butterfat which, on the basis of his reports, has been credited to his producers as having been delivered by them, the market administrator, in determining the net pool obligation of the handler pursuant to § 913.7 (a) shall add an amount equal to the value of milk or butterfat according to its utilization by the handler.

(d) Milk which is caused to be diverted by a handler directly from producers' farms to an approved plant of another handler for not more than 5 days during any delivery period shall be considered an interhandler transfer of milk, and shall be reported by the handler who caused such milk to be diverted, as though the milk had first been received at such handler's plant.

(e) If the shortest highway distance between an approved plant located outside the marketing area where milk is purchased or received from producers and the approved plant located within the marketing area to which such milk is transferred is lessened through a relocation of highways to less than 30 miles, the location differential which applied before the highway distance was lessened shall continue to apply.

§ 913.7 Determination of uniform price to producer—(a) Net pool obligation of handlers. Subject to the provisions of § 913.6, the net pool obligation of each handler for milk received during each delivery period shall be a sum of money computed for such delivery period by the market administrator as follows:

(1) Multiply the pounds of milk in each class computed pursuant to § 913.4 by the class prices set forth in § 913.5 and add together the resulting values;

(2) Add, if the average butterfat content of all milk purchased or received from producers is more than 3.8 percent, and deduct if the average butterfat content of all milk purchased or received from producers is less than 3.8 percent, an amount equal to the total value of the butterfat differential applicable pursuant to § 913.5 (c),

(3) Subtract an amount equal to the total value of the location differential applicable pursuant to § 913.5 (d),

(4) Add an amount equal to the total values pursuant to § 913.6 (b) and (c), and

(5) Deduct, if the average butterfat content of all milk purchased or received from producers is more than 3.8 percent, and add, if the average butterfat content of all milk purchased or received from producers is less than 3.8 percent, the total value of the butterfat differential applicable pursuant to § 913.8 (c)

(b) Computation and announcement of the uniform price. The market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price per hundredweight for milk purchased or received from producers during each delivery period in the following manner:

(1) Combine into one total the net pool obligations computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section of all handlers who made the reports prescribed by § 913.3 and who made the payments prescribed by § 913.8 for the previous delivery period;

(2) Add the amount of the location differentials applicable pursuant to § 913.8 (d),

(3) For each of the delivery periods of May, June, and July, subtract an amount equal to 20 cents per hundredweight of the total amount of milk received by handlers from producers and included in these computations, to be retained in the producer-settlement fund for the purpose specified in § 913.8 (h) (2),

(4) Add an amount equal to one-half of the unobligated balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(5) Divide by a figure equal to the total hundredweight of milk received by handlers from producers and included in these computations;

(6) Subtract from the figures computed pursuant to subparagraph (5) of this paragraph not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments or delinquencies in payments by handlers. This result shall be known as the uniform price for such delivery period for the milk of producers containing 3.8 percent butterfat; and

(7) On or before the 10th day after the end of such delivery period, mail to all handlers (I) such of these computations as do not disclose information confidential pursuant to the act; (II) the uniform price per hundredweight computed pursuant to subparagraph (6) of this paragraph; (III) the prices for Class I milk, Class II milk, and Class III milk; and the butterfat differentials computed pursuant to §§ 913.5 (c) and 913.8 (c).

§ 913.8 Payments for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler, after deducting the amount of the payment made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, and subject to the differentials set forth in paragraphs (c) and (d), respectively, of this section, shall make payment to producers at the uniform price per hundredweight computed pursuant to § 913.7 (b) for the total quantity of milk received from producers.

(b) Half-delivery period payments. On or before the 25th day of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment to each producer for the approximate value of the milk of such producer which, during the first 15 days of each delivery period, was received by such handler.

(c) Butterfat differential. If during the delivery period, any handler has purchased or received from any producer milk having an average butterfat content other than 3.8 percent, such handler, in making the payments prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, shall add to the prices per hundredweight for such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk above 3.8 percent not less than, or shall subtract from such prices for such producer for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content in milk below 3.8 percent not more than, an amount computed as follows: add 4 cents to the average price of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, and divide the resulting sum by 10.

(d) Location differentials. For milk received from producers at approved plants located outside the marketing area but more than 30 miles by the shortest highway distance from the approved plant located within the marketing area to which such milk is transferred, each handler in making payments pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall deduct, with respect to all milk received from such producers, the amount per hundredweight specified for the distance of such plant located outside the marketing area from such plant located within the marketing area, as follows: not more than 45 miles, 17 cents per hundredweight; for each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof up to 75 miles, an additional 1½ cents per hundredweight; and for each additional 10 miles or fraction thereof beyond 75 miles, an additional ½ cent per hundredweight.

(e) Additional payments. Any handler may make payment to producers in addition to the payments to be made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That such additional payments shall be uniform among all producers for milk of the same grade and quality.

(f) Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to paragraphs (g) and (i) of this section and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to paragraphs (h) and (j) of this section: Provided, That the market administrator shall offset any such payment due to any handler against payments due from such handler. Immediately after computing the uniform price for each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute the amount by which each handler's net pool obligation is greater or less than the sum required to be paid producers pursuant to this section by such handler, and shall enter such amount on such handler's account as such handler's pool debit or credit, as the case may be, and render such handler a transcript of his account.

(g) Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make full payment to the market administrator of any pool debit balance shown on the account rendered pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section for such delivery period.

(h) Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. (1) On or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler the pool credit balance shown on the account rendered pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section for such delivery period, less any unpaid obligations of the handler. If at such time the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available. No handler, who, on the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, has not received the balance of the payment due him from the market administrator shall be deemed to be in violation of paragraph (a) of this section if he reduces his total payments uniformly to all producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment from the producer-settlement fund. Nothing in this paragraph shall abrogate the right of a cooperative association to make payment to its member producers in accordance with the payment plan of such cooperative association.

(2) On or before the 15th day after the end of each of the delivery periods of October, November, and December, the market administrator shall pay out of the producer-settlement fund to each producer an amount computed as follows: Divide one-third of the total amount held pursuant to § 913.7 (b) (3) by the hundredweight of producer milk received during the delivery period involved (October, November, or December, as above) and apply the resulting amount per hundredweight to the milk of each producer for such delivery period: Provided, That payment under this subparagraph due any producer who has given authority to a cooperative association which is qualified pursuant to § 913.9 (b) to receive payments for his milk shall be distributed to such cooperative association if the cooperative association requests receipt of such payment.

(i) Adjustment of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors made in payments to the producer-settlement fund pursuant to paragraph (g) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 5 days of such billings, make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler pursuant to paragraph (h) of this section, the market administrator shall, within 5 days, make such payment to such handler or offset any such payment due any handler against payments due from such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer, for milk purchased or received by such handler, discloses payment to such producer of less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment to the producer not later than the time of making payments to producers next following such disclosure.

(j) Statements to producers. In making payments to producers as prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer with a supporting statement, in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show:

(1) The delivery period and the identity of the handler and of the producer.

(2) The pounds per shipment, the total pounds, and the average butterfat test of milk delivered by the producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to the producer is required under the provisions of paragraphs (a), (c) and (d) of this section;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment, if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight of each deduction claimed by the handler, including any deduction claimed under paragraph (b) of this section and § 913.9 together with a description of the respective deductions; and

(6) The net amount of payment to the producer.

§ 913.9 Marketing service—(a) Deduction for marketing services. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler shall deduct 3 cents per hundredweight from the payments made to each producer other than himself pursuant to § 913.8 (a) with respect to all milk of each producer purchased or received by such handler during the delivery period, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for market information to, and for the verification of weights, sampling, and testing of milk received from, said producers.

(b) Producers' cooperative associations. In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association, which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make the deductions from the payments to be made pursuant to § 913.8 (a) which are authorized by such producers, and, on or before the 12th day after the end of each delivery period, pay over such deductions to the associations of which such producers are members.

§ 913.10 Expense of administration—(a) Payments by handlers. As his prorate share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler who purchased or received milk from producers, with respect to all milk received from producers during the delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 12th day after the end of such delivery period, an amount not exceeding 2 cents per hundredweight, which amount shall be determined by the market administrator, subject to review by the Secretary.

(b) Suits by the market administrator. The market administrator may maintain a suit in his own name against any handler for the collection of such handler's prorate share of expenses set forth in this section.

§ 913.11 Effective time, suspension, or termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, whenever he finds that this order, as amended, or any provision hereof, obstructs, or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This order, as amended, shall terminate, in any event, whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty of the market administrator. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handler, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall, if the Secretary so directs, be performed by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(1) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (i) continue in such capacity until removed by the Secretary, (ii) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements and, when so directed by the Secretary, deliver all funds or property on hand together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary may direct, and (iii) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant thereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall liquidate, if so directed by the Secretary, the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid or owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

§ 913.12 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 22d day of November 1946, to be effective on and after the 1st day of December 1946.

