

1. Which jailbreaking exemption are you supporting—smartphones/tablets, video game consoles, or both?

Both

2. What's your background (i.e., are you a developer, hobbyist, academic, independent researcher, user, etc.)?

2. User

3. What device do you want to ensure you have the legal authority to jailbreak?

Iphone Ipad all idevices . and other smartphone and tablets

4. Please explain why you want to jailbreak this device. What limitations do you face if you aren't able to jailbreak it? Is there software you couldn't run, computing capabilities you wouldn't have, cool things you couldn't do, etc.?

if I cant jailbreak it, then I cant intall apps created by myself or others which are not permitted by apple, and u cant install tweaks created by developers, I don't use cracked stuff, but I want my freedom, JAILBREAK is NOT all about intall free games!!!! That's a misconception most people have!!!!!!

5. If you're a developer, did an online application store or console manufacturer reject your app or game? If so, what reasons did they give?

I am not a developer

6. Is there anything else you want to tell the Copyright Office?

it is our right to possess this stuff and do whatever we want to it, as long as we don't violate others right, just jailbreak doesn't mean anything.

Note: Where the form says "Comment number(s) of proposed classes of works to which you are responding," enter a "3" if you're writing about game consoles or a "5" if you're writing about smartphones or tablets.
