

I really disagree on making jail breaking smart phones and tablets illegal because we should be free to do whatever we want with items we bought to use in our life so we should have the free will of doing whatever we want without any restriction from anyone as and as we paid for it