PART 965—MILK IN THE CINCINNATI, OHIO,
MARKETING AREA

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

§ 965.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933) as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act") and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq., 10 F. R. 11791, 11 F. R. 7737) a public hearing was held October 18, 1946, upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area. It is hereby found upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, in addition to the other findings made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of said order and of each amendment thereto (which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed, save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth), that:

(1) The order regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, as amended and as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices set forth in the said order, as amended and as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order, as amended and as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

(4) Any delay in the effective date of this order, as amended and as hereby amended, beyond that specified herein below will seriously threaten the supply of milk for the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area and therefore publication of this order not less than 30 days prior to its effective date (see section 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act, Pub. Law 404, 79th Cong., 60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest.

(b) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping the milk covered by this order, as amended) of more than 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, which is marketed within the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area; and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of the said order, as amended and as hereby amended, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order, further amending the aforesaid order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during the representative period, determined to be August 1946, were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

-Order Relative to Handling

It is hereby ordered, That such handling of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area as is in the current of interstate commerce or as directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products, shall from the effective date hereof be in compliance with the terms and conditions of the said order, as amended and as hereby amended; and the said order, as amended, is hereby amended as follows:

1. Delete § 965.6 (a) (1) and substitute therefor the following:

(1) The price for Class I milk shall be the price for Class III milk plus $1.15: Provided, That from the effective date hereof to and including the delivery period of March 1947 the price for Class I milk shall not be less than $5.00.

2. Delete § 965.6 (a) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(2) The price for Class II milk shall be the price for Class III milk plus $0.70: Provided, That from the effective date hereof to and including the delivery period of March 1947 the price for Class II milk shall not be less than $4.55.

3. Delete § 965.6 (a) (3) and substitute therefor the following:

(3) The price for Class III milk shall be that resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: determine the arithmetical average of the basic, or field, prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid (without deductions for hauling or other charges to be paid by the farm shipper) for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received during the delivery period at the following plants:

M. & R. Dietetic Laboratories, Inc., Chillicothe, Ohio.

Carnation Milk Company, Hillsboro, Ohio.
Nestle's Milk Products, Inc., Greenville, Ohio.

Nestle's Milk Products, Inc. (Osceola Milk Co.), Osceola, Ind.

Carnation Milk Company, Maysville, Ky.

Provided, That if the price so determined is less than the price computed by the market administrator in accordance with the following formula, such formula price shall be the price for Class III milk for the delivery period: multiply by 4 the average of daily prices per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture (or such other agency as may hereafter be authorized to perform this price reporting function) during the delivery period, add 20 percent thereof, and add 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the arithmetical average of the carlot prices for nonfat dry milk solids (not including that specifically designated animal feed) by spray and roller process f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published by such agency during the delivery period, is above 5½ cents per pound, except that if such agency does not publish such prices f. o. b. manufacturing plants, there shall be used for the purposes of this computation the arithmetical average of the carlot prices thereof, delivered at Chicago, Illinois, as published weekly by such agency during the delivery period; and in the latter event the figure "7½" shall be substituted for "5½" in the above formula.

4. Delete § 965.10 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 965.10 Expense of administration—
(a) Payments by handlers. As his prorate share of expense incurred in the maintenance and functioning of the office of the market administrator and in the performance of the duties of the market administrator, each handler shall pay the market administrator, on or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, 2 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, with respect to all milk received from producers and produced by him during the delivery period: Provided, That any cooperative association which has handled milk during the delivery period under the conditions set forth in § 965.2 (f) shall pay such prorata share of expense of administration on only that quantity of milk so handled.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 13, Direction 22, as Amended Dec. 2, 1946]

SALE OF CERTAIN TYPES OF COPPER BASE ALLOY SCRAP BY THE UNITED STATES ARMY, NAVY, OR MARITIME COMMISSION

The following direction is issued pursuant to Priorities Regulation 13:

(a) What this direction does. There is a critical shortage in the supply of certain types of copper base alloy scrap, and this material is not now readily obtainable in sufficient quantities from regular sources of supply. The purpose of this direction is to limit the sale of this material by the United States Army, Navy, or Maritime Commission to persons who have immediate need for it in order to provide the greatest possible relief for the civilian deficiencies and to assure the widest distribution of this critical material. This direction applies only to the following types of copper base alloy scrap:

Cartridge Brass ingots, slabs, discs, bars, partly or completely manufactured ammunition cases (new or demilitarized), fired cases or remelt ingot.

Gilding metal mill forms or remelt ingot.

(b) Restrictions on sales by owning agencies. The United States Army, Navy, or Maritime Commission may not sell any copper base alloy scrap of the types described in paragraph (a) to any person unless the sale has been specifically authorized by the Civilian Production Administration on Form CPAI 3677. In general, the Civilian Production Administration will authorize sales of copper base alloy scrap of the types described in paragraph (a) only to brass mills, wire mills, smelters and refiners who require the material for their own use in order to maintain their smelting or reprocessing operations at a minimum economic rate. Authorizations will not be granted for any person to obtain more material than the quantity which he will require to meet his current or scheduled operations during the next 30 days, less the amount he has on hand or expects to receive from other sources during that period.

(c) Applications for copper base alloy scrap. Any smelter or reprocessor who wishes to obtain copper base alloy scrap of the types described in paragraph (a) from the United States Army, Navy, or Maritime Commission may apply on Form CPA 4513, to the Copper Branch, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: PR-13, Direction 22.

(d) Exceptions. The restrictions of paragraph (b) do not apply to the following types of sales:

(1) Sales of any lot or lots of copper base alloy scrap of the types described in paragraph (a) where the gross weight of all the lots available at any one location at any one time does not exceed 10,000 pounds. Lots may not be subdivided for the purpose of making sales under this exception.

(2) Sales of scrap located outside the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(3) Sales by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for and on behalf of the owning agencies of any lots of scrap which, under War Assets Administration Regulation 17 the owning agencies are required to report to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation as strategic materials. (Priorities Regulation 34 gives the rules applicable to sales by Reconstruction Finance Corporation).

(4) Sales of contractor inventory if the owning agency has not taken possession of such inventory.

Issued this 2d day of December 1946.

Revised Procedural Regulation 4 is redesignated Second Revised Procedural Regulation 4 and is revised and amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE I—SCOPE AND APPLICATION OF SECOND REVISED PROCEDURAL REGULATION 4

§ 1300.151 Scope of regulation. (a) This regulation governs suspension proceedings and determination proceedings of the Office of Price Administration. A suspension proceeding is a proceeding instituted to determine whether a rationing suspension order or a priorities suspension order should be issued. A determination proceeding is a proceeding instituted to ascertain whether there has been a violation of a rationing regulation or order. A rationing suspension proceeding and a determination proceeding may be joined and one hearing held for both proceedings.

(b) This regulation does not apply to suspension or revocation proceedings before War Price and Rationing Boards or Special Hearing Officers, but Article IV prescribes the procedure on appeal from orders issued in such proceedings.

ARTICLE II—INSTITUTION AND CONDUCT OF PROCEEDINGS

§ 1300.152 Institution of proceedings. A proceeding for the issuance of a suspension order or determination shall be instituted by the service of a notice of hearing upon the respondent not less than seven (7) days before such hearing.

§ 1300.153 Notice of hearing. (a) A notice of any hearing to be held pursuant to this regulation shall be issued by and in the name of the Regional Enforcement Executive. It shall set forth the time and place of hearing, a clear statement of the charges against the respondent with a reference to the particular section of the regulation, order or directive involved or alleged to have been violated, and a statement of the purpose or purposes for which the hearing is to be held. The notice shall also state that a suspension order or determination may be entered by default in case of failure to appear at the hearing.

(b) The notice of hearing shall, in regions having branch offices, set forth the name and address of the Attorney in Charge of the branch office or other person upon whom, pursuant to this regulation, service shall be made of notices, applications, briefs or other papers, and in regions not having branch offices, the name and address of the Regional Enforcement Executive or other person upon whom such service shall be made.

(c) A copy of Second Revised Procedural Regulation 4 shall be attached to the notice of hearing served upon any respondent.

§ 1300.154 Conduct of hearing. (a) Any hearing held pursuant to this regulation shall be conducted by a Hearing Commissioner or by a Presiding Officer designated by the Chief Hearing Commissioner to conduct the hearing. The Hearing Commissioner or Presiding Officer shall preside at the hearing, administer oaths and affirmations, and rule on the admission and exclusion of evidence.

