Class of works: I am writing in support of Class #3 (Unskippable DVD Advertising): Audiovisual works released on DVD that contain access control measures that interfere with the ability to control private performance, including the ability to skip promotional materials.

Summary:

Disc name: Disney Movies (most)

My kids love to get up and dance around with musical numbers in Disney movies. We hit on the idea of just playing our favorite musical scenes back to back. This is pretty effectively hampered by the fact that every time we'd insert a new DVD, we were forced to wait one or two minutes for permission to start the scene we were interested in. Ironically, this usage scenario would have been faster with VHS.
