

CHARLES I., EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA, AND WILLIAM II., GERMAN EMPEROR, ON THE ITALIAN FRONT, DISCUSSING WITH THEIR MILITARY CHIEFS THE MOVEMENTS OF THEIR JOINT TROOPS AND WAR MAPS OF THE TERRITORY AIDING.
From a photograph by A. Grohs, Berlin, received in this country by way of Holland.

(French Pictorial Service.)

ELEUTHERIOS VENIZELOS,

THE GRECIAN PRIME MINISTER, ON A VISIT TO THE BELGIAN FRONT

BRITISH SOLDIERS IN ITALY, MOVING TOWARD THE PIAVE, HALT FOR A CHAT WITH ITALIAN GIRLS ENGAGED IN REPAIRING THE ROADS FOR THE QUICK MOVEMENT OF TROOPS NORTHWARD.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

PRIVATE "JACK" WHARTON, Australian Boy of 16, and Already at the Front Two Years, Who Recently Had the Unusual Privilege for a Private Soldier of Dining With the King and Queen of Great Britain. The Invitation Was Called Forth by a Photograph Sent to the Queen by Him, Showing Her Holding Him When a Baby, in Her Arms.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

RAOUL LUFBERRY AMERICAN FLIER AND PREMIER ACE OF THE LAFAYETTE ESCADRILLE, BEARING THE "STARS AND STRIPES" AT RECENT MEMORIAL CEREMONIES IN HONOR OF CAPT. GEORGES GUYNEMER, HAVING BEEN OFFICIALLY NAMED AS ONE OF CAPT. GUYNEMER'S SUCCESSORS.
(Williams Service.)

NATIVES OF GERMAN EAST AFRICA CHAINED TO EACH OTHER BY THE NECKS AND UNDER GUARD OF A NATIVE SOLDIER OF THE GERMAN EAST AFRICAN FORCES.
From a Photograph Found in the Possession of a Captured German Officer
(Central News Photo Service.)