(b) The hearing shall be so conducted as to permit the presentation of evidence and argument to the fullest extent compatible with fair and expeditious determination of the issues raised in the hearing. To this end:

(1) The respondent shall have the right to be represented by counsel of his own choosing.

(2) The Hearing Commissioner or Presiding Officer shall afford reasonable opportunity for cross-examination of witnesses.

(3) All hearings held pursuant to this regulation shall be public.

§ 1300.155 Rules of evidence. The rules of evidence governing civil proceedings in matters not involving trial by jury in the courts of the United States shall govern all hearings: Provided, however That such rules may be relaxed by the Hearing Commissioner or Presiding Officer where the ends of justice will be better served by so doing.

§ 1300.156 Appearances. Any individual respondent may appear for himself; any partner may appear for a partnership if expressly or impliedly authorized to do so; any officer of a corporation or association may appear for such corporation or association. Any respondent may appear by an attorney. No other person may appear for a respondent unless specifically authorized in writing by such respondent. All appearances shall be noted on the record of the proceeding. Appearances of Office of Price Administration employees and former employees in a representative capacity shall be governed by the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 14.¹

§ 1300.157 Continuance or adjournment of hearing. The hearing shall be held at the time and place specified by the notice of hearing but the Hearing Commissioner or Presiding Officer may continue or adjourn the hearing to a later date or to a different place. Notice of such adjournment or continuance shall be given either prior to or at the hearing.

§ 1300.158 Defaults. (a) If a respondent fails to appear at a hearing the charges set forth in the notice of hearing may be deemed to be admitted by default, and a hearing need not be held. The Regional Enforcement Executive shall, however, present evidence relevant to the determination of the effective period of any suspension order.

(b) At any time within ten (10) days after the service of an order or determination issued after a default, the respondent may file with the Hearing Commissioner a petition for the reopening of the proceeding, setting forth the grounds on which he believes his default should be excused. A copy of such petition shall be served as provided in § 1300.182 (b). Within three (3) days after such service, the Regional Enforcement Executive may file with the Hearing Commissioner affidavits and a brief in opposition, a copy of which shall be served on the respondent at or prior to the time of filing. The Hearing Commissioner shall grant or deny the petition by order. If the Hearing Commissioner grants the petition, his order shall set aside the order or determination to which the petition is directed and shall set forth the time and place for the hearing.

§ 1300.159 Subpoenas. (a) Any Hearing Commissioner may, upon proper application, issued subpoenas compelling the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence at a hearing conducted under this regulation.

(b) An applicant for a subpoena shall specify the name and address of the witness and the nature of the facts to be proved by him, and, if calling for the production of evidence, shall specify the same with such particularity as will enable it to be identified for purposes of production.

(c) A subpoena may be served by any person, including a party, who is 18 years of age or over. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to such person and by tendering to him the fee and mileage for one day's attendance. When the subpoena is issued on behalf of the Office of Price Administration, fees and mileage need not be tendered. The verified return of the person making the service shall be proof of service.

§ 1300.160 Payment of witness fees and mileage. Witnesses summoned before a Hearing Commissioner or Presiding Officer at any hearing held pursuant to this regulation shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the District Courts of the United States. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witness appears.

§ 1300.161 Contemptuous conduct. Contemptuous conduct at any hearing shall be ground for exclusion from the hearing.

§ 1300.162 Transcript of hearings. (a) A stenographic report of all hearings shall be taken. The report shall be transcribed only if the transcription is requested by a party to the proceeding or the Hearing Commissioner, or if the case is heard by a Presiding Officer. Any party may obtain a copy of the transcript. The cost of a transcription requested by a respondent shall be borne by such respondent. If the report is transcribed at the request of the Hearing Commissioner or the Regional Enforcement Executive, a copy shall be available for inspection by the respondent during business hours at the branch office or, in regions not having branch offices, at the regional office, or at such other place as may be designated by the Hearing Commissioner. Argument of counsel shall not be included in the report except at the direction of the Hearing Commissioner or Presiding Officer.

(b) The parties may, by stipulation, agree upon corrections of inaccuracies in the transcript. The Hearing Commissioner or Presiding Officer, whichever presided at the hearing, shall, by written findings, resolve any dispute of the parties as to the accuracy of the transcript.

§ 1300.163 Presiding Officer's advisory report: service. (a) A Presiding Officer who has conducted a hearing shall prepare an advisory report, which shall contain findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendations with respect to the disposition of the matter.

(b) The advisory report shall be filed with the Hearing Commissioner, and copies thereof shall be served on the respondent and the Regional Enforcement Executive.

§ 1300.164 Briefs on Presiding Officer's advisory report. (a) Any party may submit to the Hearing Commissioner a brief in opposition to or in support of the report of the Presiding Officer.

(b) Such briefs shall be filed within five (5) days after the service of the Presiding Officer's report. The brief shall be filed with the Hearing Commissioner and a copy thereof served upon the opposing party at or before the time of filing.

(c) Briefs may be filed after the time prescribed by paragraph (b) of this section only with the permission of the Hearing Commissioner.

§ 1300.165 Briefs after hearing before Hearing Commissioner. The Hearing Commissioner may, upon request of any party to a proceeding conducted by him, permit the filing of briefs or written argument. Such briefs or written argument shall be filed within such time as the Hearing Commissioner may prescribe.

ARTICLE III—ORDERS AND DETERMINATIONS OF HEARING COMMISSIONERS

§ 1300.166 Suspension order or determination of Hearing Commissioner. (a) If the Hearing Commissioner finds in a rationing suspension proceeding that a respondent has violated a rationing regulation or order, he may issue a rationing suspension order. If the Hearing Commissioner finds in a priorities suspension proceeding that a respondent has violated any regulation, order or directive implementing or in furtherance of the Veterans' Emergency Housing program, the enforcement of which has been delegated to the Office of Price Administration, he may issue a priorities suspension order. If the Hearing Commissioner finds in a determination proceeding that a respondent has violated a rationing regulation or order, he may issue a determination of violation.

(b) Any suspension order or determination hereunder, except a consent order issued under § 1300.168, shall set forth the findings of fact and conclusions of law upon which it is based and shall contain a statement of the reasons why a suspension order or determination should be issued, unless such findings of fact, conclusions of law and statement of reasons are set forth in an opinion accompanying the order or determination.

(c) If the Hearing Commissioner determines that no suspension order should be issued, he shall issue an order dismissing the proceeding or issue an admonitory order. If the Hearing Commissioner concludes in a determination proceeding that no violation has occurred, he shall issue an order dismissing the proceeding. The findings of fact, conclusions of law and a statement of the reasons why an order of dismissal or an admonitory order should be issued shall be set forth in the order or determination or in an opinion accompanying the same.

(d) A suspension order under this section may contain such provisions as may be deemed appropriate to make it effective.

§ 1300.167 Stay of operation of suspension order. (a) A Hearing Commissioner may, for good cause, provide in a suspension order that the operation thereof shall be stayed in whole or in part for so long as the respondent shall comply with rationing orders, or with regulations, orders or directives implementing or in furtherance of the Veterans' Emergency Housing program, the enforcement of which has been delegated to the Office of Price Administration, or with the conditions set forth in the suspension order.

(b) The Regional Enforcement Executive may at any time file an application with the Hearing Commissioner or, in the Hearing Commissioner's absence, with the Chief Hearing Commissioner to have such a stay vacated. Such application shall be served upon the respondent, shall set forth a detailed statement of charges of further violations by the respondent of a specific order, regulation or directive (of the type referred to in paragraph (a) of this section) and shall contain affidavits or other proofs of such violations. The application shall contain a statement fixing a time, which shall not be less than seven (7) days after service, within which the respondent may file with the Hearing Commissioner or Chief Hearing Commissioner, as the case may be, answering affidavits, proofs, and written arguments.

(c) The Hearing Commissioner or Chief Hearing Commissioner, as the case may be, may, either upon the written proofs submitted by the parties or upon further hearing ordered by him, enter an order vacating the stay in whole or in part. All proofs submitted and the record of any further hearing shall become part of the record of the original proceeding.

(d) Any Hearing Commissioner may, in an order issued in a suspension proceeding under this regulation, vacate a stay of the operation of a suspension order previously issued against the same respondent.

§ 1300.168 Consent order or determination. If the Hearing Commissioner approves an agreement entered into by the Regional Enforcement Executive and a respondent with respect to the terms of a suspension order or determination, he shall issue the order or determination agreed upon, and such order or determination shall have the same force and effect as an order or determination issued under § 1300.166 except that no appeal to the Office of the Hearing Administrator may be taken therefrom.

