

Name: Keith Lehman

Class of works: I am writing in support of Class #3 (Unskippable DVD Advertising): Audiovisual works released on DVD that contain access control measures that interfere with the ability to control private performance, including the ability to skip promotional materials.

Summary:

Disc name: Tarzan, Beauty and the Beast, and All Disney DVD's I have tried

I found that I could not skip advertising at the beginning of movie CD's, including Tarzan and Beauty and the Beast. I regard this as an intrusion on the property rights I should have as the new owner of the DVD movie. The DVD's with forced advertising are not lower in price than other DVD's and they are not marked as having forced advertisements. Why should I be forced to subsidize Disney's coffers. It's simply a raping of consumer rights and if allowed to continue it will only get worse.