

[Proposed class or classes of copyrighted work(s) to be exempted]= Protected content that can only be unlocked by a proprietary (closed-source, non-licensable) device or program.

[Brief summary of the argument(s) in support of the exemption proposed above]= The DMCA does not preserve the fair use rights of those who wish to use protected content in devices and software that are not directly supported by the content provider (third-party support).