L. 94-553, the Act for General Revision of the Copyright Law, pertaining to the filing of agreements between copyright owners and public broadcasting entities, and to the termination of transfers and licenses covering the extended renewal term of copyright. The Copyright Office is also considering deletion of its existing regulation prohibiting the use of Office records for compiling mailing lists and the like, and technical corrective amendments to other of its regulations.

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSED REGULATIONS AND AMENDMENTS

1. RECORDATION OF AGREEMENTS VOLUNTARILY NEGOTIATED BETWEEN COPYRIGHT OWNERS AND PUBLIC BROADCASTING ENTITIES

Under § 118(b) (2) of the first section of Pub. L. 94-553, license agreements between one or more owners of copyright in published nondramatic musical works and published pictorial, Dramatic, and sculptural works, and one or more public broadcasting entities have effect in lieu of any determination by the Copyright Royalty Tribunal established under the new law, provided that "copies of such agreements are filed in the Copyright Office within thirty days of execution in accordance with regulations that the Register of Copyrights shall prescribe." Additionally, § 118(e)(1) provides for the voluntary negotiation of terms and rates of royalty payments between owners of copyright in nondramatic literary works and public broadcasting entities; these terms and rates are to be effective "upon filing in the Copyright Office, in accordance with regulations that the Register of Copyrights shall prescribe."

Under Sec. 102 of the Transitional and Supplementary Provisions of Pub. L. 94-553, these provisions became effective on October 19, 1976, the date of enactment of the new law. Accordingly, the Copyright Office proposes to open its public records to the filing of agreements between public broadcasting entities and copyright owners and to record these agreements upon payment of the appropriate fee.

It is proposed that recordation of these agreements be required by the addition of a new § 201.9 of the regulations of the Copyright Office.

Proposed § 201.9 would establish the formal requirements governing the nature of the document to be filed for recordation. For documents submitted before January 1, 1978 the recording fee is proposed to be that provided for recordation of assignments and other papers under the present law; after January 1, 1978 the recording fee would be consistent with that provided by § 708(a)(4) of the new law. The date of recordation is proposed to be the date upon which the last element required for recordation (signed document, certification if necessary, and fee) is received in the Copyright Office.

2. TERMINATION OF TRANSFERS AND LICENSES COVERING EXTENDED RENEWAL TERM

Under § 304(c) of the first section of Pub. L. 94-553, the exclusive or nonexclusive grant of a transfer or license of a renewal copyright executed before January 1, 1978 is subject to termination in certain cases. Termination is effected by serving a notice of termination in writing upon the grantee or the grantee's successor in title under conditions specified in the law. Among other conditions, the notice of termination is to comply in form, content, and manner of service with requirements that the Register of Copyrights shall prescribe by regulation.

A copy of the notice of termination shall be recorded in the Copyright Office before the effective date of termination, as a condition to its taking effect.

Section 304(c) expressly refers to the possibility of terminating grants during specified periods beginning on January 1, 1978, and requires the serving of notices "not less than two or more than ten years" before the effective date of termination. Thus, a reasonable interpretation would permit the serving of certain termination notices before January 1, 1978.

Accordingly, a new § 201.10 is proposed as an addition to the regulations of the Copyright Office, to govern the form, content, manner of service, and recordation of termination notices.

The proposed new § 201.10 attempts to avoid the imposition of costly or burdensome requirements while, at the same time, giving the grantee and the public a reasonable opportunity to identify the affected grant and work from the information given in the notice. The date of recordation of a notice of termination would be the date upon which the last element required for recordation (accompanying copy of signed document and fee) is received in the Copyright Office. Until January 1, 1978 the fee for recording copies of termination notices will be that established for the recording of assignments and other papers under the current law; after January 1, 1978, the recording fee would be consistent with that provided by § 708(a) (4) of the new law.

3. USE OF COPYRIGHT OFFICE RECORDS FOR MAILING LISTS AND SIMILAR PURPOSES

Section 201.2(b) (2) of the regulations of the Copyright Office prohibits the "copying from the Copyright Office records of names and addresses for the purpose of compiling mailing lists and other similar uses." The Copyright Office has re-examined this prohibition and concluded that it is an unwarranted limitation on the public use of Office records. Accordingly, the Office proposes to delete § 201.2(b) (2) from its regulations. Upon deletion, use of Copyright Office records to compile mailing and similar lists may be made, under § 201.2(b) (1), "at such times as will not result in interference with or delay in the work of the Copyright Office."

4. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS OF EXISTING REGULATIONS

The Copyright Office plans minor technical amendments of its existing regulations to correct the ZIP Code references in §§ 201.1 and 201.2(c) (3) (ii), and to delete the out-dated reference to "Copyright Office Form C-85" and correct the CFR citation pertaining to the use of import statements in § 201.8. The Office also plans an addition to § 201.3 of its regulations to identify Part 14 of the Catalog of Copyright Entries. (17 U.S.C. 207, and under the following sections of Title 17 of the United States Code as amended by Pub. L. 94-558: 1113; 304 (e); 702; 706 (11)).

(d) Manner of service. The notice of termination shall be served upon each grantee or successor whose rights are being terminated.