§ 1300.169 Application for modification, vacation or further hearing in suspension order proceedings. (a) The Regional Enforcement Executive or a respondent may file with the Hearing Commissioner an application for modification, vacation or further hearing of a suspension order issued by the Hearing Commissioner under § 1300.166, from which no appeal is pending. Any application so filed shall be accompanied by proof of service thereof upon the opposing party. Any such application by the respondent shall be served as provided in § 1300.182 (b)

(b) The application may include affidavits or a brief in support thereof, shall state in detail the grounds upon which the order should be modified, vacated or set for re-hearing in accordance with § 1300.170.

(c) The opposing party may, within three (3) days after receipt of service of the application, or such longer period as the Hearing Commissioner may allow, file with the Hearing Commissioner a brief and affidavits in opposition to the application.

(d) At any time after the filing of such an application, the Hearing Commissioner may, in his discretion, stay the suspension order to which the application relates, pending determination of the application.

§ 1300.170 Order upon application.

(a) A Hearing Commissioner may by order, at any time, save when an appeal is pending or an order has been entered on appeal by the Hearing Administrator, modify or vacate an order issued by him to correct errors of fact or law disclosed by the record. No oral hearing will be held on such application.

(b) At any time after the issuance of a Hearing Commissioner's order or an order on appeal therefrom, except when an appeal is pending, the Hearing Commissioner may set the proceeding for a further hearing upon a showing to his satisfaction:

The agency will make determinations of entitlement based upon the information received as a result of the clearance through the Readjustment Allowance Agent and enter that determination on the application forms.

INTRODUCTION

Order of the Commission. It is ordered, that:

(a) Accounts prescribed. All persons which furnish cars or protective service against heat or cold to or on behalf of any carrier by railroad or express company subject to the provisions of section 20, paragraph (6) of the Interstate Commerce Act, shall comply with the said "Uniform System of Accounts for Persons Furnishing Cars or Protective Services Against Heat or Cold, Issue of 1947," herein prescribed.

(b) Effective date. This order shall become effective January 1, 1947.

(c) Notice. A copy of this order and the accounting regulations herein prescribed shall be served upon all persons which furnish cars or protective service against heat or cold to or on behalf of any carrier by railroad or express company and notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register.

SPECIAL NOTE: In the regulations under Part 24 of this chapter the numbers assigned to sections thereof include as a whole number, following the decimal point, the number of the prescribed account. Where references throughout the regulations are to an account, as such, only the account number portion of the section number is used. For example: Account 101, "Car mileage," may be mentioned in the instructions or in the text of another account, and will be found as § 24.101 under operating revenues. All instructions relating to the accounts are included under §§ 24.01-1 to 24.01-17, 24.01-21 to 24.01-23, 24.01-31 to 24.01-51, 24.01-61, 24.01-71 and 24.01-81 to 24.01-83.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

§ 24.01-1 Persons for whom this system of accounts is prescribed. This system of accounts is designed to meet the requirements of persons subject to the provisions of section 20 (6) of Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, who furnish either protective service or cars and protective service against heat or cold to or on behalf of any carrier by railroad or express company subject to Part I, including "railroad owned or controlled" persons who furnish cars, but not protective service, to or on behalf of such a carrier by railroad or express company.

It is not designed to meet the requirements of persons, except those who are "railroad owned or controlled," who furnish cars, but not protective service, to or on behalf of any carrier by railroad or express company subject to Part I.

§ 24.01-2 Records. (a) The records of persons subject to this system of accounts shall be kept with sufficient particularity to show fully the facts pertaining to all entries made in the accounts provided herein. Where the full information is not recorded in the general books, the entries therein shall be supported by other records in which the full details shall be shown. Such general book entries shall contain sufficient reference to the detailed records to permit ready identification, and the detailed records shall be filed in such manner as to be readily accessible for examination by representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(b) The "Regulations to Govern the Destruction of Records of Steam Roads" prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, are applicable to persons subject to this system of accounts.

(c) All accounts kept shall conform in numbers and titles to those prescribed herein, except that:

(1) The titles of all subdivisions or subaccounts shall refer by number or title to the accounts of which they are subdivisions.

(2) When subaccounts are kept, it is not required that the accounts of which they are subdivisions shall also be kept.

(3) Any person subject to this system of accounts, or any receiver or operating trustee of such person during the 12 months from the time that this system of accounts becomes effective, in addition to the accounts prescribed herein, may keep and maintain such groupings of the primary accounts prescribed or such portions of its present accounts as may be desirable to maintain a basis of comparison with previous years.

(4) Clearing accounts in addition to those provided may be kept when necessary or useful in making the proper distribution of items to the appropriate primary accounts.

(d) The accounts for each month shall be recorded currently so that all transactions applicable to each month, as nearly as may be ascertained, shall be entered in the books. The books shall be closed as of the end of the calendar year.

§ 24.01-3 Unaudited items. When the amount of any known item cannot be determined accurately in time for inclusion in the accounts of the month in which the transaction occurs, the amount of such item shall be estimated and included in the appropriate accounts. When the item is audited, necessary adjustment shall be made through the accounts in which the estimate was recorded. The company is not required to anticipate items which would not appreciably affect the accounts.

§ 24.01-4 Delayed items. Delayed items and adjustments, except adjustments pertaining to account 879, "Accrued depreciation—Cars or protective service property," arising during the current year which are applicable to prior years, shall be included in the same accounts which would have been charged or credited if the item had been taken up or adjusted in the year to which it pertained. When the amount of the delayed item is relatively so large that its inclusion in the appropriate accounts for the current year would seriously distort those accounts, the company shall distribute so much of the amount as may be authorized to account 617, "Delayed income credits," or account 632, "Delayed income debits," as may be appropriate.

§ 24.01-5 Securities or other assets pledged. The company shall maintain a record of securities or other assets owned, which have been pledged by it as collateral security for any of its funded debt, short-term loans, or other obligations. The record shall be kept in such manner as to show the identity of the securities or other assets pledged as collateral security for each obligation.

§ 24.01-6 Interpretation of item lists. List of "items" appearing in the texts of the several accounts are given for the purpose of clearly indicating the application of the prescribed accounting rules in specific cases. The lists are not to be considered as comprising all the items includible in the several accounts, but merely as representative of them. On the other hand the appearance of an item in a list warrants the inclusion of such item in the account concerned only when the text of the account also indicates inclusion, inasmuch as the same item frequently appears in more than one list. The proper entry in each instance must be determined by the texts of the accounts.

§ 24.01-7 Submission of questions. To promote and maintain uniformity of accounting, all questions of doubtful interpretation of the prescribed accounting rules shall be submitted to the Commission for consideration and decision.

INVESTMENT IN PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

§ 24.01-11 Purpose of property accounts. (a) The primary property accounts are designed to show an accounting analysis of the book cost of:

(1) Property owned and used by the company in furnishing cars or protective service.

(2) Property owned by the company leased to others for use in furnishing cars or protective service.

(b) Entries in these accounts recorded subsequent to the effective date of this system of accounts shall be made as provided in these special instructions.

§ 24.01-12 Basis of charges. The costs includible in these accounts, except as provided in the text of accounts 803, "Acquisition adjustment," and 804, "Donations and grants," are actual money costs to the company. When the consideration for the acquisition of property is other than money the current cash value of such consideration shall be deemed to be the cost of the property acquired.

§ 24.01-13 Items to be charged. (a) To these accounts shall be charged the cost of all cars or protective service property acquired, except operating systems or donated property, including property constructed by or for the company, units of property replacing property retired, additions to and improvements of the existing property, and all property transferred from miscellaneous physical property to cars or protective service use. The accounting for the acquisition of operating systems is prescribed in the text of account 803, "Acquisition adjustment," and for donated property in the text of account 804, "Donations and grants."

(b) When property changes involve the acquisition of property (other than land) the cost of which is less than $500.00, or the betterment of property, the betterment cost of which is less than $500.00, the costs shall be charged to operating expenses. The company shall not parcel expenditures under a general plan for the purpose of bringing the accounting therefor within this rule; neither shall it combine unrelated items for the purpose of excluding the accounting therefor from the rule.

§ 24.01-14 Cost of construction. The cost of construction of property chargeable to these accounts shall include the following:

(a) "Cost of labor" includes the amount paid for labor performed by the company's own employees. The salaries and expenses of engineers and other officers specifically assigned to construction work shall be included in the accounts appropriate for the cost of the property in connection with which their services are rendered. No charge shall be made to these accounts for the pay of operating officers and members of their staffs who merely render service incidentally in connection with construction work.

