Summary:

Disc name: Neon Genesis Evangelion: Death & Rebirth, End of Evangelion

I recently purchased a DVD set through a business in Singapore. The set is a collection of Japanese anime movies, and thus would not work in my PC because it has a different region code than what my computer has. To watch this DVD set I would need to change the region settings on my Creative Labs 12X DVD drive, which I can only do three times, due to software restrictions in the drive itself.
