BIBLIOGRAPHY OF DESIGN PROTECTION - 1976 SUPPLEMENT

The Copyright Office announces publication of a 1976 Supplement entitled BIBLIOGRAPHY OF DESIGN PROTECTION compiled by Kelsey Martin Mott.

This annotated bibliography supplements two earlier bibliographic studies on design protection, the first of which was compiled in 1955 by Barbara Ringer, now Register of Copyrights, and the second in 1959 by William Strauss, Borge Varmer, and Caruthers G. Berger, under the supervision of Barbara Ringer.

The 1976 bibliography is a guide to recent design protection legislation in connection with proposed revision of the Copyright Act, and to specific articles on design protection as well as cases involving copyright, common law and unfair competition, design patents, patents, and trademarks. Also included is material relating to foreign and international law in the design field.

Copies of the 1976 Supplement are available without charge upon request.
