EARLY AMERICAN COPYRIGHT CASES
PUBLISHED WITH ANALYTICAL INDEX
DECISIONS OF THE UNITED STATES COURTS INVOLVING COPYRIGHT AND LITERARY PROPERTY 1789-1909 WITH AN ANALYTICAL INDEX

This four-volume retrospective set of Bulletins prepared by the Copyright Office contains judicial and administrative decisions concerning copyright and literary property which interpreted the copyright law of the States and the Federal Government prior to July 1, 1909. The volumes are denominated Numbers 13, 14, 15, and 16, in order to show their relationship to the current series of court decisions.* The judicial and administrative decisions are contained in three continuously paginated volumes. The fourth volume, Number 16, provides access to legal opinions with reference to more than three hundred categories. It also contains the works identified in the decisions reported, as well as the names of participating and notable persons in the world of literature and the arts mentioned in connection with copyright and literary property involved in court litigation from 1789 to 1909.

*NOTE: A complete set of the Copyright Bulletins 17-40, including the Cumulative Index, may be ordered for $195.00 (prices subject to change).