Norm: The office, traveling, and other personal expenses of officers and employees shall be included in the accounts to which their pay is chargeable, except that traveling and incidental expenses incurred by operating officers and members of their staffs while rendering service incidentally in connection with construction work shall be included in the cost of the work upon which they are incidentally engaged.

(b) "Cost of material, supplies, and small tools" includes the purchase price at the point of free delivery, plus costs of royalties, inspection, loading, transportation, and an equitable proportion of store expenses.

In determining the cost of material used, proper allowance shall be made for the value of unused portions, small tools recovered and used for other purposes, and all other salvage.

Norm: The cost of individual items of small value ($25.00 or less) or of short life, including small tools, shall not be charged to the cost of construction unless the correctness of the accounting therefor is verified by current inventories, but shall be charged to operating expenses.

(c) "Special-machine service" includes the cost of material and supplies used in operating the company's machines and work equipment; it also includes expenditures for the rental, maintenance, and operation of machines and equipment of others.

Norm: No charge shall be made to these accounts to cover a return upon the company's investment in special machines or work equipment used in construction service.

(d) When an important construction project necessitates the purchase of machines to be used exclusively thereon, the cost shall be included in the accounts to which the cost of the work is charged, which accounts shall be credited with the amount realized from any subsequent sale, or the appraised value of the machines if retained after the completion of the special work for which they were purchased. The appraised value of machines retained shall be debited to the appropriate primary equipment accounts.

(e) "Cost of contract work" includes amounts paid for work performed under contract by other companies, firms, or individuals, and costs incident to the award of the contracts, and the inspection of such work.

(f) "Cost of protection from casualties" includes expenditures for protection against fire, payments for discovery or extinguishment of fires, cost of detecting incendiaries, witness fees in relation thereto, amounts paid to municipal corporations and others for fire protection, including the cost of protecting the property of others from damage when in connection with construction work, and other analogous items.

(g) "Cost of injuries and damages" includes expenditures on account of injuries to persons or damage to property, less insurance recovered, when incident to construction. Such costs shall be included in the cost of the work in connection with which the injury or damage occurs. They shall include also that portion of premiums paid for insuring against casualties applicable to the period prior to the completion of the property insured. The cost of injuries and damages in connection with the removal of old structures which are encumbrances on newly acquired lands shall be included in account 1, "Land."

(h) "Taxes" on physical property belonging to the company assessed during construction and before the facilities are completed and placed in service shall be included in the accounts appropriate for the cost of the property so taxed.

(i) "Interest during construction" includes the net cost of borrowed funds used for construction purposes. Such interest shall be charged to the accounts appropriate for the cost of the property in connection with which the funds are expended. The period for which interest may be charged shall be limited to the period of construction. The interest includible in these accounts is:

(1) Interest on bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness sold, and on any interest-bearing debt incurred for the acquisition or construction of property. It includes the interest accruing on that part of the debt representing the cost of property acquired (less interest, if any, allowed to companies on unexpended balances) after such funds become available for use and before the receipt or the completion of the property so acquired. Interest on bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness accruing before the proceeds from the sale of the securities become available for use shall not be included in these accounts nor shall there be included in these accounts any interest accruing after the property with respect to which the proceeds are expended is received or becomes available for service.

(2) There shall be deducted from or added to such interest charges a proportion of premium, or discount and expense on securities sold. The amount of premium deducted or discount and expense added shall be determined by the ratio which the period between the date the proceeds from the securities issued become available and the receipt, completion, or coming into service of the property bears to the entire life of the securities issued. In no case except as provided in this paragraph shall discount and expense be included in the property accounts.

(j) The cost of disposing of material excavated, including privilege of wasting in connection with construction, shall be considered as a part of the cost of the work, except that when such material is used for filling, the cost of loading, hauling, and dumping shall be equitably apportioned between the work in connection with which the removal occurs and the work in connection with which the material is used.

(k) When any equipment or protective service property is acquired under an agreement which provides that the cost shall be paid in installments, the cost shall be charged to the appropriate property accounts at the time of its acquisition, in the same manner as the cost of property purchased outright. When the par value of notes or other securities issued in payment, or in part payment, for such property is more or less than their value on a current cash basis at the time of purchase, the difference between the par value of the securities and their cash value shall be charged or credited to the proper discount and expense or premium account.

§ 24.01-15 Overhead construction costs. (a) Overhead construction costs (except as provided in account 50) such as engineering, supervision, legal expenses, insurance, injuries, damages, taxes (except payroll taxes) and interest shall be distributed equitably to the work benefited, so that the entire cost of construction, both direct and indirect, may be included in the appropriate primary accounts.

(b) These instructions should not be interpreted as permitting the addition to cost of property of arbitrary percentages or amounts to cover assumed overhead costs, but as requiring the assignment to the cost of each particular project of the actual and necessary overhead costs.

§ 24.01-16 Retirements and replacements. (a) At the time of retirement the book cost (estimated if not known) of all cars or protective service property retired as listed hereunder shall be credited to the appropriate property accounts in which it is included.

(1) Land retired including the proportional cost of public improvements pertaining to the land.

(2) Units of depreciable property retired.

NOTE: When secondhand rolling stock acquired is in such physical condition that it is necessary to make extensive repairs to it to bring it up to the standard required by the company, the cost of such repairs may be included in the account appropriate for the cost of the rolling stock.

When rolling stock is rebuilt in order to modernize and create an expectation of life fairly comparable with new units of similar type and capacity, the units shall be accounted for as retired from service and their cost as rebuilt shall be charged to the appropriate equipment account.

(3) Minor items of depreciable property retired and not replaced.

NOTE: If the book cost of the minor item retired is small, is not under a general plan, and in the judgment of the company does not affect the condition and value of the property for valuation or depreciation purposes, and will be accounted for by inclusion in the unit of property of which it is a part when such unit is retired, no separate credit to the property account is required when such minor item is retired.

(4) Minor items of depreciable property retired and replaced with items of a different type or design or constructed of a different grade of material effecting a substantial improvement and rendering the part applied more durable or of greater capacity than that retired.

CROSS REFERENCE: See § 24.01-8 (d) for definition of "betterments."

NOTE: If the retirement and replacement of minor items of depreciable property does not effect a substantial improvement, the cost of the replacement including cost of removal shall be charged to the accounts appropriate for repairs of such property, as shall also the cost of replacing in kind all minor items of cars or protective service property retired, and no adjustment shall be made of the property accounts.

(b) The amounts thus credited to the primary property accounts shall be charged concurrently as follows:

(1) Where the group plan of depreciation is used, the service value of units and minor items of depreciable property accounted for as retired, shall be charged to account 879, "Accrued depreciation—Cars or protective service property."

Where the unit plan of depreciation is used, an amount equal to the credit balance in account 879, "Accrued depreciation—Cars or protective service property," with respect to the property retired shall be charged to that account and the remainder (less salvage and insurance recovered, if any) shall be charged to the appropriate retirement accounts in operating expenses.

(2) The value of salvage from retired property shall be charged to the account appropriate according to the disposition made thereof. If retired property is held temporarily without being torn down, the estimated value of the salvage recoverable therefrom shall be included in account 839, "Other unadjusted debits," until the property is dismantled or otherwise disposed of. If retired property is held for other than furnishing cars or protective service, its appraised value shall be included in account 805, "Miscellaneous physical property."

(3) The cost of demolishing retired property shall be charged to the appropriate retirement account in operating expenses.

(c) Land retired. The book cost of the land including the proportional cost of public improvements pertaining to the land when retired from service shall be credited to accounts 1, "Land," and 2, "Public improvements," respectively. If the land is sold the necessary adjustment between the book cost and the amount received therefor shall be included in profit and loss. If the land is retained the appraised value thereof shall be charged to account 805, "Miscellaneous physical property," and the necessary adjustment between the book cost and the appraised value included in profit and loss.

(d) Property installed. The cost of property installed in place of property accounted for as retired under paragraph (a) of this section, shall be charged to the appropriate primary property accounts.

§ 24.01-17 Leased property. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section the cost of initial improvements (including rearrangements and additions) to property leased from others for cars or protective service made in the course of preparing the property for such service and the cost of any subsequent additions or improvements made to such leased property shall be charged to account 802, "Improvements on leased property."

(b) When the cost of improvements to leased property is not more than $500 or the lease is for a period of one year or less, the cost shall be charged to the appropriate maintenance account in operating expenses.

PROPERTY ACCOUNTS

§ 24.1 Land. (a) This account shall include the cost of land used or held for use in furnishing cars or protective service, including:

(b) Proceeds from the sale of timber or of improvements purchased with the land, or of minerals known to be in the land when purchased and considered in the purchase price thereof, less any cost of removal, shall be credited to this account.

