I have purchased, in the last three years, over 100 DVD's. I recently began a post-doctoral fellowship in Germany. I brought my computer over with me and tried to play DVD's that I purchased or rented in Germany. However, I have to make a choice: Either play the DVD's I brought over from the US, or play the DVD's while I am over here that are from Region 2. This is not fair. I have purchased the rights to watch these DVD's and I am not being allowed to do this.
