1. Which jailbreaking exemption are you supporting—smartphones/tablets, video game consoles, or both?

Smartphones. I don't have any tablets or video game consoles at the time.

2. What's your background (i.e., are you a developer, hobbyist, academic, independent researcher, user, etc.)?

I am a user/hobbyist.

3. What device do you want to ensure you have the legal authority to jailbreak?

I want to make sure that iPhones and iPod Touches have the Legal authority to jailbreak.

4. Please explain why you want to jailbreak this device. What limitations do you face if you aren't able to jailbreak it? Is there software you couldn't run, computing capabilities you wouldn't have, cool things you couldn't do, etc.?

I want my iPod Touch Jailbroken because there are many things I want to customize my iPod. There just isn't enough options with Apple's default options. THERE ISN'T ENOUGH!

5. If you're a developer, did an online application store or console manufacturer reject your app or game? If so, what reasons did they give?

I am not a developer.

6. Is there anything else you want to tell the Copyright Office?
