1. I am supporting a jailbreaking exemption for smartphones.
2. I am an academic teacher who travels internationally.
3. I use an Iphone
4. I travel internationally, sometimes staying long periods of time. Thus I buy a local SIM for that country so I can communicate with others locally. I also use programs which are not offered by Apple. It would be very difficult for how I use the phone if it were not opened lined. I would not have the phone. I must have a phone that is opened lined.