If the plan of acquisition contemplates the removal of the buildings, the total cost of the land and buildings shall be accounted for as the cost of land and the salvage value of the buildings less any cost of removal when disposed of shall be deducted from the cost of the land so determined.

(6) Held for use referred to in paragraph (a) of this section implies the ability of the company to substantiate by plans or policy its characterization of the probable future use which is to be made of the land within a reasonable period of time.

In case the company adopts a repair program for all or part of the calendar year and estimates the cost of repairs includible in account 310, "Car repairs," an equitable monthly proportion of the difference between the estimated and the actual expenses chargeable each month shall be debited or credited to account 330, "Equalization—Car repairs." Any balance in account 876, "Equalization reserves," shall be cleared therefrom as soon as the work contemplated by the plan has been completed.

§ 24.01-47 Deferred maintenance and major repairs to rolling stock. When so authorized by the Commission there may be included each month in the appropriate accounts for deferred maintenance or major repairs an equitable proportion of the amount necessary to provide for the cost of repairs which the company finds it is unable to undertake or complete during any calendar year due to non-receipt of material or adverse labor conditions; or, in anticipation of major repairs to rolling stock which are made at intervals of several years. The amount included in these accounts shall be concurrently credited to account 877, "Maintenance reserves." The cost of such repairs when made shall be charged to the appropriate repair accounts in operating expenses, and to the extent that provision has been made for such repairs, amounts included in account 877, "Maintenance reserves," shall be cleared therefrom through the accounts originally charged. The company in its application shall give full particulars concerning the nature of the repair work specifically provided for and an estimate by primary accounts of the cost of such repairs.

§ 24.01-48 Depreciation. (a) There shall be charged monthly to the appropriate operating expense accounts or other appropriate accounts and credited to account 879, "Accrued depreciation—Cars or protective service property," during the service life of depreciable property, amounts which will approximate the loss in service value not restored by current repairs or covered by insurance, except that such charges covering property used seasonally, such as ice and heater facilities, shall be spread over the period when such facilities are used. The charges for currently accruing depreciation shall be computed in conformity with the group plan for rolling stock and the unit plan for all other depreciable property, by applying to the book cost, such percentage rates as will distribute the service value by the straight-line method in equal annual charges during the estimated life of the property.

(b) As soon as the information can be assembled the company shall compute annual percentage rates estimated to be applicable to the book cost of the property in each depreciable primary account. These percentage rates shall be based on the estimated service values and service lives of the depreciable property developed by a study of the company's history and experience and such engineering and other information as may be available with respect to future conditions. Such percentage rates shall, for each primary account comprised of more than one class of property, produce a charge for depreciation based on book cost or estimated book cost of the depreciable property included in such account equal to the sum of the amounts that would otherwise be chargeable as depreciation for each of the various classes of property included in such account.

(c) The company shall keep such records of depreciable property and property retirements as will reflect the service life of property which has been retired, or will permit the determination of service life indications by mortality, turnover, or other appropriate methods; also such records as will reflect the value of the salvage from property retired of each class of depreciable property.

(d) In computing monthly charges the annual percentage rates shall be applied to the book cost of depreciable property as of the first of each month and the result divided by twelve, except for property used seasonally.

(e) For the purpose of depreciation accounting the following primary accounts are classed as depreciable accounts:

2. Public improvements.
3. Rolling stock.
4. Miscellaneous equipment.
5. Tracks.
6. Car shop buildings and machinery.
7. Work equipment.

10. Ice storage houses and equipment.
11. Precooling plants.
12. Icing platforms.
13. Transmission systems.
14. Testing apparatus.
15. Miscellaneous structures.

(f) The term "group plan" as applied to depreciation accounting means the method under which the depreciation charges are accrued upon the basis of the book cost of depreciable property included in each primary account using the average service life thereof properly weighted, and upon the retirement of a unit of depreciable property its full service value is charged to the reserve regardless of the amount accrued with respect to the unit retired.

(g) Under the "unit plan" when a unit of depreciable property is retired the reserve is charged with the amount accrued thereon and any remainder is included in the appropriate retirement account; also accruals cease when a unit is fully depreciated.

§ 24.01-49 Supervision. (a) The supervision expenses includible in operating expenses shall consist of the pay and expenses, including transportation, lodgings, meals, and other incidental expenses, of the officers, clerks, attendants and other employees and consultants engaged in supervising and directing the maintenance and operation of the various services or functions; also the office expenses, including supplies, services, books, periodicals, repairs of office furniture and equipment, etc.

(b) When the officers and other employees are engaged in supervising more than one service and it is found impracticable to segregate all of the pay and expenses by services currently to the appropriate supervision accounts, such expenses as are common to two or more services may be included in a clearing account, and allocated to the respective supervision accounts annually, or more frequently, if required. A similar method of allocation may be used with respect to any other common expenses relating to two or more services, where it is impracticable to segregate such expenses currently.

§ 24.01-50 Rents. Expense accounts are provided under each service in which to include the amounts payable for the use of property leased from others. These accounts shall be charged each month with the amounts payable as rent of the property and facilities used in performing the various services. If the amount of rent is in payment for property used in more than one service, such amount shall be apportioned to the appropriate rent or clearing accounts on an actual, or if necessary, on an estimated basis.

§ 24.01-51 General expenses. The company shall be prepared to report to the Commission annually or more frequently, if required, the allocation of general expenses (accounts 550 to 569, incl.) to the respective services.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

§ 24.01-81 Balance sheet accounts. Balance sheet accounts are intended to disclose the financial condition of the company as of a given date by showing the assets, liabilities, capital stock, and related items and the surplus or deficit of the company.

§ 24.01-82 Discount, premium, and assessment on capital stock. (a) Separate ledger accounts shall be provided for each subclass of capital stock issued or assumed by the accounting company to cover discount suffered and premium realized at the sale or resale of capital stock. General levies or assessments against stockholders shall be credited to the appropriate ledger accounts for the subclass of capital stock against which the levy or assessment is made.

(b) The total of net debit balances in these ledger accounts shall be included in account 888, "Discount on capital stock," and the total of net credit balances in account 887, "Premiums and assessments on capital stock."

(c) Discount on each subclass of capital stock may be offset or reduced by charges to account 887, "Premiums and assessments on capital stock," to the extent that net gains from premiums or assessments have been included therein or to the extent that net gains from reacquisition and resale or retirement of capital stock applicable to subclass have been included in subaccount 895 (a) "Paid-in surplus." Any remaining discount may be amortized by charges to account 640, "Stock discount extinguished through income" or discount may be retained and carried in account 888, "Discount on capital stock," until the stock to which the discount applies is retired.

(d) In case the accounting company is permitted and elects to distribute all or any part of the net balance of paid-in surplus to its stockholders, the amount thus distributed shall be charged to subaccount 895 (a) "Paid-in surplus."

(e) When an issue of capital stock, or any part thereof, is reacquired either by purchase or through donations by shareholders, and is not canceled, it shall be charged at its par value; or if stock without par value at the proportionate amount at which the particular class of stock is included in account 885, "Capital stock," account 810, "Sinking funds," 811, "Deposits in lieu of mortgaged property sold"; 822, "Special deposits"; 832, "Insurance and other funds"; 845, "Securities issued or assumed—Unpledged"; or 846, "Securities issued or assumed—Pledged," as may be appropriate.

(f) The difference between the amount at which such reacquired stock was recorded in account 885, "Capital stock," and the amount paid by the accounting company for such stock, including any premium or discount applicable to such subclass carried in account 887, "Premiums and assessments on capital stock," or in account 888, "Discount on capital stock," and the commissions and expense in connection with its reacquisition shall be included in subaccount 895 (a) "Paid-in surplus." Provided, however That the excess of a debit over the amount of accumulated net gains applicable to such subclass included in paid-in surplus shall be charged to account 721, "Miscellaneous debits."

(g) When reacquired capital stock is resold the difference between the amount at which such stock is included in a particular asset account and the net sale price realized when resold shall be included in subaccount 895 (a) "Paid-in surplus." Provided, however That the excess of a debit over the amount of accumulated net gains applicable to each subclass of capital stock resold included in paid-in surplus shall be charged to account 721, "Miscellaneous debits."

(h) In no case shall discount on capital stock be charged to or included in any account as a part of the cost of acquiring property or as a part of the cost of operation.

§ 24.01-83 Discount, expense, and premium on funded debt. (a) Ledger accounts shall be provided to cover the discounts, expense, and premiums at the sale or resale of each subclass of funded debt and of receivers' and trustees' securities issued for the benefit of or assumed by the company. For explanation of subclass see account 850, "Funded debt."

(b) The total of the net debit balances remaining in these several accounts should be included in account 837, "Discount on funded debt," and the total of the net credit balances in account 874, "Premium on funded debt."

