

[Proposed class or classes of copyrighted work(s) to be exempted]= Any works in digital or electronic format which, due to their access controls, prevent the user from being able to access the user-created content.

[Brief summary of the argument(s) in support of the exemption proposed above]= The user of an electronic work should not be made unable to access their own work as a side-affect of access controls placed on some other work.