

Ski experts assemble at Cary, Ill., for the annual championship meet. Barney Reilly is here seen making the longest jump of the meet.

International Film

Mme. Melba is appearing once more in opera—another debt of New Yorkers to the Chicago Opera Company.

Photo Brothorn Melbourne

Clara Joel as the vampire in "Business Before Pleasure." Miss Joel is on record that she is not a vampire and that she was born in Jersey City.

White Studio

Yamada Kosaku is said in Japan to have been the first composer who has written what may be called international music. Among his operas are "War Shouts and Peace," "Flowers of White Datura" and "The Seventh Woman."

© Adachi

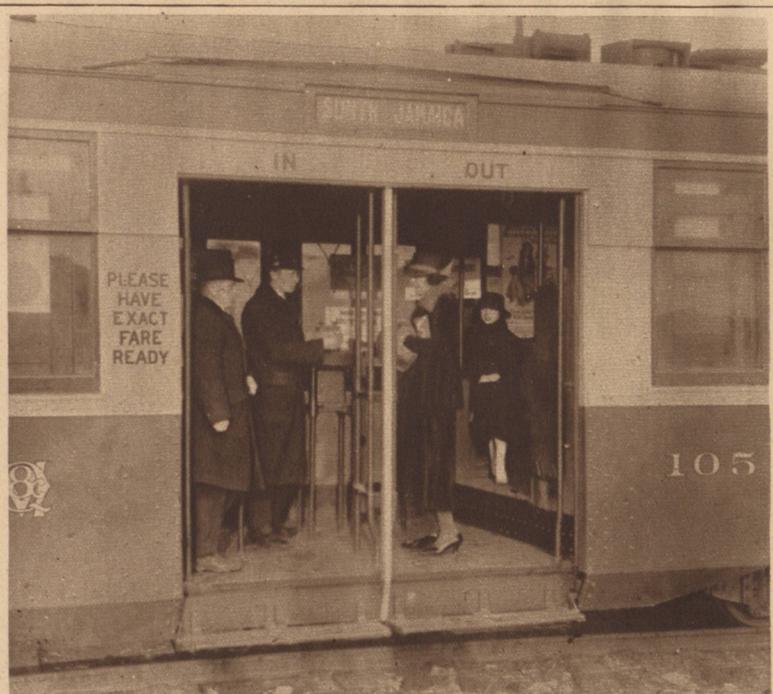

Phoebe Foster, who plays the heroine in quest of romance in "The Gipsy Trail."

Maurice Goldberg

At the bottom of the pyramid is Fred Stone and at the apex Violet Zell. Both are in "Jack o' Lantern."

White Studio

The bank that goes everywhere—Selling war savings stamps on a streetcar.

Tribune Service

Emma Dunn as Angie in "Old Lady 31." Miss Dunn is duplicating her success of last season.

Underwood & Underwood