

I am a hobbyist and writing to support the Smartphone exemption. Jailbreaking should stay legal because it gives us the freedom after buying our smart phones to customize them the way we want them. Why do we have to be restricted to a certain standard when we are only customizing our phones. I believe that the Smartphone is a lot better after it's been jailbroken.