Summary:

Disc name: Ronja Rovardotter

My wife is learning Swedish (I am Swedish by birth, American by naturalization) so this last Christmas when we went to Sweden to visit my relatives we received a couple of Swedish children's movies including "Ronja Rovardotter". Excited about the possibility of watching them at home we popped them into our DVD player only to find that it refused to play them. Now we have to go find another DVD player that has "hacks" available for it that let us view multiple regions, all because we want to watch a Swedish children's movie that has no chance of coming out in the United States.
