R. E. GLASGOW APPOINTED ASSISTANT GENERAL COUNSEL

Richard E. Glasgow was appointed Assistant General Counsel of the Copyright Office on February 16, 1977.

A native of Illinois, Mr. Glasgow holds an A. B. degree from Bradley University in Peoria, Ill., which he received in 1948. Mr. Glasgow is also a graduate of the George Washington University Law School, having been awarded his LL. B. degree in 1951. He has been a member of the Bar of the State of Virginia since 1952.

Mr. Glasgow joined the staff of the Copyright Office as a legal examiner on January 19, 1953. The quality and quantity of his work earned him promotions in the Examining Division in 1954 and 1955. On January 5, 1956, he became a reviser and served as Assistant Head of the Miscellaneous (now Arts) Section. He received an Outstanding Efficiency Rating in 1959. In 1960 he was named Head of the Miscellaneous Section and in 1963 was promoted to Assistant Chief of the Examining Division, of which he became Chief in 1966.

A member of the Federal Bar Association, Mr. Glasgow also serves on The American Bar Association's Patent, Trademark and Copyright Section, Committee (308) on Government Relations to Copyright.