(c) Each fiscal period there shall be charged to income account 636, "Amortization of discount on funded debt," a proportion (based upon the ratio of such fiscal period to the remaining life of the respective securities reckoned from the beginning of the period to the date of maturity of the debt to which the charges relate) of each of the debit balances in these accounts, and correspondingly there shall be credited to income account 613, "Release of premium on funded debt," a similar proportion of each of the credit balances in these accounts. When the total discount and expense applicable to any particular issue of securities does not exceed $25,000, the entire amount may be charged to account 636, "Amortization of discount on funded debt," at time of issue.

(d) When any funded debt which has been actually issued to bona fide holders for value is reacquired by the accounting company that proportion of the balance remaining in the accounts containing discount, expense, and premium on funded debt for the subclass of the security reacquired applicable to the portion reacquired shall be credited or charged thereto, as may be appropriate, and concurrently charged or credited to profit and loss. Such proportion shall be based upon the ratio of the par value of the security reacquired to the par value of all the securities of the subclass actually outstanding immediately before such reacquirement.

(e) In case, however, the premium realized or discount suffered at the prior sale of the securities reacquired has been included (in excess of the amount authorized under § 24.01-14 (1) of the special instructions for cars or protective service property account) in an asset account other than the premiums and discounts account, such asset account shall be concurrently adjusted through profit and loss to the extent of such excess of the premium or discount previously included therein with respect to the securities reacquired.

(f) Except as provided under § 24.01-14 (1) of the special instructions for cars or protective service property accounts no discount and expense on funded debt shall be charged to or included in any account as a part of the cost of acquiring any property, tangible or intangible, or as a part of the cost of operation.

§ 24.01-84 Contingent assets and liabilities. Contingent assets and liabilities shall not be included in the body of the balance-sheet statement, but shall be shown in detail in a supplementary statement accompanying the balance-sheet statement. Contingent assets are those without value to the accounting company until the fulfillment of conditions, regarded as uncertain. Contingent liabilities include items which may, under certain conditions, become obligations of the company, but are neither direct nor assumed obligations on the date of the balance sheet.

§ 24.01-85 Book value of securities owned. (a) The investment in securities other than those issued or assumed by the accounting company shall be recorded in these accounts at the money value, at the time of acquisition, of the consideration given therefor by the accounting company, but excluding amounts paid for accrued interest and accrued dividends. The accounting company shall write down the book cost of any securities to the extent of impairment in their value. Fluctuations in market value shall not be recorded, however. Securities shall be written down to reflect impairment in value or written off entirely if there be no reasonable prospect of realizing any value whatever therefrom. Adjustments in the ledger values of securities shall not be delayed beyond the year in which a loss is claimed for income tax purposes. In accordance with paragraph (c) of this section companies may create reserves from surplus to cover such reductions in value. Under no circumstances shall the investment in the securities be stated in these accounts at an amount in excess of their cost to the accounting company.

(b) The amount of the adjustment shall be charged to account 721, "Miscellaneous debits."

(c) Companies may create reserves from surplus to provide for impairment in the value of securities owned and recorded in accounts 814, "Investments in affiliated companies," and 815, "Other investments," by charges to account 721, "Miscellaneous debits." See account 816, "Reserve for adjustment of investment in securities."

§ 24.01-86 Income from sinking fund assets. Accrued interest on uninvested sinking fund cash on deposit in banks or trust companies, and accrued interest and other income arising from stocks, bonds, or other assets held in sinking and reserve funds shall be credited to account 812, "Income from sinking and other reserve funds," and when required by the mortgage or other provision to be held in the funds shall be charged, according to the character of the funds, to account 810, "Sinking funds," or to account 832, "Insurance and other funds," and concurrently, if a reserve is required, an equal amount shall be charged to income account 637, "Income applied to sinking and other reserve funds," and credited to account 896, "Appropriated earned surplus."

§ 24.01-87 Current assets. In the group of accounts designated as current assets (accounts 820 to 830, inclusive) shall be included cash, those assets which are readily convertible into cash or are held for current use in operations or construction, current claims against others and amounts accruing to the company which are subject to current settlement. There shall not be included in this group of accounts any item the collection of which is not reasonably assured by the known financial condition of the debtor. Items of current character but of doubtful value previously credited to operating revenue, operating expense or income accounts shall be written down or written off by charging those accounts. If there has been any impairment in value, such items shall be included in account 833, "Other deferred assets" at an amount not in excess of a reasonable estimate of future value. If it is desired to retain a record of assets written off they shall be recorded at a nominal value in account 833, "Other deferred assets."

§ 24.01-88 Joint liabilities. The accounting company shall state as a liability in its balance sheet the difference between the total par value of securities jointly or severally issued by it and others and the portion of such liability which, under the joint arrangement, it is expected, will be liquidated by the other party or parties to the joint arrangement. The amount of the jointly or severally issued securities which it is expected will be liquidated by the other party or parties shall be shown as a contingent liability in accordance with § 24.01-84 of these instructions.

§ 24.01-89 Surplus. Records shall be maintained in such manner as to show two major divisions of surplus:

At that date the surplus shall be segregated so far as practicable, into "Unearned surplus," "Appropriated earned surplus," and "Earned surplus," and any unsegregated balance shall be included in a subaccount under account 897, "Earned surplus," and carried therein until the balance has been entirely cleared by charges applicable to the period prior to the effective date of this classification.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF CANNED DRIED BEANS¹

NOTICE OF RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision, as hereinafter proposed, of the existing United States Standards for grades of canned dried beans pursuant to the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture

¹ The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

Appropriation Act, 1947 (Pub. Law 422, 79th Cong., 2d Sess., approved June 22, 1946). The revised standards are to become effective January 2, 1947, and will supersede the United States Standards for grades of canned dried beans that were issued January 10, 1934.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed revision and the effective date of the revised standards shall file the same in quadruplicate with the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, Room 0308, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., on the 20th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed revised standards are as follows:

§ 52.162 Canned dried beans—(a) Definition. Canned dried beans are prepared from the matured seeds of varieties of beans (Phaseolus vulgaris or Phaseolus lunatus) and may be prepared by washing, soaking, blanching, or other processing; may be packed with or without the addition of water, spices, spice oils, spice flavorings, salt, coloring agents, thickening ingredients, sweetening ingredients, tomato products, and meat or meat products; and are sufficiently processed by heat to assure preservation of the product in hermetically sealed containers.

(b) Types of canned dried beans.

- (1) Lima beans.
- (2) White beans.
- (3) Red beans (including speckled types).
- (4) Soybeans.
- (5) Black-eye "peas" (and other common varieties of so-called dried "peas").

(c) Styles of pack of canned dried beans. Canned dried beans may be packed with or without added meat or meat products; and Federal inspection certificates will describe the meat or meat product if an added ingredient. Canned dried beans are usually packed as one of the following styles of pack:

(1) Tomato sauce. (Generally consisting of, but not restricted to, tomato pulp or puree, sweetening ingredients, salt, thickening ingredients, coloring agents, and spices or other flavorings, in the packing medium.)

- (i) With pork.
- (ii) Without pork.
- (iii) With meat or meat product (other than pork).
- (iv) Without meat or meat product (other than pork).

(2) Sweetened sauce. (Generally consisting of, but not restricted to, sweetening ingredients, salt, thickening ingredients, coloring agents, spices or other flavorings, and molasses, in the packing medium.)

- (1) With pork.
- (ii) Without pork.
- (iii) With meat or meat product (other than pork).
- (iv) Without meat or meat product (other than pork).

(3) Sweetened sauce, plain. (Generally consisting of, but not restricted to, sweetening ingredients, salt, thickening ingredients, and white pepper, in the packing medium.)

- (1) With pork.
- (ii) Without pork.
- (iii) With meat or meat product (other than pork).
- (iv) Without meat or meat product (other than pork).

(4) Brine. (Generally consisting of, but not restricted to, salt, sweetening ingredients, and water as the packing medium.)

(d) Grades of canned dried beans. (1) U. S. Grade A or U. S. Fancy canned dried beans possess similar varietal characteristics; are practically free from defects; possess a good character; possess a good typical color; possess a typical and normal flavor; and are of such quality with respect to consistency that the total score is not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined herein.

(2) U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard canned dried beans possess similar varietal characteristics; possess a fairly good consistency; are fairly free from defects; possess a fairly good character; possess a good typical color; possess a typical and normal flavor; and score not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined herein.

(3) U. S. Grade D or Substandard canned dried beans are canned dried beans that fail to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard.

(e) Recommended fill of container. It is recommended that the container be filled with canned dried beans as full as practicable without impairment of quality and that the product and packing medium occupy not less than 90 percent of the volume capacity of the container.

