

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

VOLUNTEER AMBULANCE WORKERS FROM AMERICAN COLLEGES WHO HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED FROM THE FRENCH FRONT TO SALONIKI FOR THE BALKAN CAMPAIGN.

Standing, Left to Right, Are: Charles Fisher, New York; Charles Baird, Akron, Ohio; Arthur Bloomingthal, Wilmington, Del.; George M. Hollister, Harvard; John Monroe, Tuxedo; Thomas Buffum, Harvard; Donald C. Armour, Yale; A. Innis, Brown; Arthur Graham Carey, Harvard; Cornelius Winant, Princeton; Thomas W. Potter, New York; Daniel Sargent, Harvard; Giles B. Franklyn, John Magnin, John W. Clark, Yale; and Lovering Hill, in Command. Seated: Robert W. Imbrie, Washington, D. C.; Henry D. Palmer, Coleman Clark, Westfield, N. J.; R. Bowne Montgomery, Princeton, and Powell Fenton, Penn.

SIR RABIN-DRANATH TAGORE, Bengali Poet and Nobel Prize Winner, Feeding the Pigeons at the San Diego Exposition Just Before Leaving for New York.

MISS BEATRICE WANGER, A "Girl of Today" in The Times Competition Three Years Ago, As She Appeared With Maud Allan in the Play-Dance, "Nair, the Slave," at the 44th St. Theatre.

(Photo by Arnold Genthe.)

ANNA HELD IN "FOLLOW ME,"

The Musical Comedy in Which She Returns to America After Two Years Spent in France as a Red Cross Nurse.

(Photo by Fashion Camera Co.)

SECOND LIEUT. GRESSIER, WHO HAS JUST BEEN DECORATED WITH THE LEGION OF HONOR IN THE COURT OF THE INVALIDES, RECEIVING THE CONGRATULATIONS OF THE MEMBERS OF HIS FAMILY.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

E. K. JAQUITH and Companion with Several Brace of Ducks Which They Had Just Bagged from Their Hydroaeroplane Off the Jersey Coast. The Ducks Were Followed in Flight and Shot When Overtaken by Wings Stouter and Fleeter Than Flesh and Feathers.

(Photo © American Press Ass'n.)