(f) Ascertaining the grade. The grade of canned dried beans may be ascertained by considering, in addition to the foregoing requirements, the following factors: Consistency, absence of defects, and character. The relative importance of each factor has been expressed numerically on a scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given for each factor is:

	Points
(1) Consistency	20
(2) Absence of defects.....	40
(3) Character	40
Total score.....	100

(g) Ascertaining the rating of each factor. The essential variations within each factor are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical ranges within each factor are inclusive. For example, the range 17 to 20 means, 17, 18, 19, and 20.

(1) Consistency. (i) Canned dried beans that possess a good consistency may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Good consistency" means that the sauce or brine surrounding the canned dried beans is smooth and is neither grainy or lumpy that canned dried beans, if packed in a sauce, form a slightly mounded mass with not more than a slight separation of liquid when emptied on a flat surface; and that canned dried beans, if packed in a brine, may possess a gelatinous or thick consistency or a consistency in which there is a separation of liquid but do not possess a watery consistency.

(ii) If the canned dried beans possess a fairly good consistency, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. "Fairly good consistency" means that the sauce or brine surrounding the canned dried beans is fairly smooth and may be slightly grainy but is not lumpy; that canned dried beans, if packed in a sauce, possess a thick consistency with practically no separation of liquid or may possess a moderate separation of liquid but do not possess a watery consistency; and that canned dried beans, if packed in a brine, may possess considerable separation of liquid or may possess a watery consistency.

(iii) Canned dried beans that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product.

(2) Absence of defects. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from harmless extraneous vegetable material; from loose skins; from mashed and broken units; from spotted or discolored beans; and from units damaged by pathological, insect, or other similar injury.

(i) "Loose skins" are skins or portions of skins which have been separated wholly from the cotyledons. A single loose skin is considered as one-third of a unit.

(ii) "Mashed beans" are beans that are seriously crushed or flattened so that they are not of their apparent normal shape.

(iii) A broken unit is one that is so damaged that a cotyledon, or portion thereof, has become separated from the whole bean. A single cotyledon, or portion thereof, is considered as one-third of a unit.

(iv) "Spotted or discolored beans" are those units damaged by pathological or other means.

(v) Canned dried beans that are practically free from defects may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that there may be present—

No harmless extraneous vegetable material;

Not more than 5 percent by count of loose skins, mashed beans, and broken units; and

Not more than 4 percent by count of spotted or discolored beans.

(vi) If the canned dried beans are fairly free from defects, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Canned dried beans that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product. "Fairly free from defects" means that there may be present—

Not more than 1 small piece of harmless extraneous vegetable material for each 20 ounces of net weight;

Not more than 10 percent by count of loose skins, mashed beans, and broken units; and

Not more than 8 percent by count of spotted or discolored beans.

(vii) Canned dried beans that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (vi) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product.

(3) Character. (i) Canned dried beans that possess a good character may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Good character" means that the beans possess a texture that is typical; that may be slightly granular or slightly firm and that the skins are tender.

(ii) If the canned dried beans possess a fairly good character, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Canned dried beans that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product. "Fairly good character" means that the beans possess a fairly good typical texture; that the beans may be firm but are not markedly hard; that the beans may be soft but are not mushy; and that the skins may be slightly tough.

(iii) Canned dried beans that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product.

(h) Explanation of terms. (1) "Similar varietal characteristics" means that the beans are alike in shape, color, and general characteristics.

(2) "Good typical color" means that the product and surrounding sauce possess a color distinctly characteristic of the type of dried beans and style of pack.

(3) "Typical and normal flavor" means that the canned dried beans are free from objectionable flavors or objectionable odors of any kind and that the flavor is characteristic of the type of canned dried beans and style of pack.

(i) Tolerance for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples which have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of canned dried beans, the grade will be determined by averaging the score of all containers, provided not more than one-sixth of the containers fail in some respect to meet the requirements of the grade indicated by the average score.

(2) However, none of the cans may fall more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average score, and if one-sixth or less of the containers fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers for the limiting factor must be within the range for the grade indicated by the average total score.

(3) This tolerance does not apply if any container falls below any applicable standard of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(c) This Order No. G-31 also supersedes all other orders in addition to the Order specified in paragraph (b) above which established maximum prices for the kinds and types of firewood covered by this order when sold in the area and by the persons covered by this Order No. G-31.

(d) Definitions:

(e) No seller shall evade any of the provisions of the Order No. G-31 by changing the customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials unless such change results in a lower price.

(f) Invoices and records. Every person making a sale of firewood for which a maximum price is set by this order shall give the purchaser or his agent at the time of the sale an invoice or other memorandum of sale, which shall show:

(1) The date of sale.

(2) The name and address of the buyer and seller.

(g) This order shall become effective immediately.

(h) This order may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time.

Issued this 1st day of October 1946.

T. J. EDMONDS,
District Director

Opinion Accompanying Order No. G-31 Under § 1499.18 (c), as Amended of the General Maximum Price Regulation

The accompanying order establishes adjusted maximum prices for specified types of firewood in the Bend, Oregon, Area. The adjusted maximum prices for the specified types of firewood sold to purchasers in the class specified in the accompanying order have been established under § 1499.18 (c), as amended, of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

This order supersedes and revokes the area order which has covered the territory now covered by this order. The prices established by the accompanying order were determined by the District Director, after investigation, with the help of cost data supplied in formal applications from the individual sellers in the area covered.

Firewood is the primary fuel used in the area specified in this order. It was found necessary earlier to increase the maximum prices of suppliers of the firewood covered by this order. There has been no increase allowed for such firewood in this area for a long time and there have been such increases in costs that the present maximum prices are too low to permit absorption of such increases. Such firewood must now be hauled from a greater distance than required at the time of establishment of the present area maximum prices. As a result there is a threat of a local shortage of these types of firewood if present ceiling prices are maintained.

Because of the geographical location of the area defined in the accompanying order, it is not economical to secure wood of this type from other areas.

Due to increased costs in production and distribution, sellers of these types of firewood will not be able to continue to produce firewood unless an adjustment in price is granted. The adjustment granted in the accompanying order is the minimum necessary to assist in maintaining the needed supplies of firewood in the area concerned.

Firewood is an essential commodity. The adjustment of the maximum prices chargeable for firewood will not create, or tend to create, a shortage or a need for an increase in prices in other localities. It will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and is consistent with Executive Orders No. 9250 and 9328.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than December 16, 1946, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matters, or either of them, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues of fact or law raised by said filing proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such application and declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and become effective, respectively, as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to said act, or as otherwise provided under said act and rules, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration and application which are on file in the office of the said Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized below:

Arkansas, a Delaware corporation and a former subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West"), has been a registered holding company since May 13, 1937. By order dated January 24, 1944, the Commission, pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the act, required Arkansas to divest itself of its interest in its then subsidiary, East Missouri Power Company, its electric properties in and around Piedmont, Missouri, and between Arcadia and Old Mines, Missouri, and its ice properties and business. At the same time Middle West was required to divest itself of its interest in Arkansas. Pursuant to such order, Middle West has disposed of its interest in Arkansas and Arkansas has disposed of its interest in East Missouri Power Company. Arkansas now requests a modification of the said order of January 24, 1944, by deleting therefrom those provisions which require it to dispose of its electric properties in and around Piedmont, Missouri, and between Arcadia and Old Mines, Missouri, and its ice properties and business. Arkansas further requests the issuance of an order pursuant to section 5 (d) of the act declaring that it has ceased to be a holding company and that its registration as such shall cease to be in effect.

Arkansas further proposes to transfer its assets to Arkansas-Missouri Power Company, a corporation recently organized under the laws of the State of Arkansas, which company will assume the liabilities of Arkansas and will issue its capital stock to the stockholders of Arkansas on a share-for-share basis upon the surrender for cancellation of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Arkansas. Arkansas will then dissolve. Arkansas proposes to solicit proxies for a special meeting of its stockholders at which the proposed transactions will be considered, and it requests that its declaration with respect to such proxy solicitation be considered and disposed of independently of and prior to the principal transactions herein proposed.

By the Commission.

on August 30, 1946, and the War Shipping Administration shall cease to exist as of September 1, 1946;"

Now, therefore, I, A. J. Williams, Secretary, United States Maritime Commission, do hereby certify that on January 15, 1946, the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, acting pursuant to the act approved March 24, 1943 (Public Law 17—78th Congress) determined that the ownership of said vessel is not required by the United States and that from and after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than the title to such vessel shall be deemed to have been requisitioned, for all purposes, as of the date of the original taking.

Dated: November 27, 1946.
